ANNOUNCEMENTS

For County Attorney I hereby announce myself as a candidate for the Republican nomination to the office of County Attorney at the primary election to be held on April 17th, 1912, and I respectfully request your vote and your active support if you approve of my candidacy. HERBERT S. NIGHTINGALE.

Only ten weeks before the primaries—April 19. And then we will all know about it.

It is asserted that the primary ballot this coming April will contain over 200 names of candidates and will be at least eight feet long. Great Caesar! But just think of the printer and the work it will make him.

Bro. Beushausen of the Times has filled as a democratic candidate for elector in this Big Sixth district. We really know of no democrat we had rather vote for, or who will take greatest pleasure than he in casting his vote for the Aunty Democracy favorite.

Editor H. G. Taylor of the Centra, City Nonpareil has come out as a candidate for railway commissioner, subject to the republican primary vote. He is a red-hot, or hotter, La Follette man and should get the vote of those who aim their votes that way. Besides he is an editor and that helps some.

A gentleman by the name of Clyde Wright, delivered a Socialist speech at Society Hall here Monday evening of this week. He was here some months since and we understand is well versed in his political attitude. Those who attended the meeting speak very highly of the lecture, even if they did not take any stock in the doctrine propounded.

There are at least five candidates who have filled for land commissioner besides our own W. S. Waite. But there's not one of the five for whom Wilbur will Waite and as we know him to be a good sprinter and the best man up for that office, we expect to see them all wait till after Waite waits on the public in that office at least two terms.

The Grand Island Independent is ferriest S. C. Bassett of Gibbon for land commissioner and does not mince words in the matter. It will be remembered Mr. Bassett was out and out against capital removal at the last session of the legislature, and that may have some bearing on the Independent's attitude. The paper prophetically says Mr. Bassett will need all the votes he can get and the some at least in that vicinity. It really does take a little extra nerve on the part of Mr. Bassett to come up for anything from Buffalo and Hall counties, and expect anything from them at least.

The Northwestern has not so far expressed itself for any candidate for president, but has been a somewhat close observer of just how the newspapers of the state seem to stand in regard thereto, and we have noticed that among the papers more especially booming the Wisconsin statesman there are altogether too many with democratic positives and leaning that are taking upon themselves the responsibility of advising republicans to support him. As a general thing it is the wisest for republicans to do just the opposite the advice of political enemies.

It looks as though La Follette would get out of the race for the presidency at an early day, if he has not already quietly done so. There seems to have been and is being a tie-up between the La Follette and Roosevelt forces, to the effect that Teddy is to have the Wisconsin man's strength, the latter to go out of the running his health having so failed of late that that to remain in and make the strenuous fight he would have to make and which his nature would demand, would result in a physical breakdown. Of course all this is in the air, and we small fry away from the center of the conflict and not in touch with the real president makers can only judge by the comments, facts and rumors prevailing over the political situation.

At the head of our editorial columns appears the name of Mr. Herbert S. Nightingale, as candidate for county attorney, subject to the result of the republican vote at the coming primaries, April 19. Mr. Nightingale, is the son of our well known attorney, R. J. Nightingale, and since his graduation last year from the law department of the State University, through which he passed with honor to himself, his parents, his friends and to his home town and county, he has associated himself with his father in the practice of law, under the firm name of R. J. Nightingale & Son, and has already established a reputation as being a worthy follower in his father's footsteps as a thorough student of law, and laying the foundation as one of the best equipped lawyers in central Nebraska, as years and experience come to him. Should our young friend secure the nomination and subsequent election as looks probable at this time, we believe he will prove an efficient and capable defender of the county's legal rights. We wish him well in his laudable ambition.

An Explanation

Two weeks since, the Northwestern in speaking of the organization of a commercial club in this city, spoke of the necessity of putting the strongest men forward as leaders of the movement. Some parties have honestly, it seems, because Bro. Beushausen of the Times was made temporary chairman, thought we were taking a poke at our brother editor, when that was furthest from our mind in speaking of the matter. We have but the kindest feelings for Bro. Beushausen, and would not intentionally have had such an idea filter through any mind. The making of the temporary chairman has no special relation to the final organization, nor do we wish to be understood as taking a fling at our editorial brother because he was so placed. In order to make this clear to others, as it is to that gentleman himself, we make this public explanation. We can see that the article is liable to that interpretation, and in justice to both Bro. Beushausen and ourself make the above denial of any such intent on our part.

Commercial Club Organized

Last Friday evening, at Sweetland's store, was called the second meeting for the organization of a Commercial Club in this city. The meeting was called to order by Temporary Chairman C. F. Beushausen, and minutes of first meeting read by Secretary Waite, which were adopted. Some discussion ensued over preliminary matters concerning proposed organization. The committee appointed at last meeting to look up constitutions and by-laws of various commercial clubs, made report. The Commercial club constitutions and by-laws seemed to have struck the committee as just about what they would recommend as a total, and chairman Beushausen on request read same to those present. As it seemed the first thing in order was to find the sentiment as to whether we want a commercial club and as to whether those present were in favor and were ready to become members of such an organization, a rising vote was asked and the sentiment in favor was unanimous. On motion, the temporary organization was then made permanent. Mr. Oscar Swanson was then elected vice president and Dr. Longacre treasurer. A committee of five was on motion appointed to correct the constitution and by-laws above read and make them suitable for our Loup City club. The committee was composed of R. H. Mathew, R. P. Starr, J. W. Burleigh, S. E. Gallaway and S. A. Allen, the committee to have same ready to report at next meeting. A committee composed of A. E. Chase, J. S. Pedler and A. B. Outhouse, was appointed to solicit for membership. On motion the quarterly dues were made $1 per quarter. The membership fee was placed at $25, payable $5 each year. The next meeting was called for Society Hall this week Friday evening, at which committee reports will be received and further organization carried forward, after which adjournment was taken.

Gov. Aldrich, who has been understood an active La Follette leader in Nebraska, came out last week strong for Roosevelt for president. Frank Harrison for La Follette and Yeiser, who is the Nebraska boomer for Roosevelt, got their headgear together last week and it is confidently reported joined forces, the result to be the withdrawal of La Follette from the race an account of ill-health and the substitution of Roosevelt in the affections of the Wisconsin man. The further fact that many Taft men over the country are ready to accept Teddy, willingly, in case Taft does not show up strong, gives vivid color to the claim that at the coming republican national convention there may be a landslide to the former president which will carry the convention off its feet, and land him as the republican candidate for president, willy nilly. The further fact that Roosevelt preserves a clam-like silence over it all, goes to show to the uninitiated, at least, a belief that Roosevelt will take and really wants the nomination and reelection. As to whether he would be wise in so doing, and whether the country would be wise in again placing him in the presidential chair, is a very debatable question.

County School Notes

From the Superintendent's Office. The superintendent is pleased to note more good reports with regard to attendance and punctuality. Good records in these lines are necessary, if pupils are to do good work. Teachers are requested to be very careful in making the monthly reports. Every report should be very complete, as all the information asked for is of definite value. The examination standing need not be given, as they are of no use to the superintendent. Last week the superintendent began the visitation of schools.

The rules governing the eighth grade examination, and other dates will be sent to the teachers of the county by circular letter in the near future. There is a great deal of food for thought in this brief declaration of principle. The teacher may have a right to dance and play cards even though many of the best influences of the community are opposed; but is she doing the best thing for her school? Is she fulfilling her mission by following her inclination in the matter?

Have a purpose in life, and having it, throw it into work, such strength of mind and might as God has given you.

Education is leading human souls to what is best and making what is best of them. The training which makes men happy in themselves also makes them most serviceable to others.

The next regular teachers' examination will be held March 15th and 16th. Candidates may begin to write at 8 a. m. each day and every one who takes the examination should be present by that time. Those holding permits, or third grade, or special certificates, should take this examination.

Teacher, have you a course of study? We have a number of copies in the office and will send one to teachers upon request.

There are many teachers in the county who have not yet notified the Superintendent of the commencement of their schools. The blank cards for that purpose will be sent to teachers upon request. Assistant State Superintendent, Miss Anna V. Day, was a visitor to this county last week. She is planning on visiting as many as possible of the counties of the state, meeting with the school people. She is gathering data from all parts of the state, showing conditions as they are, and offering suggestions which, if carried out, will give the boys and girls of the schools of this state much better school surroundings. With the county superintendent, Miss Day visited two rural schools. State Superintendent, James R. Delzell is making special efforts for the betterment of rural schools.

There is no grander calling than that of the teacher, with its immortal results. It comes close to the pocket books, but it should come closer to the hearts of our civilized race.

The editor had charge of the conduct of the two Wills during their absence, and is pleased to report advancement and especially good behavior during their enforced bachelorhood. We received a pleasant call yesterday from Mr. J. C. Gallaway, who has become thoroughly Sherman countyized and does not regret coming back here from many years' residence in the pivotal political state of the Union. Of course he became a reader of this great family paper.
