It is ordered that the several townships of said county be entitled to representation as follows, based upon the vote cast for W. S. Waite for representative at the election held in 1910, to-wit: Ashton 3, Clay 4, Elm 4, Hazard 4, Bristol 3, Logan 3, Loup City 12, Harrison 2, Oak Creek 2, Rockville 3, Scott 3, Webster 3, Washington 4, Total 55

A letter received in this city a few days since giving the sad news of the death and burial of Grandma Mead at the home of her son at Yankton, S. D., the latter part of May, resulting from falls received at two different times, breaking first a leg and then an arm. No particulars were given.

Twenty candidates for the supreme bench and for the state regency have so far filed their desire for nomination. One of the beauties of the rotten primary system. Any one who can rake up ten dollars may be a candidate if he chooses. Qualification cuts no paper. With twenty in the running, the big papers should reap a harvest of shekels, while the smaller newspaper fry, who are booming the bunch gratis, are properly known as "suckers." Are you one, country newspaper brother?

The coming county teachers' institute will begin the last day of this month, July 31st and last one week. Those old and tried instructors, Profs. Searson and Rouse, will again be in charge of the work, and will be assisted by Miss Melva Danielson, daughter of our genial H. & M. agent, J. A. Danielson, who will have charge of the music and primary work. Miss Danielson has for the past year been the musical instructor at the Peru Normal school and will be coming year by year to the Fremont State normal school. We can confidently look for one of the most successful institutes this fall ever held in the county.

The Northwestern is in receipt of numerous letters from candidates for state offices, from week to week, asking us to boom their candidacies for the various places of trust, promising us that they will esteem it a favor if we help them to land said prizes, but when it comes to financial recompense these candidates will occupy piteous space in larger papers at a generous per, while the little papers will be expected to give of their space freely gratis. Such is the results of the great and glorious farce of a primary system. We really must beg to be excused for not using our space at our own expense to pull chestnuts from the fire for the benefit of our big newspaper brothers.

Norm Parks, formerly with the Ord Journal, has purchased the Broken Bow Republican of D. M. Amsberry. He has the push, energy and gray matter under his cap covering to make it a success. We understand, also, that Horace Davis of the Ord Journal has purchased the Broken Bow Beacon and will give that paper a new impetus and give the people of that town and Custer county a live democratic sheet. Also, his brother, Ainsley, of the Greeley Center Independent, in company with Ralph DeWolf, formerly of this city, have started a new paper at Palmer, the Journal, which, a copy before us shows snap and vigor, proves a welcome addition to the business interests of that little berg. May success attend each one of the above enterprises.

German Evangelical Church Next Sunday, July 16, services will be as follows: At Ashton at 10:30, a. m. and at Rockville at 3:00 p. m. P. Juelling, Pastor.

Miss Velva Fross has secured a school in Hamilton county, and will board with her sister, Mrs. E. G. Schrock.

Mr. Thomas Arnett of University Place will visit this week with Mr. Morrison's family and at the home of his brother, Mr. James Arnett.

Mr. Thomas Dinsdale of Palmer, accompanied by Miss Mary Minshull and her mother, called at the home of A. O. Zimmerman Sunday afternoon.

Last week's items were written, but through mistake did not reach the editor.

Master Julius Angier was company at the home of his sister, Mrs. Rufus Hiddison last week. Lee Hiddison is the company this week.

Willie and Albert McIlravy visited their sister, Mrs. Marvin Lee, the latter part of last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Arnett of Phillips returned home Monday morning. Mrs. Loreta Horn accompanied them. We understand Mrs. Horn will return to Loup City before leaving for her home in Seattle, Wash.
