Election of Teachers

Last Friday the school board met and selected the following teachers for our city schools for the coming year: Superintendent, Miss A. D. Bennett; principal, Miss Frances Sweetland; assistant principal not elected so far; eighth grade, Mrs. Emma McCray; sixth and seventh, Miss Jessie McGovern of Comstock; fifth, Miss Lena Smith; fourth, Miss Florence Leininger; second and third, Miss Henry Young; second primary, Miss Olive McClary; first primary, Miss Nettie Conger. Neither Supt. O'Connell, Miss Salmond, Miss Wilson nor Miss Duncan made application for re-election to their rooms. Supt. O'Connell has been at the head of our schools for three years, during which time very notable progress has been made. The school has been raised from the three to the four year accredited list. A normal training course has been put in whereby the school receives $350 cash each year from the state, and the result of which is that sixteen Loup City girls who have taken the work are teaching in the county and earning approximately $1000 a year. The number will be increased to twenty-three when this year's class graduates with a total earning capacity of over $7000. A Domestic Science course has been organized, which gives the girls an additional optional subject with good practical work and for which a University credit is received. All this extra work has been done without any additional teaching force and which so far as the superintendency is concerned costs the district $55 less than before. Music and drawing have been a regular part of the course of study in all the grades below the high school. Also, due to his initiative and efforts with the hearty aid of pupils and patrons, a piano, pictures, statuary, gift donations of books and apparatus to the value of over $400 has been secured for the high school. Mr. O'Connell has proved a fine instructor and up-builder of our schools, and we wish him success wherever he may locate.

School Program

Mrs. J. C. Bone closed her school in Dist. 47 some three weeks ago, a copy of the program being handed us later, and which was mislaid till too late for last week's paper, so we print it now as follows: Song, "Happy Greeting to All"; by school, opening address, Sarah Bichel; recitation, "Welcome"; Hans Dietz; rec. "A True Story"; Alvina Bichel; dialogue, "A Slight Misunderstanding"; rec. "He's Repressed"; Walter Dietz; rec. "Buy Cap-saver"; the E. Peterson; song, "Teaching Dolly"; Mary Bichel; song, "I Love the Little White Schoolhouse"; school; rec. "Over and Over Again"; Annetta Peterson; rec. "Don't Give Up"; Christian Hansen; dialogue, "The Train to Mauro"; dialogue, "Dr. Brown's Visit"; rec. "Willie's Speech"; Decklan Flynn; rec. "Harry's Lecture"; song, "There was an Old Woman"; by four girls; rec. "Ain't he cute?"; John Flynn; rec. "Taking Dolly's Picture"; Annetta Peterson; monologue, "Aunt Doleful's Visit"; dialogue, "The Rival Orators"; rec. Gregory Flynn; dialogue, "Love Under Difficulties"; rec. "The Reaper and the Flowers"; dialogue, "Occupation for Six Girls"; rec. "Good Night"; Annetta Peterson; song by school, "Good-bye School Days"; closing address by Lloyd Rainforth. After the program a treat of candy and peanuts was served to the children by their teacher. About thirty-five were present. Lizzie Miller received the prize in 8th grade spelling for receiving the greatest number of headmarks. Lloyd Rainforth received the prize in the 2nd grade.

School Notes

In the distribution of honors at the University this year, the Loup City pupils were signally fortunate. Two of the thirty-eight elections to the Phi Beta Kappa, the honorary scholarship society, were won, one each, by Merose and Emma Outhouse, and of the four elections to the Delta Sigma Rho, the honorary debating society, one was won by Clifford Rein. The pupils from no other town in the state, except Lincoln and Omaha, were so eminently successful. Even Omaha had but three of the former, none of the latter.

Supt. O'Connell has secured Rev. Dr. Roach of St. Paul's M. E. church address this year. Dr. Roach is considered one of the best speakers in the state.

Miss Salmond, sixth and seventh grade teacher, was called home last Saturday on account of a death in her family. At this time we do not know the particulars, but the school is deeply moved by such sorrow should come to one of our number.

The Editor's Son Married Last Friday, April 14, 1911, at 7 p. m., at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. A. J. Fisher, at Fremont, Neb., Frank W. Burleigh was united in marriage with Miss Laura Fisher, the Rev. Craven officiating, with only the near relatives of the bride present. The groom is the oldest son of the editor of this paper and has been since the first of the year employed at the Orthopedic Hospital in Lincoln, where he met his bride, who was employed as a nurse at the institution. While in Lincoln a few weeks since, we met the bride-to-be and found her a lovely girl and one whom we believe will be a splendid and loving home-maker, and while the happy pair have taken the old man by surprise, not expecting the denouement for some time, yet congratulates the boy and trusts they will have a happy and prosperous wedded life. They will make their future home at 325 Pebble St., Fremont, the groom to take the position of fireman on the Northwestern road after May 1st.

Austin Scribbles

Miss Klea McNulty's school will close next week, Friday, March 28th. Lunch will be served noon, and entertainment given in the evening. A. C. Ogle came down Sunday in his auto and took his mother and sister home with him for dinner.

J. A. Arnett shelled corn Monday for Will Hancock and Jim Johnson.

Rev. Montgomery preached his farewell sermon at Austin Sunday.

One of J. Plant's little boys got his hand quite badly smashed in churning down the windmill.

Klea McNulty visited with Willma Foss Tuesday night.
