NEW BISMARCK OF GERMANY

Germany has another Bismarck. He is Alfred von Kiderlen-Waechter, who is secretary of foreign affairs and sho is the big man in Germany's foreign relations. It is he who set Europe by the ears over the Morocco Kiderlen-Waechter has been secretary of embassy at St. Petersburg and Paris and counsellor of embassy at Constantinople. He is a linguist, speaking the leading languages of the continent and being as proficient in English as in his own native German.

Two years ago Herr Alfred was a comparatively little known member of Germany's diplomatic corps, holding the post of minister to Roumania. He was rated as a man of ability and force with a more salient and sharply defined personality than that of the average government official, but the public heard little of him. Recently he has been the man of the hour in Germany and probably the most talked of statesman in Europe. For the events that precipitated the international crisis with its menace of impending war he more than any one else was responsible.

Herr von Kiderlen's active career has been entirely in the diplomatic service. Entering the foreign office in 1879, he has gone through the usual mill of slow promotions from embassy secretaryships in St. Petersburg, Paris and Constantinople to the post of minister to Copenhagen in 1895 and to Bucharest in 1900. His career, however, has not been without its ups and downs. For all these changes of fortune he himself has been responsible. One of his characteristics is a habit of speaking his mind with a good deal of plainness.

The liberated financier is now 74 years old. He was born in Ireland in 1537, and came to Chicago when he was 10 years old, beginning life as a newsboy. In 1861 he established a news agency which later developed into the Western News company, supplying railway trains and country towns with periodicals, books, maps and current literature. In 1882, having been successful in various business ventures and investments, including a large interest in the Chicago Herald, Mr. Walsh, together with others, established the Chicago National bank. After disposing of his interest in the Herald in 1895 he founded the Chicago Chronicle, which paper suspended publication following the closing of the Walsh banks. In addition to his banks and the newspaper, Mr. Walsh was beavily interested in a large number of propositions. The Walsh interests at the time of the closing of the three banks were estimated at something like $4,000,000.

It was not until March, 1906, that Walsh was placed under arrest, and after many delays was brought to trial and convicted, being sentenced to five years' imprisonment at Fort Leavenworth prison. Soon after he had beand thousands of Chicago business men and other citizens signed a petition urging executive elemency based on the plea of illness and old age.

NEWPORT SOCIAL INSURGENT

During the past season there has been insurgency in the ranks of Newport swelldom which started a near panic in the ranks of the "old guard." The leader of the social insurgents was Mrs. John R. Drexel, who is here pictured, and the captain of the standpatters was Mrs. Ogden Mills. Newport is to select society what Mecca is to the Mahommedans, or Benares to the Hindus, or Jerusalem to the Jew and to the Christian-the holy of holies of the idle rich, whose bibie is the social register duly stamped with the dollar mark. Mrs. Drexel would widen the ranks of the select and admit many now barred from the social paradise, where nobles with decayed fortunes matrimonially browse. Mrs. Mills would none of this. She stands for a close corporation, so to speak, and would limit to 100 or even fewer those who would be entitled to enter the elect set of Thus these two women, who are taken seriously enough by their followers. entered into a battle royal for social supremacy. Supporting Mrs. Drexel are scores of families, financially powerful, but hitherto barred from the Eden of the elect. Upholding Mrs. Mills are all those already within the nner sacred precincts, who love to shine by themselves and who do not wish to share the giories, privileges and prerogatives of their state with others.

Both sides have given elaborate entertainments in this social war. Mrs. Dread received for one of her functions a $500 bouquet from Philadelphia. She is immensely popular and is said to be one of the most charming hostesses in the country. Her husband gave her $200,000 as a "war fund.

clared by Islam against her enemies? One often meets with references to such possibility and since the declaration of war against Turkey by Italy these references have been more frequent than for many years before.

But there is little probability of such a crusade by the Mohammedans against the Christians, unless in the event of a European coalition, having for its object the dismemberment of Turkey in Europe and her expulsion from the continent. The authority for is Mohammed Ali, whose portruit is shown, a descendant of the great prophet who founded the Mo-hammedan religion. Mohammed Alf is now in this country and he says that a boly war will never be declared unless the dismemberment of Ottoman . empire is threatened. Then, he says, there will be an up-rising of the 175,000,000 Mohammeints scattered throughout the world

These are dwellers in Asia and Africa, principally, many of them living under the British fing in India and others under the tri-color of France in northern Africa. He contends that the possibility of such an uprising will grevent the dismemberment of Turkey and asserts that the possible would become an actuality with the formation of a coalition against the

LURGENT MEED FOR A NAME

If the Bisected Skirt Is to Be Generally Worn Let It Have Feminine Appellation.

It is thought by some in Germany that the name "harem skirt" or more horrible still "trouser skirt" is the only thing that prevents the spread and general use of this much talked of same people have offered a prize for the best names and have hit up "Amazon" and "cavalier" skirt as a result, and hope by keeping these more alluring titles before the feminine public to ropularize the garment. Not that it needs so much to be popularized, they say. The leading German shops advertise it in bewildering variety, and privately claim that orders are pouring in to a degree which shows that. like other extreme modes gone before, the trousers-er, that is, the cavalier skirt-is sure to conquer in the end. But if the more timid follower of fashion buys one, and keeps it hanging in her closet to gaze upon with awe and admiration, yet is afraid to wear a "trouser" skirt upon the street, by all means let us christen it with something softer and more femi-

CANADA'S 'IMMENSE WHEAT FIELDS

THE ATTRACTION FOR THREE TRANSCONTINENTAL RAIL-WAYS.

Last August there visited the Canalian west the vice-president of the largest individual hardware company in the United States. As his firm have a turnover of millions, and deals extensively with farm implements, this man took a deep interest in crop conditions in Canada, and on his return he embodied his findings in an article for the Hardware Reporter. This article should be of special interest to farmers.

of the spring wheat crop of Western Canada. He might also have spoken of the importance of the cat crop and also of the winter wheat crop, as well as barley. Winter wheat during the past few years has been a great success, and experiments have shown that it can be grown with success in almost any portion of the three provinces of Manitoba, Saskatchewan and Alberta. But apart from this, the spring wheat crop is the one generally grown, and all who know anything of grain, anyone who has had anything to do with markets, knows or has heard of the high character of this cereal and the splendid yields that are annually produced. Reproducing from this article:-

"In a land of such great sweep, and of such difference in soil and climate, there are many resources, but none are at present of the same overwhelming importance as the spring wheat crop. In the interminable prairie stretches of the northwest provinces it is the one absorbing topic of interest and of conversation during its growing and its harvesting, for upon its success or failure hangs the weal or woe of a large part of the Dominion. Its influence extends far down into the United States, drawing thousands of farmers northwards with the lure of cheap lands, but likewise beyond the great lakes, even to the easy going maritime provinces, calling the flower of their young men to its opportunities. Development in these prairie provinces goes on at high pressure for everything hangs on the outcome of spring wheat. Success has emboldened the raisers of this one allimportant crop, and each year there is further incursion into those northern fields that only a short time ago were regarded as Arctic wastes. Only about two and one-half per cent of possible arable lands in the northwest provinces is now under cultivation, and this year the crop promises to be close to 200,000,000 bushels, so that your imagination and your arithmetic can easily supply the answer as to the possible or even probable out-During the months of July and Au. was too rugged.
