Huge Fish Identified as a Man-Eater, and Thought to Be the Largest Ever Caught in the Puget Sound

Seattle, Wash.-After a terrific struggle lasting seven hours a gigantic shark 36 feet long and estimated to weigh more than fifteen tons was captured by the combined crews of the fishing boats Goodpartner and Pioneer II., between Port Angeles and Port Crescent. Luckily the shark had entangled its front fins and its head in the stout meshes of the net. Before it could tear itself free three thicknesses of the net were wound around it. Then the struggle began. The six men on the Goodpartner worked desperately to keep the head of the big fish near the boat and the death-dealing tail away. Agein and again it would rear its big bulk out of the water and smash in the sides of the cabin. Olaf Larsen, the youngest member of the crew, had his arm broken, and Captain Dragich was cut in the head and chest by flying glass.

The Pioneer II. came to the assistance of the desperate fishermen on and the boat to a sandy beach. AIDED BY NEIGHBORS, SHE ROUTS ANIMALS WHICH ATTACKED THE BOY.

New Fork.-Armed with a club, Mrs. W. E. Miller of Brooklyn engaged in a furious battle with two dogs to save her son, who had been thrown to the ground and was being attacked by both animals. Mrs. Miller was assisted by one of her woman neighbors, and the two were victorious in their struggle with the dogs. Young Miller was severely bitten, but will recover.

The affair occurred almost in front of the Miller home. Miller was just returning from a walk with the family bulldog when another dog dashed up. Immediately the two animals began a flerce fight. Although young Miller's dog was having the best of the al-

ALICE SMOKE: WHAT OF IT?

MAKES A TRIP ON PLAINS OF WYOMING.

Through Solitudes to the Home of Senator Warren With Its Thirty Thousand Acres.

Cheyenne. Wyo .- On tough, wirey ponies, Theodore Roosevelt rode sixteen miles Sunday across the plains of Wyoming. He wanted to get back once more among the cowboys in their own country and mingle with them as he did in the old days, twenty-seven years ago, when the lure of the west brought him out here, a young man.

He rode far out into the vast brown stretches of open country leaving the city and its crowds far behind. He visited the sheep ranch of Senator Warren and returned to Chevenne at night more enthusiastic than ever about the wonders of the west.

Colonel Roosevelt began the day by going to church. With Timothy F. Burke of Cheyenne, United States district attorney, he attended the First Congregational church. After the service was over, the crowd found him and he shook hands with
