had made for him! His fingers itched to get at Strang's thick bull-like nstant he had fired and the huge form of Arbor Croche toppled headlong into the room. A roar like that of a beast came from behind him and before he could turn again Strang was upon him. In that moment he felt that all was lost. Under the weight of the Mormon king he was crushed to the floor; his pistol slipped from his grasp; two great hands choked a despairing cry from his throat. He saw the prophet's face over him, distorted with passion, his huge neck bulging, his eyes flaming like angry garnets. He struggled to free his pinoned arms, to wrench off the death grip at his throat, but his efforts were like those of a child against a giant In a last terrible attempt he drew up his knees inch by inch under the weight of his enemy; it was his only chance-his only hope. Even as he felt the fingers about his throat sinking like hot iron into his flesh and the breath slipping from his body he remembered this murderous knee punch of the rough fighters of the inland seas and with all the life that remained in him he sent it crushing into the abdomen of the Mormon king. It was a moment before he knew that it had been successful, before the film cleared from his eyes and he saw

Strang groveling at his feet; another moment and he hurled himself on the prophet. His fist shot out like a hammer against Strang's jaw. Again and again he struck until the great shaggy head fell back limp. Then his fingers twined themseives like the links of a chain about the purplish throat and he choked until Strang's eyes opened wide and lifeless and his convulsions ceased. He would have held on until there was no doubt of the end, had

Gardens for Table Decorations. Miniature gardens are among the novelties in table decorations. Tiny flower beds are filled with geraniums, hyacinths, heather, roses, carnations, ferns and other dainties of the horticulturists' are. Dwarf trees from Japan fill in the gaps. Often poinsettia is used for the centerpiece. Fruits, especially golden tangerines

The straight, narrow lines not overaccentuated and the shortened waist line are very pretty in the one-piece trotting frocks of linen, silk, etc. which are being made for southern wear, though the empire waist line must always be handled very carefully in connection with a street frock if it is not to give the frock an air suitable to the boudoir rather
