rget the prophecy.

ne two weeks since, the Times offered its readers the information, official or otherwise, of the proposed candidacy on its side of the political fence of R. D. Hendrickson and L. H. urrier for the office of county superntendent of schools, and that of N. Pritchard for sheriff, while it carried unanimously.

Claims committee reported having those offices, but are not willing to accept the Times' prophecy of no opposition. However, we are able to draw warrants for claims on the this week to add a little political in-formation which will tend to cause the pot to get action looking toward the boiling point. We have assurances from the most reliable sources that Sheriff Williams is to have a that Sheriff Williams is to have a that Sheriff Williams is to have a formidable opponent, for his renomination to the office he has filled so well, in the person of Herman J. Johansen, most well and favorably known throughout the county. We have it by rumor that Harry Miner is also out for the office of sheriff.
