 On and after March 1,

 At the advanced cost of the rate will remain the same to all, old and new readers--$1 per year, in The Sargent school house was destroyed by fire last Thursday afternoon, but the children were so well drilled that no panic ensued and all were marched safely from the burning building.

Republicans have two candidates for governor, Aldrich "dry" and Newton "wet." It was to be hoped that question would not have ghost-walked this coming campaign, but like Banquo's spectral visitor it was not to down.

Will Maupin's Weekly suggests that nine-tenths of the people of Nebraska are at heart opposed to the primary election scheme, but that not one in a hundred dares say so. Maupin is one of the one's who dare, and we are another, and have fought openly against it in our columns since the drafting of the first rotten farce.

Last Friday night, the new $16,000 opera house at Palmer was destroyed by fire. It had just been completed that day and in the evening was formally dedicated. Only about two hours after the entertainment closed alarm of fire was given and the new structure was found with the flames at such a headway that there was no chance to save it.

The latest sensation along government lines is the recommendation of Postmaster General Hitchcock that the government purchase and add all telegraph lines to its postal service, and the recommendation is backed by the president's approval. The idea meets with the approval of telegraphers over the country. Why not go a step further and take over the express business of the country?

Secretary of State Waite has gigged back from his stand taken regarding names appearing twice on the primary ballot. Attorney General Martin, to whom the question was submitted, gives it as his opinion that where the offices do not conflict, as with that of delegate to convention and functional state office, a man's name may appear for each. He also opines that a man has the right to have his name taken off the ballot, when placed there by another than himself, which leaves Teddy and William Jennings free to go ahead as they please, and allows any candidate to also sprint for delegate. It would indeed be a queer law that would allow the name of any Tom, Dick or Harry to be put on a ticket against their expressed wish or desire and not give them a right to haul down their own colors.
 But then the rotten primary laws are susceptible of almost any interpretation.

On Wednesday of this week, we received a circular letter from Jesse S.
 Newton of Wymore, who has announced himself as a republican candidate for governor, to try conclusions with Gov. Aldrich for the primary nomination. Mr. Newton is of the Newton Clothing Co. of Wymore and his circular contains his platform of sixteen planks, one of which is flat-footed on the booze question, as follows: "I am opposed to county option but believe in a strict regulation of the liquor traffic. I do not believe in 'Blue Laws' made by one portion of a community to harass and inconvenience the other half," which is a bid for the support of the "wet" element.
 Another plank smacks of the old state's right doctrine, as follows: "I insist upon the right of the state to regulate its own affairs." A copy of his manifesto can be seen at this office. Now you know who Candidate Newton is, where he hails from and how his thinker is working.

KEEPING DENTAL BILLS LOW

Economic Man Will Watch His Teeth Carefully and Keep His Teeth Well Cleaned.
 In these days when prices are high on nearly every article that we buy it becomes necessary to watch closely the money that we spend, that we may get the greatest value in return, and nowhere will systematic care repay us better than the manner in which we look after our teeth.
 He is an economical man who early determines not to lose a single tooth.
 The health reports clearly demonstrate that perfect mastication is not possible with diseased teeth.
 We also know that artificial teeth, even at their best, are poor substitutes for the natural ones. Without perfect mastication of food, we suffer in comfort and in health. Money spent on the teeth proves real economy in the saving of fees paid to the physcian.

In having our teeth attended to, we should have in mind the best that can be afforded. It is almost better to do without dental work than to run the risk of ruining the teeth with cheap work. We cannot buy good silk for seven cents a yard, and the same rule holds true in every business. After the initial expense of placing the teeth in good condition, we should endeavor to keep them that way. To do this, it is necessary to keep the teeth well cleansed and avoid any excessive strain upon them. If every one understood the value of regular visits to the dentist, every six months or oftener, dental bills would be much lower than they are. The rapidity with which teeth decay is appalling. The dentist, by the aid of his instruments, is able to detect decay where it is entirely unknown to the patient. By this early discovery the dentist is often enabled to insert a small filling at a minimum of pain, time and cost. Best of all, the small filling will outlast a dozen large ones.
 Parents can economize in the care of their children's teeth by taking them to the dentist at the age of two to have the teeth examined. The first set of teeth should not be allowed to decay, but should be retained in good condition until the next set of teeth is ready to take its place. In this way the child will be saved pain, it will be able to thoroughly masticate its food and most important of all, the risk of irregular teeth will be largely avoided. Remember that one dollar spent in the mouth of a child is worth five spent in after life.

Finally, remember that external vigilance is the price of good teeth.
 If you notice anything wrong do not neglect going to the dentist at once.
 By so doing you will not only save yourself much trouble, but also much expense.

DANGER IN DECAYED TEETH

Because the People Do Not Recognize This Few Have Needed Dental Work Done.

In considering the care of the teeth, there is no subject of greater importance than the need of dental service. In Chicago some examinations of the teeth of school children have been made and so far 97 per cent. of the children examined are in need of dental service.
 Dr. William A. Evans, ex-commissioner of health of Chicago, in talking of the examination, says: "The major harm is from those decayed teeth be-lying harbinger of bacteria that slowly poison, and as a result of that poisoning there is in many instances enlargement of the neighboring glands, and those glands stand as vicarious sacrifices protecting the remainder of the body from the invading poison. And there is nature's route . . . by which the poison finds its way into the interior of the body. It is relatively easy (for anyone) to see how teeth decay, and how accumulation of filth takes place in those decayed teeth. It is not difficult to see those enlarged glands . . . but it is far more difficult to understand why the child is pale and anemic. Absorption is taking place from these affected areas and the influence of that absorption is felt not only in the neighboring glands, but also in this group of physical conditions that are far removed and the relation of which is difficult to understand. It is not only difficult for the medical men to understand this, but it is far more difficult for the family to understand it."

It is a well-known fact that only a small per cent. of the people of the United States have the dental work done that the good of their physical and mental well-being demands. The percentage has been variously stated as from four to ten per cent. That is immaterial. We know it is low; we know that if all the dental work which should be done at once were to be presented to the members of the dental profession tomorrow, five times the number of dentists now in practice could not care for it properly.
 The lack of knowledge concerning the evils of neglect is largely responsible for this condition. The members of the medical and dental profession know only too well the terrible havoc of decay, but the people who should be most interested in it, the possessors of useless, unsanitary

Men who are always fearful of making big fools of themselves are accordingly unwise that the transformation of Family Remedies.

 This is especially true in the choice of medicines used in female weaknesses—then it becomes absolutely imperative. You should know in detail just what the remedy is composed of and the action of each and every ingredient.
 When you are in need of a remedy for female weakness—functional disorders—insist upon this information being given you.
 We have in Nyal's Vegetable Prescription a preparation that you should know and use. We can tell you all of the drugs used—more than we can say of any other female tonic—and for that reason we heartily recommend its use.

 drugs—it is purely vegetable, safe and
