In the first 500 names drawn from the envelopes at Gregory land drawing Tuesday, no one from Sherman county came out of the box, although Arcadia, Comstock, Sargent, North Loup and Ord each had lucky numbers.

To those knowing themselves in debt to me, on accounts, or note, please call and make settlement and save me the expense driving out to see you, as I need the money.

T. M. REED.

Rev. L. C. McEwen was taken violently sick while attending the Presbyterian Synod at North Platte last Friday and returned home at once and has been confined to his bed for the past several days.—Kearney Democrat.

Mrs. O. Benschoter left Thursday morning for a visit to Edgewood, Iowa, to visit a sister who is in poor health. She was accompanied by her daughter Mrs. Grace O'Bryan, and little daughter, and Mrs. Benschoter's sister Mrs. Chas True and husband.

Dr. S. A. Allen went to Omaha last Saturday afternoon to be in attendance at a dental meeting in that city the early part of this week.

The state inspector of horses was scheduled to be here yesterday. Notification of his coming received too late for publication last week.

Mrs. A. P. Culey returned home from York the early part of this week, her sister, Mrs. McPherson of that city returning with her for a visit.

Miss Merce Outhouse, who came home last week from her school at Fairbury, quite ill, has so far recovered as to be able to return to her school duties this week.

The first real snow of the season fell last night, or rather began just before daylight, continuing long enough for even late risers to see it, about an inch falling.

We learn that Alex Dzingle had a shoulder dislocated last week Friday, while working with a thrashing machine just east of town. We did not learn particulars.

E. M. Marvel of Hamilton county, who purchased the J. T. Hale farm south of town, is in the city today, accompanied by his friend, B. M. Dryden, of the same county.

Will Mason, Frank Grow, Ashley Conger and some other mighty hunters went to the country Tuesday to find some game. It is said they returned with a plentiful supply of—rutabagas. No remarks.

The walls of the new brick store buildings of Lorentz and Beuts are completed and the roofing is being placed. Henry Ohlsen and his energetic band of workmen are rushing the work fast to completion.

It is the intention of Mr. Archie Zimmerman to go to New Mexico for the winter in the hopes that the change of climate may be of benefit to his wife's rather frail health. They will go some time next month, as soon as Mr. Zimmerman puts his business in proper shape.

In mentioning the box social given by the ladies of Cleora church last week, the date was given as the 20th, when it should have been the 27th (tomorrow) evening instead. Now, if you get your paper with this correction therein in time this week, make it a point to be there and enjoy the good time in store for those who attend.

The Northwestern office printed invitation cards to the wedding at Ashton next Monday, Oct. 30, of Mr. John S. Papcianik to Miss Clara, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Brazinski, the ceremony to occur at St. Francis church at 8 o'clock in the morning. The Northwestern wishes in advance a world of happiness to these worthy young people.

After a hard day's work in the office, at the factory, behind the counter, or wherever it may be, what is more refreshing or restful than a hearty, wholesome laugh. One forgets his or her own troubles and worries. If you care for an evening of pure, clean and refined entertainment, you should not overlook seeing that funny, good-natured Swede, "Ole Swanson," at the Opera House next week Friday night.

And still Loup City improvements are adding in number. The Loup City Mercantile Co. is the next one on dock and is making arrangements to add another story to their fine business block, besides tearing away the wooden building in the rear and replacing it with brick. This will give this enterprising store double the amount of store room and its made necessary by the fast increasing business.

Rev. Mr. Blom and family will occupy the old residence of Mrs. Hawk west of the M. E. church, as soon as Bro. Beushausen moves into her new residence. In the meantime, Mrs. Blom is having a visit with friends at Stromsburg, till they can have possession of the new home. They move from Ed. Angier's house, into which he will move from telephone headquarters, into which the new manager of the telephone company moves as soon as vacated.

Miss Zelpha Reed's school in the Charleton district will have a "Slave Sale" on Friday evening, Nov. 10th. The novel method of selling the angelic portion of the audience to the highest bidder, instead of the usual method of selling the baskets of provender, will obtain. The slaves will be divided in two groups—married and single—thus preventing the old bald-headed heathens from buying out of their class. It should be a very "taking" affair.

A peculiar suit comes off before Judge Smith next Monday, in which the Union Pacific sues Mr. L. Hansen, cashier of the First National Bank of this city for eight dollars and a fraction over, alleged balance due the company in the purchase of two tickets to the Pacific Coast and return. Some time since, Mr. Hansen and his wife made a trip to the coast, purchasing, paying for, receiving and using two round trip tickets, at the published tariff rate. Upon their return the company demanded the addition of some four dollars and over on each ticket and the suit is the outcome of Mr. Hansen's refusal to come across with the rhino. It will be of interest to future purchasers of railroad tickets, to know the outcome and the whys and wherefores of the contention.

Dr. Leeper is in Lincoln attending the Congress of Nebraska Methodists this week. He will however be at home for the regular service next Sunday.

We understand that A. L. Zimmerman and wife intend wintering in Texas and have already rented their residence property for the winter months, in event of their going.
