On Monday of this week, the family of County Clerk Dieterichs was quarantined for smallpox, although an attendant physician diagnosed the case as chicken pox. This is the second time a quarantine has been ordered where the regular family physician has denied the existence of small pox.
D. L. Jacoby and family went to Aurora Monday, where the family will visit while Dwight accompanies his good father on a trip down into Texas, where the latter has real estate interests. Dwight assures us he has not the least intention of investing in Texas soil, but is going purely to see the country.

Last evening, Misses Pearl Needham and Delight Byers entertained some twenty young ladies in a most delightful manner at a Colonial party. The invitations read: "Martha and George Washington at home. Mr. Vernon Needham (host) Wednesday evening, Feb. 22nd, 1911." The hostesses represented the two Washingtons, and the guests were ladies and gentlemen of "ye olden time," and dressed in Colonial costume, with the exception of one young lady, who represented "Ye the Poor Indian." The rooms were decorated with flags and bunting, as were also the tables where a delicious luncheon was served in the course of the evening, which was otherwise passed with music and games, and the hours were filled with joy and merriment, even as they were in the days of long ago.

E. G. Taylor left Tuesday morning for Kansas City, Mo., where he will attend a meeting of the millers of the Southwest who grind hard winter wheat. Mr. Taylor thinks if the reciprocity treaty carries it will be a hard blow on both the farmers and millers of Nebraska and Kansas, who raise and grind hard winter wheat. For sixty years over sixty per cent of our surplus wheat has found a market in Minneapolis and has net our farmers a good profit. This trade under the new treaty would all be cut out and our grain sold on a much lower basis.

Mesdames Wm. Larsen and M. A. Phillips Tuesday evening of this week gave a joint birthday party to their young sons, Forrest Larsen and Mason Phillips. The early part of the evening was given to amusements and the merry crowd of young people to the number of some thirty were gathered at the Phillips home and later a dainty lunch was served the voracious rising generation at the Larsen home. It was reported a very pleasant evening for all.

The B. & M. depot at Ashton was totally destroyed by fire Tuesday afternoon. The fire is thought to have caught from a defective flue and was only noticed after the ceiling of the first story was in flames. The agent's family living in the second story, got safely out of the building with all their household effects, and the company's effects were also safely removed before the building was consumed.

While a young son of Jeff Williams was on top of a ladder leaning against the barn, last Thursday, the ladder was shoved by accident, causing the lad to fall to the frozen ground, rendering him unconscious for a time and severely spraining one wrist. The boy had a hammer in his hands, which in falling struck him on the craft, who was leading a team out of the barn, inflicting a gash on his forehead.

Mr. and Mrs. Ward Ver Valin on Monday evening entertained Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Larsen and family and this editorial family at a delicious three-course 6 o'clock dinner, the event being in celebration of the second birthday anniversary of Master Duane Burleigh, who as the guest of honor, the genial hostess being the first to welcome the young editor to this city on the morning of Feb. 21, 1909.

Mrs. Will Criss and Mrs. Doug. Bowen left Wednesday morning for Gold Hill, Ore. The ladies went in response to a summons from the bedside of their aged father, Charles Reidel, in forming them Jay Wheeler at once if he wished to see their parent alive. Mr. Reidel is well known here, being a pioneer settler of Sherman county, and moving to Oregon some few years ago.

Judge Wall has been quite ill for the past week and over with a gripe and threatened attack of pneumonia. Yesterday afternoon the Judge was able to be up and around the house, but his lungs are very sore and require the utmost care and attention. The Northwestern and our people as a whole will trust he may soon be out and in usual robust condition.

Mrs. George Stork of this city has had splendid success as a composer of music, three out of five songs she has composed having been accepted to date, and the other two receiving favorable mention. The friends of the good lady will congratulate her on her ability and wish her continued success.

Whenever the St. Paul Republican gets a grouch, and that is mighty often, it takes it out on the U. P. depot at that place or on the train service on this branch. Our editorial brother should coolify off.

Stops the Itching, Clears the Skin

You who suffer from Eczema—are you on the verge of despair—quite satisfied that nothing will rid you of a persistent malady?

Eczema "hangs on" and it requires time to effect a permanent cure—you should exercise the greatest caution in the selection of the remedy used. Ordinary ointments and lotions are unknown quantities—avoid them—insist upon knowing just what you are using—you may at the present time be losing ground by using a remedy you are not absolutely sure of.

is in our opinion the best lotion you could possibly use—it relieves the itching and irritation after the first application—it continued use will work wonders.

Let us tell you more about this lotion—we know the formula and you can be absolutely certain as to what you are applying.

Nyal's Eczema Lotion comes in 50c and $1.00 bottles.

Besides good goods you get good treatment at our store. Always glad to have people come in and look around, whether they want to buy or not. We wait on you promptly, give you what you want.

Ordination

The following communication explains itself, and the many friends of Joseph James in Loup City will heartily congratulate him on receiving the deserved compliment.

"In response to a call of the Shelton church, a council of laymen representatives from five churches met at the church on Feb. 19th to consider ordaining the pastor, Joseph James. After the examination, the council unanimously recommended them to proceed with the ordination, which was completed in the evening service. Dr. McMinn of Kearney then preached the sermon which was very appropriate and appreciated by all. Brother Coon of Grand Island offered the ordaining prayer. Pastor Schlemmer of Central City gave the charge to the church. Dr. Mills of Omaha gave the charge to the candidate and the right hand of fellowship. Dr. Mills was chosen as moderator of the meetings, which were very refreshing. Two deacons, Bro. Stoneberger and Bro. McKnight were also ordained. Pastor Richards of Gibson giving the charge to the church.

DANIEL STONEBERGER,
Church Clerk Moderator.

German Evangelical Church

Next Sunday, Feb. 26th, there will be services at Loup City at 10:30 a. m. Feb. 25th, lesson in German at Loup City church at 10 a. m. P. Juelling, Pastor.

A DeLaval

Cream Separator expert will be at the creamery the 1st and 2nd day of March. If your separator needs repairing be sure and bring it in one of these days and have it push first class condition. We will not charge you for the work, but just for the new parts needed. If you are contemplating the purchase of a new separator this spring you should see the new DeLaval before you buy; it is the recognized standard. I will take any kind of separator in trade.
