

Something New!

The FIRST NATIONAL BANK of Loup City hereby gives notice that they have purchased one of the world famous "TISCO" Manganese Steel Sales, recently tested at Canton, Ohio, in the presence of one of their officers by experts cunning in the art of Burglary.

Also, that they have ordered a new system of SAFE DEPOSIT BOXES to be placed in their strictly fire proof vaults as soon as received from the factory.

Further notice will be published in this space within a few weeks that this new equipment has arrived and we then promise to show our friends and the public one of the best protected banks in the state of Nebraska.

Yours respectfully,

L. HANSEN, Cashier.

Wright Reynolds is visiting at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. S. Reynolds, and has purchased some 20 head of cattle and a like number of hogs to take over to his farm on the west side. We are glad to note Wright's good fortune.

Geo. W. Collipriest, the popular U. P. agent here, with his family left this noon on a visit to Mrs. Celli, sister of the late Mr. Collipriest, and from there up into Iowa to visit the parents of Mr. Collipriest. They expect to be absent several weeks.

While attempting to stop the Mercantile Co's delivery team, Tuesday, near his home, while they were out on a spin, Dr. Chase was thrown down and run over by the frightened horses, and severely bruised from head to foot and is at present confined to his home.

Quite a change in the personnel of our motormen on the U. P. occurred Friday. Bert Morris, who has had charge of the motor for a number of months, was transferred to the Callaway branch, while Harry Hinman takes charge of the motor on this run. Will Odendahl takes Hinman's place as night tender.

We received a pleasant call yesterday from our good friend, F. T. Richmond of the west side of the county. He gives assurance that the west part of the county is strongly in the republican candidate and is rousing majorities, too. He has just had his silo put in by Albert Johnson, 16x30, holding 120 tons, and is well fixed for feed for his stock this winter.

Photographer Draper presented the editor last week with a fine piece of work in his line, being a finely mounted picture of the editor's little daughter at the head of the list, as shown by the fact that when he makes exhibits at state associations he is sure to secure one or more medals in competition with the very best of the state affords.

The moving pictures of "Damon and Pythias" at the Electric last Friday and Saturday night and Saturday matinee, was witnessed by large crowds, at each show and all were highly pleased. The pictures were especially delighted and showered congratulations on Sir Knight Watts of the Electric on his enterprise and forethought in producing the beautiful pictures.

J. F. Bock yesterday, with Mike Chileski, shipped three cars of cattle to the Omaha markets from McAlpine. J. F. sends the Northwestern for the coming year to his brother, Wm. Bock at Iowa City, Iowa, and to his nephew, Geo. Ackerman, at Tiffin, Iowa, to show them that Sherman county is in the center of commerce, rather than way out west, as people farther back east are apt to form opinion.

"You are the man we want. You will bring to us just what we want. I am sure. If you should be present at the same time, we will have him give a general talk, for if he should give his talk on the Edinburgh Conference, he would not be definite or concrete as you would be. In any event, we want you to make the above report, etc." The position of the letter which we print above is in some measure self-explanatory.

Rev. Montgomery, of the Presbyterian church of this city, is being asked to take a place on the program of Synod, which meets at Beatrice next Wednesday. A portion of the address which is being prepared for synod, will be given at the Presbyterian church next Sunday morning, under the title, "The Greatest Meeting Since the Day of Pentecost."

Armenius P. Culley
The Kearney Hub, the leading republican paper of this senatorial district, contains the following severe criticism of the action of A. P. Culley in filing as an independent candidate for state senator after being defeated by Mr. C. A. Clark of Ravenna, for the regular republican nomination in the August primary election. The Hub says:

"The Kearney Times is greatly exercised lest Mr. Culley's coming out as a 'wet' candidate for the senate by petition should 'put an awful stain upon the republican party.' That party does not, however, accept responsibility for the actions of Mr. Culley in leaving it and coming out as a Dahlimanite and we can only regret that having entered the contest as a republican before the primary and having filed with the secretary of state his declaration and solemn oath to abide by the result of the primary he should so far forget the legal and moral obligation of an oath, that having been defeated in a fair contest for the nomination he should immediately creep in by the back door. He undoubtedly relieves the republican party of a burden by this move.

There are reports of many good men turning from Dahlimanite to decency, but Mr. Culley is reversing the process with a vengeance."

Loses One Eye

The distressing news comes to us that last Friday at Durango, Colo., where she and her husband were visiting with their daughter, Mrs. John Zink, Mrs. Albert Dickerson of Litchfield, this county, had her left eye shot out and her right eye nearly so. It is ascertained that she was passing a shooting gallery, when a bullet fired pierced a two-inch plank and an inch board, and then struck Mrs. Dickerson about an inch below the right eye, going through the nose and lodging in the lower edge of the left eye, destroying the sight, but the sight of the right eye may possibly be saved. Mrs. Dickerson is an aged woman, in her seventies, and with her aged husband had so arranged their business affairs that they intended to travel for some time and take life easy during their declining years. The accident occurred yesterday by the way of friends in this county who take with them a relic for postage a part of a century or more.

Arm Amputated

Word was received here Monday that Mr. Joe Vaughn had suffered the amputation of his left arm, when on an accident he received here some time since. About six weeks since, Mr. Vaughn, accompanied by Miss Gertrude Lundy, were driving along the valley road north of town, when they heard a cry for help and Mr. Vaughn hastened back a few yards, where he found that Victor, who with his horse, was being driven by the F. F. Foster team, one of the horses being blind, had driven off a culvert bridge, both horses being down, the mother thrown between the horses, and Mr. Venier very much frightened trying to right matters. In aiding them Mr. Vaughn in some manner injured his left arm, for a couple of days he went about his territory, when his arm became so painful he was compelled to lay off. Instead of getting better, the arm continued worse, until finally he went to the hospital at Grand Island, where the injury was found to have culminated in tuberculosis of the bones of the arm and the amputation of the arm half way between the shoulder and elbow was necessitated. Mr. Vaughn is well known here and over the adjoining territory, and his terrible affliction will cause the deep sympathy of all. It is the irony of fate that the accident which has caused Mr. Vaughn the loss of his arm and undergoing for the past six weeks, to say nothing of the hundreds of dollars of costs, allowed Mr. Venier to escape without injury to himself, his mother or the team, and with only 50 cents of expense.

Crushed by the Cars

Louis Bookman, an old resident of Custer county, was ground to pieces at Hazard last Sunday morning, while attempting to board a fast freight. Dr. Main, coroner of Sherman county, was immediately notified and accompanied by Sheriff Williams and County Attorney Mathew, was driven to Hazard by Fred Odendahl, the jury returning a verdict that he was killed by the cars, but not returning in their findings other than that fact. The evidence adduced was as follows: Mr. Bookman had been down to Hazard from his home at Westerville on business, and was intending to take a slow freight home passing through Hazard that morning at 8:30, when it was due. The fast freight was just ahead of the way freight, and it is supposed Mr. Bookman thought it was the train he intended to take and which was to stop there. He asked the agent if the train would stop, meaning the way freight, and the agent, supposing he had reference to the fast train, replied that it would not, whereupon before the agent could stop him, he said he would jump on the moving train and made a run for it. He attempted to climb on when he was thrown with his legs under the wheels, severing his right leg above the knee and his left leg just below the knee. Witnesses saw him clinging around where the shreds of his legs caught on the oil box of the wheels, and he was torn loose from his hold, swinging his body beneath the wheels, severing the head, crushing the upper part of the head also, severed his right arm near the shoulder, and left the horribly mutilated body along the track. It was said to be the most frightfully mutilated body ever to be witnessed. The body was taken to the home at Westerville, where the funeral was held Tuesday. Deceased was aged about 75 years, a bachelor, worth about $75,000, and leaves only some half brothers and sisters as relatives.

Wanted to Cut and Carve

Quite a little excitement was occasioned at Jung's restaurant last Thursday, when a fellow from Kentucky attempted to carve a colored man at the supper table, when the "Kunnel from Kaintuck" wanted to "carve the coon," because the latter was eating at the same table, which the Kentuckian objected to as not the way the allowed it "young thar, sah!" It seems that a young man named Summers had lately arrived from the blue grass country and was engaged at here. A colored man, working at the salubrium in this city, is also a boarder at the restaurant where the blue grass man also spread his feet under the same table. The colored man sat down to the same table, when Kentucky ordered him to get out instanter, to which the fifteenth amendment demurred. Blue grass then went to his jacket and took therefrom a murderous dirk knife, which he proposed to help him eject the dusky-headed gent from his comfortable occupation. The colored man, with eyes bulging, grabbed a butcher knife and edged around the kitchen door, from which he flew the coop. A warrant later issued for the Kentuckian, who getting a tip from a friend left for other parts, and later the colored man requested the complaint withdrawn, provided the obstreperous blue grass then stayed away. However, the complaint is good for eighteen months, during which time absence will make the colored man feel safer and perhaps also save the absent one from boarding out considerable time under duress vile.

Electric Theatre Thrusts

Clara Anderson, Arthur Williams and Lawrence Graefe were the lucky ones at the silver dollar drawing last Saturday matinee.

"Damon and Pythias" was certainly fine. The Sir Knights of the city were nearly all present and applauded warmly.

Home talent night is now changed to Tuesday, instead of Thursday, to avoid conflicting with the churches' mid-week services.

Saturday matinee interest is warming up. Folks are finding out that this is one of the strongest programs of the week.

"Ben Hur," "Saul and David," "Last Stand of General Custer," and "Uncle Tom's Cabin," are among the specialties to be billed soon. Watch for dates.

Quiet Wedding

Yesterday afternoon (Wednesday) at 3 o'clock, occurred a pleasant little wedding at the home of I. N. Syas in this city, the contracting parties being Miss Maude M. Bascomb, daughter of Mrs. Mary Bascomb, both formerly of Omaha, and close friends of Mr. Syas and family, and Mr. Arthur L. McCullough, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. R. McCullough of Logan township. Rev. W. C. Harper officiating. Only the immediate relatives of the happy couple and a few near friends witnessed the ceremony, after which a fine dinner was served by the hostess, and the guests withdrew after tendering the warmest congratulations. The latter part of the week the bride and groom will go to Hamilton county to visit relatives, when they will return and go to housekeeping in the first of the new year. They were then at the home of the groom's father. The bride is a lovely little lady and has been a host of friends during the past summer spent in this city. The groom is a young man of steady habits, industrious and a rising young farmer of the economy, after which western extends best wishes to them for a long, happy and prosperous voyage through life.

Youthful Burglars

Four boys in their teens, sons of respectable parents, were brought before County Judge Smith Tuesday afternoon on a warrant charging them with burglarizing Duncan's general store in Litchfield last Sunday night of a small quantity of merchandise, plead guilty, and on account of their immature years and first offense were let off with a nominal fine of $25 and costs each. The Northwestern in deference to the sorrow and anger of the fathers and mothers of these boys, prefers not to mention the names of the culprits, trusting the present will prove a salutary lesson to them, and that they will grow up into good, honest and honorable manhood and a blessing to the parents whose hearts were made to bleed by their present act.
