We wish to impress on you the advantages and convenience of a bank account.

Right now is a good time to put your business on a systematic basis. After once you have used the check plan of paying all bills, you will realize the risk of the haphazard, lose money in the pocket method you are now using. The old

Great Rebekah Meeting

The third annual meet of the Rebekah District Assembly No. 32 was held in this city Tuesday and yesterday, the work being done in Society hall, followed by a banquet in the lounge room. A great number being present from over the district. Following is a well written account by one of the Sister Rebekahs:

"The meeting opened Tuesday evening with a goodly attendance, the district officers in charge, with Mrs. Seville of Arcadia as president. Mrs. Emma L. Talbot, state secretary, of South Omaha was present and gave able instruction. Our state secretary is just the right woman in the right place. Her splendid tact and hearty good cheer won the hearts of all. There are times when women do not care to talk, notwithstanding their reputation to the contrary, but Sister Seville knows how to call them up. The address of welcome by Mrs. Jas. Conger was splendidly given and responded to by Mrs. James Landers of Arcadia in a truly heartfelt manner. Mrs. Starr of Loup City furnished excellent music for the evening. Wednesday morning the trains brought good delegations from Sargent, Comstock and Arcadia, and some Bockville members came in on the afternoon and evening trains. At the afternoon session the district officers for the ensuing year were elected and the state secretary devoted the rest of the afternoon to general instruction and it was with reluctance that the members were forced to close the meeting of the afternoon. More delegates came from Rockville, and a special train brought another crowd from Sargent, Comstock and Arcadia at 7 o'clock in the evening. At the Wednesday night meeting the initiating and fancy drills put on by Sargent and Rockville teams were very beautiful and showed the effect of the hard work done by them. Past Grand Master Miller was present and expressed his good fellowship and hearty appreciation of the Rebekah lodges in choice and appropriate language. The meeting closed after installation of the new district officers and all repaired to the banquet hall where a beautiful repast awaited. It is meetings of this kind that make one glad to be alive and happier yet that they are Rebekahs. The Wednesday night meeting closed with a beautiful touching duet by Mesdames Parks and Stark of Sargent."

See T. M. Reed for Feed Grinders.

Rev. Juelling will hold services at Ashton next Sunday, at 10:30 a. m.

The Northwestern is pleased this week to add the name of Mr. Will Henderson, another of the good Sherman county boys who recently became a Benedict, to its list of readers and who will farm on Route 1.

Sunday afternoon, Fritz Bichel's big auto went wrong as he was taking a party of young people to Ashton for German services, getting tired near Fred Schneider's. A team of horses was drafted into service to bring the delinquent back to town.

We received a pleasant call last Saturday from Mrs. Fred Thode. As she renewed for another year of Northwestern visits she said she had been getting the paper for twenty-three years and could not do without it. It is pleasant to hear such kind words from subscribers, and trust Mrs. Thode may be a subscriber for more than a score of years longer.

On Monday of this week, Mrs. Sophia Pflester, mother of the Pflester boys was brought before the commissioners of insanity, adjudged of unsound mind and was Tuesday morning taken by the sheriff to Hastings. Mrs. S. F. Reynolds attending the demented woman. At the train, the old lady made some objections to going, but finally yielded without much resistance.

The first base ball game of any special importance so far this season was held last Friday, between the high school nines of Loup City and Ord, the local team defeating Ord by the neat score of 8 to 3. The game was said to be a pretty one and very enjoyable to the crowd present in spite of the raw sort of weather prevailing. The visitors came over in autos, and were a gentlemanly lot of fellows.

The barn of John Frederickson in the east part of Elm township, adjoining the Frank Henrikson farm, was burned last Sunday night with all its contents, including five head of horses, four belonging to Frederickson and the fine stallion of Andy Widstrand, a lot of grain, several sets of harness articles of great value. We understand the barn and horses were all insured, with the exception of the Widstrand horse. The origin of the fire is unknown.

Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Mason and son, Floyd, arrived last Saturday noon from their home in Indiana. Mrs. Mason and son to remain for a few weeks' visit, but Will, who has left the banking business to be a plutocratic granger, having to return in a few days to look after his farm. Can you imagine Will getting a span of oxen and tugging the soil back in Indiana? Just the same, Friend Mason looks in finer fettle than he ever saw him when here farming the farmers instead. We understand he intends moving to Alabama soon.

The repetition of the cantata, "The Brownie Band," by Miss Conger's primary department last Friday evening at the opera house, was greeted by a crowd as large as is usually given travelling theatrical entertainments in spite of the fact that at the former rendition of the cantata the opera house was crowded to its utmost capacity, and many who attended the first were present to hear the second, showing substantial appreciation of the splendid work of the little ones, which was fully equal to the former rendition, in spite of the fact that sickness was rampant in the characters. The band again did a neat act in rendering several selections before the curtain raised. The band will never lose by their courtesies.

Henry Ohlsen was down to Omaha and Lincoln last week on business connected with the brick plant. While away, Mr. Ohlsen visited B & M. headquarters, but the close-mouthed officials refused to give out any information regarding their future operations with regard to Loup City, although Mr. Ohlsen informed them of their purpose to enlarge and rebuild their plant. Mr. Ohlsen has purchased a fifteen-ton 50 horse power engine, will have charge Sunday this week from Springfield, Ill., and is now receiving other fine machinery which will be placed as quickly as possible. Ohlsen Bros. are preparing to enlarge their plant to many times its present capacity, and the Northwestern will shortly give an exhaustive write-up of the business enterprise, which will be one of the largest of its nature in central Nebraska.

The Grim Reaper

Died, at the M. E. hospital in Omaha, Friday, April 14th, 1911, resulting from an operation, Mrs. Christian Oltjenbruns, at the age of 36 years and 20 days. Mrs. Oltjenbruns was taken to the hospital the 8th instant and following the operation she seemed for a time doing nicely but was taken worse and rapidly failed till death came to her relief on six days later. Anna Klamp was born near Lincoln, Neb., March 15th, 1875, and was married to Christian Oltjenbruns on Feb. 6th, 1893. To this union were born five children one of whom died in earlier years, the others, namely, Minnie Louisa, Elsie Ellen, Edna Fay and Herbert Frank, are left with the husband and father to mourn their loss. Her aged mother has made her home here for some time. The family moved to Sherman county six years ago and located just south of town. Deceased had been a sufferer for a long time, at times her sufferings being intensified, but she bravely faced it all and only as a last resort, when all else failed, consented to the operation from which she prophesied she would not recover. Her cheery disposition and affectionate manner won the friendship of all with whom she came in contact. The bereaved ones have the sympathy of the entire community over the loss of a devoted wife, loving mother and loyal friend. The funeral was held on Easter Sunday from the M. E. church in this city, of which deceased was a loyal and consistent member. Rev. W. C. Harper conducting the services, and the remains laid to rest in Evergreen cemetery. We are requested to render the heartfelt thanks of Mr. Oltjenbruns and family to friends and neighbors for their aid and sympathy during the illness and subsequent death of their devoted wife and loving mother.
