Farmers should feed a few sacks of meal to their stock this time of year. It puts them in condition for spring, and is a very valuable feed for colts or calves—being much cheaper than stock food. We have received a full car load and will make special prices on 5 or 10 sack lots. Loup City Mill or Taylor's Elevator.

Those interested in automobile figures, will be interested to know from published reports that the Ford Auto Co. disposed of some 30 machines in Nebraska from March 15 to 31, the record showing the sales more than doubling that of their nearest competitor. The total sales for March reach the astounding figure of 4,254 machines. Ogilvie & Simpson are the agents here for the Ford car and are pushing the sales.

Death's Harvest

Thursday evening, March 30, 1911 occurred the death of Mrs. Anna P. Dinsdale, at Excelsior Springs, Mo., where she was taking treatment, following a stroke of paralysis, and as a result of a second stroke a few days preceding her death. Her family being at her bedside when the end came, Anna P. Greenwood was born at Ickley, Yorkshire, England, August 9, 1854, hence was aged 56 years, 7 months and 19 days. She was married to George Dinsdale in England, coming to America with her husband and one son in November, 1882, locating near Elkhorn in Douglas county, Nebraska. Six years later they moved to Nance county, 14 miles west of Fullerton and ten years later to Palmer, where they have a beautiful new home. The remains were brought home to Palmer, Saturday, where the funeral occurred Monday, and the body laid to rest beside her husband, whose death by accident occurred less than two years ago. Three sons and one daughter are left to mourn the loss of a loving mother. Quite a number of our citizens attended the funeral, and she was highly respected by our people.

The sons and daughters desire to extend their thanks to our people who were so kind during their recent bereavement.

Chas. Masin, the pop man, Monday purchased the Matwe's property adjoining the M. E. parsonage, occupied by the editor and family. That means we have to move, blankety blank the blank block. Mr. Masin will put a cement basement under the entire building, erect a barn and otherwise improve the property.

Invitations are out for the marriage this coming Sunday, of Miss Elma B. Corning, daughter of County Surveyor and Mrs. E. B. Corning of this city, to Mr. Frank J. Zwick of Elm township, to occur at the home at 1 o'clock. Miss Winnie Outhouse is expected home from Lincoln to furnish the music for the occasion.

At the regular annual business meeting of the Presbyterian society last Thursday evening, the resignation of Pastor Montgomery was accepted unanimously. The church has no one in view for the pastorate, but the officers have the names of several candidates who will be here from time to time, and no doubt a regular pastor will soon be called.

Mrs. Viola Odendahl and Miss Ernestine Odendahl last Saturday at their home entertained at 6 o'clock dinner and dancing, the following guests: Mrs. Emma McCray, Mr. and Mrs. E. S. Havhurst, Dr. and Mrs. A. S. Main, Mr. and Mrs. I. E. Williams, Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Zimmerman, Mr. and Mrs. W. Larson, Mr. and Mrs. E. Odendahl and Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Burleigh.

The Northwestern extends its best thanks to the following old and new readers for their financial favors for the present year: Henry Hansen of Ashton, J. F. Nicolson, Clifford Bone, Walter Zwick, Lou Schwamer, Wm. Aufrecht, Mrs. J. A. Gilbert for herself, Mrs. M. V. Krise of Mehama, Ore., and Myron Gilbert of Blake, Neb., Fred Schneider and W. O. Brown.

Walter Zwick left Friday afternoon had a narrow escape from death or at least serious injury. He was running an emery wheel at J. I. Depey's foundry, when the wheel suddenly burst in three pieces, pausing between his side and left arm, but fortunately missing both by a fraction. Had it been otherwise, he must have received a broken arm at the least or received the full impact in his left side. A miss was as good as a mile in this case.

J. B. Ford and family left Tuesday noon for Tehachapi, Calif., the home of the McKinnis Bros., where Mr. Ford has taken some 500 shares in a fruit ranch owned by the former. Mrs. Bert McKinnie and little son, who have been visiting here the past fortnight, preceded them to Grand Island that morning. May the entire party have a safe journey and happy reunion in that tropical clime. Mr. Ford and family will remain at least six months, and permanently, if they like it.

Ward Ver Valin leaves here the first of May for Mitchell, S. D., where he has accepted the position of assistant manager for a line of lumber yards at Mitchell, Loomis and Riverside. His family will remain here till the close of the present school year, when they will join him at Mitchell, where they will make their home. The people of Loup City, with one accord, will regret the loss of Mr. Ver Valin from their business interests and his family from the church and social relations, but as the change is for their best interest, they will wish him an educational point. Mitchell being a college town, they will wish their happiness and prosperity.

Mrs. Viola Odendahl last Friday afternoon entertained the La-fa-lot club and a number of lady friends at her elegant home. The ladies of the club were: Mrs. A. J. Johnson, Mrs. B. P. Starr, Mrs. H. J. Johnson, Mrs. C. E. Mellor, Mrs. C. C. Carlson, Mrs. C. C. Carlson, Mrs. F. M. Henry, Mrs. W. C. Harper, Mrs. A. M. Bennett, Mrs. J. T. Hale, Miss Henry Young, and the invited guests were: Mrs. A. P. Culley, Mrs. E. W. Thompson, Mrs. Wharton, Mrs. Rettenmayer, Mrs. W. O. Brown, Mrs. J. Lofholm, Mrs. Will Odendahl, Mrs. Carlson, Mrs. A. E. Chase, Mrs. W. T. Owens, Mrs. Marcy, Mrs. Jas. Johnson, Mrs. H. M. Mathew, Mrs. Boyce, Mrs. A. L. Zimmerman, Mrs. S. E. Galloway, Mrs. D. W. Montgomery, Mrs. O. E. Adams and Mrs. Fred Odendahl.

Mrs. Head, president of the State W. C. T. U., assisted by the lecturer, Miss Dunn, will be here for a series of meetings next Sunday and Monday. The program will be announced from the pulpits Sunday morning. Mrs. Head speaks at the M. E. church Sunday morning, however.

R. H. Mathew and bride were expected home this week, but later word, after all arrangements were made for their reception at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Zimmerman, was to the effect that they were having so pleasant a time they would not be home till a later date.

Dug up and taken from my pasture, one and one-half miles southeast of Loup City, on or about March 31st, a growing cedar tree, between six and seven feet in height. Any information as to its whereabouts will be kept in confidence and suitably rewarded. AARON WALL.

Twenty-five years ago last Sunday Dr. A. J. Kearns came to Loup City. The U. P. road was then built as far as Boelus, being built to Loup City the following June. The doctor came to Loup City in a blinding snow storm. When one thinks of the changes in the city and country from that time to this it seems little short of marvelous. What tales the old settlers could relate of the history of this country.

Residence for Sale
My house and six lots for sale. Phone 6 on 13, or see me for particulars. WARD VER VALIN.

Millinery Opening
April 7 and 8, 1911. A nice line of ladies' trimmed pattern hats. An invitation extended to all. Mrs. D. DeWitt, Variety Store.

Alfalfa Seed for Sale
Alfalfa and Millet seed for sale. Tel. 4 on 92. ADFRECHT BROS.

Presbyterian Bulletin
Adjourned congregational meeting tonight (Thursday). Mr. Montgomery has his farewell services in the Presbyterian church next Sunday morning and evening. The message in the morning will be particularly for the church, while the sermon at 8 o'clock p. m. will be for the community. All are given a cordial invitation to both services.

Electric Theatre
will be open on Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday evenings of each week, with an entire change of pictures. Just the place for yourself and family to spend an enjoyable evening.

Kirschbaum Clothes

Spring days are top-coat days

—too warm for the heavy overcoat, too cool for no overcoat.

Our line of KIRSCHBAUM Suits is superb. Such style, fit, workmanship and fabric you've never seen, even at considerably higher prices.

Hard to beat the KIRSCHBAUM EMPIRE COAT, with semi-form-fitting back and the large imported ivory buttons showing through the front. Fabrics in all the newest effects, rough or smooth, all shades.

Also the CHESTERFIELD overcoat, in more sombre materials, like black and oxford. Some trimmed with serge, some with silk, throughout, even to the edges. A magnificent variety for your selection.

Prices from $12.50 to $30. Whatever price you pay for a coat or suit bearing the KIRSCHBAUM label, you can be assured of money's worth and more. If you find any imperfection in a "KIRSCHBAUM" hand-tailored garment, call at this store and get your money back.

Prices for the KIRSCHBAUM label when you buy your clothes. It is the guaranty of superiority in fabric, tailoring and style.

Lorentz, The Clothier.

Along R. R. No. 2.
Carl Squires was confined to his bed several days the past week. Geo. Peterson's children were quite sick the latter part of last week.

Will Henderson was hauling hay last Thursday from John Squires' place.

Dr. Hendrickson was out to John Squires' last Thursday.

Miss Martha Henning was trading at Loup City last Thursday.

Jim Bone has been busy the past week hauling the different materials for his new house on Loup City.

Lou Haller was out to Carl Squires last Thursday to fix his well and had only been there a short time until he had taken out some four feet of extra pipe in the bottom of the well.

Mrs. L. Johnson on Route 1, is able to be up around the house after a long and serious illness through through most of the winter.

The farmers are farming better this year than ever before. Some of them have diversified their corn ground two or three times and harrowed it once or twice. It pays to get ore ground in a garden-like shape before the heavy rains come, so the ground will take up all the moisture.

Anton Spotski hauled a load of lumber home last Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. Herman Jung, Jr., will soon be patrons on Route 2.

Mrs. Fredrickson hauled lumber out to his place last Thursday.

Fred Daddow killed his summer's meat last week.

Miss Mabie Fulliton is working at the home of Geo. Peterson's.

One of Geo. McFadden's horses was kicked by another horse and had its leg broken last week.

Another fine snow of some six inches in depth covered the route Saturday, April 1st. The shade trees and evergreen trees along the route looked beautiful covered with snow. It will be a grand thing for winter wheat and alfalfa.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Bone have moved to Loup City the past week where Mr. Bone is building a house just west of the pop factory, and their son, Clifford and wife are now in full possession of the farm.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Daddow and baby have been on the sick list the past week, and at times were very sick. His father has been looking after his chores the past week.

Miss Bertha Smalley visited at the home of her friend, Miss Minnie Obermiller, Sunday.

W. O. Brown was out appraising school land Monday.

Jim McBeth has re-set his mail box again.

Frank Roy returned to his home near Farwell, Monday, after a visit with his brother, Jake Roy.

Mr. and Mrs. Vern Aileman and family visited at the home of Sam Chilson, and report Sam doing as well as could be expected.

The geese and ducks were thick along the river last Saturday and Sunday.

Art Conger sold a saddle pony the past week.

Milo Gilbert is having a house, 16x24, built on his farm, and will rent it to some parties from Lincoln when it is completed.

John McCall visited at Loup City over Sunday.

Frank Casteel and Oliver Brodock attended church at Loup City Sunday evening.

R. Spencer and son Earl, attended the funerals of Mrs. Dinsdale at Palmer Monday.

Carrier on No. 1 was driving on Route 2 Sunday.
