In Washington the other day, Mr. Bryan announced most emphatically that he was not nor would be a candidate for president at the coming election. He also refused to express his preference as between Champ Clark, Woodrow Wilson and Gov. Harmon.

Among the political announcements at the head of these columns this week will be found that of E. A. Smith, who asks for the nomination for county judge at the hands of the democrats and people's independent voters at the primary election. It goes without saying that Judge Smith will have no opposition for that nomination, and in fact, judging by comment, it would be but little use for any one to try.

"Fainting Bertha", the historical Nebraska woman who has received more newspaper notoriety the past few years for her crooked work, and has been confined in numerous jails, pens and insanity hospitals, was sent to the pen at Lincoln the other day for a term of three years for stealing goods from Miller & Paine in that city. If she is crazy, as is universal, she is claimed by experts, why was she not confined in a mad house.

A big head-end collision on the B. & M. near McCook, Monday morning between two overland trains, caused the death of both engineers and firemen and twelve others, and injured 22. Among the killed was Clarence A. Hilsabeck, a traveling man of Holdrege, thought to be brother-in-law of Mrs. Nan B. Hilsabeck, sister of, and a frequent visitor here. The disaster was caused by the failure of the operator at McCook to deliver orders to eastbound No. 12. Agent Danielson of the B. & M. here was a close friend of both dead engineers, who were among the oldest in point of service on the Burlington, most careful pilots and highly esteemed by officials of the road.

The Northwestern is pleased to call attention this week to the possibility and probability that the office of county treasurer, and one who in the race this fall could and would be elected to that most important office. For some time, the host of friends of F. M. Henry, both in and out of the republican party have been beseeching him to allow his name to be placed before the voters for county treasurer, and so insistent have been their demands that he has almost consented to have it so, and upon his return from his business trip to Iowa this week will give his final decision. Mr. Henry is most thoroughly qualified for the office, his life work having been along clerical lines, is a first class accountant and bookkeeper, and would understand all the details of the work to start in with. The county treasurer is one of the most important of all county offices and should have the best and most competent man at its head. It is no disparagement of others to say that no better or more competent man could be selected to that important post of duty. We wish and desire of his friends and allow his name to be placed on the ticket. We believe he should and can be nominated and elected.

Decoration Day

Tuesday of this week, in commemoration of the glorious deeds of our Boys in Blue, and in honor of the heroic dead as well as of the few torturing veterans left with us, whose footsteps are fast passing down the vale of time, the citizens of Loup City, old and young, met once more to observe the day in a patriotic manner of those thrilling days of '61-'65, left only in history to all save a few of the ninety millions of the present day in this nation which shed of its best blood for its preservation.

The day, while opening cloudy and gloomy, yet proved most pleasant and lacking in the oppressive heat usual on such occasions.

At 1 o'clock the usual procession was formed on our streets, composed of children, old soldiers sons of veterans, ladies of the relief corps and civic organizations and headed by the Loup City band marched to the M. C. church where the exercises of the day were held.

The church was beautifully and tastefully decorated, the pulpit smothered with flowers, a large chorus choir at hand, and after the seats reserved for the procession taken the church proved entirely inadequate to accommodate more than fifty per cent of those wishing seats.

The program of the day as published was given almost in its entirety, the melody of war songs by the band, assisted by a chorus of young ladies, proving by far the best number and elicited a storm of applause.

At the close of the program, the procession was formed and proceeded to the cemetery, where the closing ceremonies took place. The band was to have headed it out there, but through fault of management was not provided with conveyance to the cemetery, and returned to the city, where they delighted the people with several selections. It is to be hoped a more careful and judicious selection will be made to take charge of such occasions hereafter.

A Sad Letter from Spokane Spokane, Wash., May 22.—Editor Northwestern: We take this means of letting our dear friends in Loup City know of our first grief caused by death.

After an illness of 22 days, the after effects of whooping-cough, our baby, Lois Lillian, aged 13 months, went back to live with God Thursday, May 18, 1911. The funeral of our little one was held at our home, 04123 Lincoln street, at 2 p. m., Friday. Rev. Pemberton of the Whitehouse M. E. church spoke to us such words of sympathy as it seemed we had never heard before. The soft melodies were indeed soothing. The beautiful flowers given by schools, churches and friends, and the kind help and sympathy of our neighbors, all aided greatly in relieving our sorrow, yet, with all, it is surely our saddest time in life; just how sad no one can know until they have passed through the same great trial themselves. Mrs. Zeigler and Mrs. Bower of Coeur d'Alene, Idaho, were present at the funeral; also Mrs. Hoorenboezen and daughter Cora, Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Biemond and little daughter, and Belydere, Neb. friends, all now residents of this beautiful city.

Grandma Gardner has built herself a nice cottage of 7 rooms at Coeur d'Alene, and is in good health for one as old as she.

We all love the beautiful western country, but it is hard not to know and we were there. Otis is a drug clerk at Wallace, Idaho. Our other children are all with us. Mr. Hiser is manager of the Ravenna Creamery Co., which has grown to be quite a business at this place, having sold 35 car loads of butter and eggs during the past year.

We back it is prosperous, of which we are glad, and we would be pleased to see any and all our friends from there, whenever they are in Spokane.

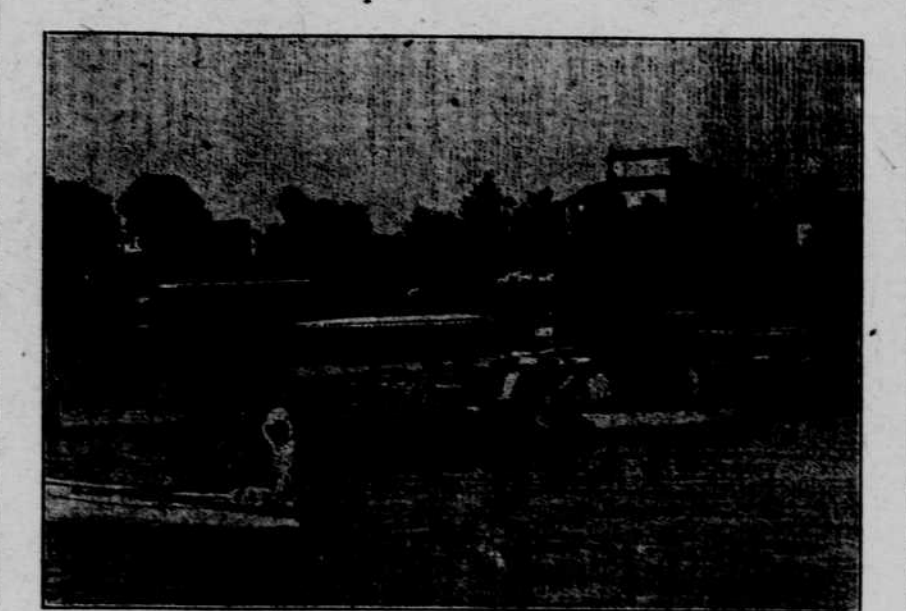

F. H. HISER AND FAMILY.

D. 1911, at 10 o'clock a. m., to show cause, if any there be, why the prayer of the petition should not be granted, and that notice of the pendency of said petition, and that the hearing thereof be granted to all persons interested in said matter by publishing a copy of this order in the printed or county newspaper for three successive weeks prior to said day of hearing. Witness my hand and the seal of said county court this 31st day of May, 1911. [SEAL] County Court Judge. Last pub. June 5

Sarengthens feeble Women

But very few women possess constitutions that will withstand the wear and tear of daily routine—

Be it in the home, the office, the schoolroom, the store, or in the factory—there is an excessive strain on the delicate functional organs—these become irregular in their action, the nerves give way under the strain, the blood becomes impoverished and the result is a complete collapse.

Nyal's Vegetable Prescription

If taken in time, will guard against this—its tonic properties will fortify the system, supply a nourishing blood flow, act as a sedative and tonic to the nerves, and bring about regularity in body functions.

Nyal's Vegetable Prescription is the foundation for the building of perfect health,—one that will stand the strain imposed upon it

Remember that this is not a "patent" that we are recommending—it is a prescription medicine, composed of ingredients of well known virtues and we can tell you what they are

We will stand back of Nyal's Vegetable Prescription—results have proved that it does as represented.
