From last week's Wednesday Bee, we see that a postal savings bank will be established in Loup City the 7th of November. While the news in the Bee gave the public the above information, Postmaster Grow had not up to that time received notification to that effect from the post-office department, the order may be received any day.
The Daily Bee of the 12th instant gave the information from Washington that a postal savings bank will be inaugurated at Litchfield on November 8th, one day after the date of the establishment of one in Loup City.

ODENDAHN SALOON CASE

After Battles Galore Will Odendahl Can Run Saloon at Comstock
Comstock people may stake their first at the saloon of Odendahl and the latter is secure in the conduct of his business along lawful lines for a number of months. The decisive legal battle was fought out last week in district court, and the district judge decided that for the present while Comstock is entitled to a saloon. The battle against the Odendahl saloon has been hard fought, and a considerable array of legal talent has been noted on each side. Lawyers of three counties have at one time or other shared in the fight and fees, but the final clash was between local lawyers, Sullivan and Squires, representing the temperance people of Comstock and N. T. Gadd representing Odendahl. Odendahl's efforts to secure a license were irregular according to the allegations of the temperance people of Comstock. They claimed he and his lawyers knew the town board favored granting the license; that originally the petition lacked the required number of signers and that due notice of the hearing had not been given. At various times the board granted licenses to Odendahl, three in all having been granted. One license was revoked in district court by Judge Hobart of Scottsbluff who was called here to try the case. He ordered the board to grant another hearing and later this was done. A second time a license was granted, a second time the temperance people appealed to district court. Later a third license was voted Odendahl by the board. A week ago or more County Attorney Beal filed a complaint before County Judge Holcomb charging Odendahl with illegally keeping liquor for sale and this matter is yet in county court. Trial was to have been had last week, but it had been continued. It is probable that in view of the district court's sanction of the saloon license the case will be dismissed—Broken Bow Republican.

Endorse W. G. Tucker for Sheriff

Aurora, Nebr., Aug. 24, 1911.—Wallace G. Tucker: I must congratulate you for having received the nomination for sheriff of your county, it is always gratifying to me to hear that old Hamilton county boys "make good" wherever they go, and at anything they undertake and while we differ along political lines, I am free to confess that if Sherman county should elect you as their sheriff, it would be an honor worthily bestowed. Having lived as a neighbor to you and your parents for thirty years and over, I ought to be a "competent witness" and I cannot now recall a single act that would tend to lower you and your estimable family. Respectfully yours, B. O. Bergeson.
C. H. M. County central Committee
Aurora, Nebr., Sept. 9, 1911.—To Whom It May Concern: I learn with pleasure that my friend, W. G. Tucker, is a Fusion Nominee for Sheriff of Sherman County, Nebraska. I have known Mr. Tucker for 15 years, and I commend him to the people of his County for the many sterling qualities which he possesses and which render him an acceptable and competent man for the position to which he aspires. Mr. Tucker is a man of strength, courage, and good judgment. His personal habits are above reproach and above all he is honest and conscientious. If elected sheriff of Sherman County, W. G. Tucker will give a good account of himself. Respectfully Submitted, J. H. Grosvenor.
Chm. Peoples Ind. State Committee.
Aurora, Nebr., Sept. 12, 1911.—Mr. Wallace G. Tucker, Dear Mr. Tucker: I am delighted that you are the Nominee for Sheriff on the Democratic and People's Independent Tickets. I congratulate you upon your nomination and trust that you will be duly elected at the general election in November. Having known you and your family for many years, I therefore feel more than a passing interest in your candidacy, and I commend you to the people of Sherman County as a man of energy, determination and sincere purpose. I hope to be advised of your election, and shall maintain a keen, personal interest in the outcome of your contest. With personal regards, I am respectfully yours W. L. Stark

FIRST OCCURRED IN IOWA

Editor Mixed a Wedding Announcement and the Advertisement of Auction Sale
(Below we reprint a funny editorial mix-up, purporting to have happened to a Missouri editor, but which was first published in the newspapers in Iowa as early as 1869-70 and attributed to a ridiculous and injudicious mix of articles in the Storm Lake Pilot, edited by Col. Vestal, and whether true or not, the valiant colonel never denied it, and in fact took a trip of several months' absence immediately thereafter. These are historical facts regarding the mixture wrongly given as "show-me" dope.—Ed.)

A Missouri editor who was brimful of hard cider got a wedding account and a sale mixed, and served to his readers this dope: "William, the only son of Mr. and Mrs. Josiah Smith, was disposed at auction to Lucy Anderson on my farm, one mile east of here in the presence of 70 guests, including the following to-wit: Two mules, 12 head of cattle. The Rev. Jackson tied the nuptial, the least weighing 1,250 pounds on the hoof. The beautiful home of the bride was tastefully decorated with a seawash calf, a spade, a sulky rake, one feed grinder, one set double harness, almost new, and just before the ceremony was pronounced, Mendelssohn's wedding march was played by one milch cow, five years; one Jersey cow to be fresh next April, carrying a bunch of flowers in her hand and looking charming in a gown made of light spring wagon, two boxes of apples, two racks of hay, one grindstone, mousseline deori trimmed with about 180 bushel of spuds. The groom is well known and popular young man and has always stood well among society circles of 12 Berkshire hogs, while the bride is an accomplished and talented school teacher of a splendid drove of Poland-China—pedigrees if desired. Among the beautiful presents were two sets of knives and forks, one spring harrow, one wheelbarrow, one go-cart, other article too numerous to mention. The bridal couple left yesterday on an extended trip, term of 12 months' time extended to responsible parties, otherwise spot cash, luncheon will be served at the table. After this Mr. and Mrs. Smith will go to housekeeping in a cozy home at the corner of Main and Doctor R. L. Granby auctioneer.

From 2500 to 3000 delegates are expected. Write Ray G. Fletcher, 361 Fraternity Bldg. Lincoln, for further information.

Shaw, the General Secretary of Endeavor movement, will be the Convention's guest. Best Girls on Earth

Some months ago, the business men guaranteed for a course of entertainments to be held in this city this fall. The course was headed by Supt. O'Connell, who was supposed to look after the matter. Later that gentleman retired from the superintendency of our schools and the matter of the lecture course was forgotten by those who had signed the guarantee. A week since, it was learned that the bureau had sent on its literature regarding the course a week or so previous, which had been lying at the depot addressed to Supt. O'Connell but the guarantee people had no knowledge of the fact. The time had nearly arrived for the first number of the course when the fact became known and then there was a hurried consultation as to the best move in the matter. The question coming up as to what to do in regard to it, some fifteen of our business young women consented to take up the affair and carry it to completion, this relieving the men who had guaranteed the financial end of the entertainments. That the noble young women did a good work and made good, was evidenced Monday evening when at the first number in the opera house a large audience assembled and from the number of season tickets sold by these young women the financial success of the course was assured. All glory and honor be accorded these faithful and energetic girls for helping the poor harassed guaranteees out of the bowl of soup they had unfortunately fell into.
