While County Judge Smith is on his visit to the Montezuma valley, County Attorney Mathew across the water, R. J. Nightingale on the Pacific Coast and R. P. Starr on business in Illinois, Uncle Joe Pedler is looking after their interests, in connection with his own, showing Uncle Joe as being both accommodating and capable of strenuous action, even with the thermometer hunting for cooler weather. Now, while Judge Smith is away and Judge Pedler is running the affairs of Cupid, we may confidently look for a material increase in the demand for hymen's vows, if indeed, not a material reduction in fees, should there be a run on that happy relation.

Little Mildred is in her first term of school where she gets reports as to her standing marked on a decimal scale. One hundred is perfect, and sixty is pretty serious. The other night while saying her evening prayers, her spirits, always high, were actually irrepressible, and her petition was punctuated with snickers and smothered giggles.

"Do you think the Lord will like that kind of a prayer?" asked her mother reproachfully.

"Nope," returned Mildred glibly. "Not much! He'll gimme 'bout sixty on that!"—From Woman's Home Companion for July.

Litchfield came over Tuesday and had a third try at our local ball team, but returned home with their tail feathers drooping. Loup City won by a score of 5 to 1, winning two games of the series of three.

Ainslie Davis, wife and baby drove over from Greeley last Sunday by auto in company with L. H. Winchell, a merchant of that city, who was on his way to Ravenna for a short trip. Leaving the Davis family at the home of Mrs. Davis' parents, Mr. and Mrs. T. M. Reed, Mr. Winchell left the same afternoon for Ravenna, but upon entering the big steel bridge south of town the auto encountered a team coming, and backing down the north approach the auto nearly turned turtle, caused by the two side wheels sinking in the sand and sliding down the side of the embankment. However, no especial damage was done, Will Criss going down in an auto and hauling the Winchell car into safety. Mr. Davis returned to Greeley, Monday, while Mrs. Davis and baby remained a short time longer, returning home in the Winchell auto on its return from Ravenna.

The Electric Theatre News

The Electric Theatre management has inaugurated an amateur, home talent night. This will be every Thursday evening. Anyone in town who will take part in these programs will please advise the manager in time so the feature may be advertised. Do yousing? We furnish and illustrate the song. Can you recite? Here is a splendid place to exercise your talent. A reading, a short play or farce; anything in fact, that might prove entertaining will be welcomed and appreciated. A cash prize will be awarded the best home talent number rendered during the month. Inquire particulars.

Don't forget the big Saturday Picture Matinee. This is worth seeing and is different than anything during the week.

To Ice Patrons

The regular icing days are Monday, Wednesday, Friday and Saturday of each week. Patrons failing to get their supply on these dates will please notify J. W. Conger immediately of said failure and he will attend to the matter at once.
