Then Act

Many people plan their whole lives to have a bank account and then leave this world without so much as a start at one. Planning isn't worth anything unless followed by action. Good intentions never land you anywhere. Make your plans to start an account with us this week and back up your plans with action.

TIME is the most important part of a man's duty. Buy your watch from a man who can prove to you that the watch is a perfect time keeper. Our Chronometer is in view day and night. It will keep time better than 30 seconds in 1 year's running. All repaired watches are regulated by seconds.

HENRY M. ELSNER.

Mr. J. P. Leininger has been laid up with neuralgia the past week. James Bartunek was an Ord visitor for a few days last week. Homer Hughes and wife went to Grand Island Thursday morning. Mrs. Robert Dinsdale went to Aurora Saturday morning. No cause for complaint with Monarch Paint. It is 100 per cent pure; that's sure. VAUGHN & HINMAN. Mrs. Larson was a passenger to Hampton Saturday morning, for a visit with friends. Mr. E. J. Hucklebery, proprietor of the Bon Ton restaurant, left for Canton, S. D., Friday, for a short visit. Mr. and Mrs. Nelse Lorentz, of Aurora, visited here from Friday until Wednesday with the former's brother, Gus Lorentz, and family. H. Sperling and son, of Ashton, were pleasant callers at this office Monday, and before leaving renewed his subscription to the Northwestern for another year. Mrs. Galloway and daughters were passengers over the B. & M. Saturday morning, going to Pleasantdale for a visit with friends and relatives for a short time. W. E. Mellor has improved his place by trimming the trees and shrubbery around the yard which greatly improves the looks of his property. Miss Grace Adamson went to Grand Island Monday morning on the motor, to meet her little nephew from Council Bluffs, returning the same day. Among the other improvements, there is being a block of water main put in along in front of the Keystone Lumber Co. yard, in order to give good fire protection to those in that locality. Mrs. Gus Lorentz, wife of a prominent Loup City merchant, and eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Anton Erazim, is visiting at the parental home, one mile north of Ravenna this week.—Ravenna News. County Clerk Dieterichs' new house is about ready for the finishing touches and when finished will be one of the up-to-date houses in the city. It is all brick with brick piers and porch columns. Miss Emma Outhouse, principal of the Spencer school, is at home to rest up during the summer vacation, when she will return to assume the duties of that office again for the coming year. Mrs. A. B. Outhouse left Saturday morning for Lincoln to visit her daughter, Meroe, who is at the Bailey Sanitarium there for treatment. Her many friends here hope to hear a favorable report from her. Mr. W. Larsen, of Loup City Mercantile Co., and little son left for Aurora, via the automobile route to Ravenna, for a short visit with his parents before their departure Wednesday for an extended visit to their old home in Denmark. Mrs. E. L. Patten left Saturday morning for Rochester, Minnesota, where she will undergo an operation for Opticemic Goutrre, which has been troubling her for sometime. Her daughters left for Winterset, Iowa, at the same time. Chautauqua season tickets go on sale about a month before the opening of the Chautauqua. The cost of these tickets amounts to about 15c for each attraction. These Chautauqua attractions are brought here from all over the world and represent the best in their lines. Plan to be at home Chautauqua week.

BORN—To Mr. and Mrs. Conrad Dahunke, at Rockville, May 25th, a girl. Tomato and cabbage plants, 10 cents per dozen. W. T. GIBSON. Mrs. Deeds, of Cairo, and mother, Mrs. Lynch, who have been visiting their sister and daughter, Mrs. J. A. Danielson, returned home today. Henry Jenner and several others were passengers to Dannebrog Wednesday morning, going down to attend a Danish celebration. The building, south of the pool hall, is being moved back so as to line up with the rest of the buildings on that street. Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Peterson and children, Miss Violet and Master Charles, Jr., went to Rockville last Saturday and spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Conrad Dahunke. Mrs. Melvia Danielson, supervisor of music in the Fremont schools, came home Tuesday to spend her vacation with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Danielson. Miss Abi Beynon, our popular school superintendent, left Tuesday over the Burlington for her home at Wymore, where she will spend her vacation. Mrs. Vic Swanson left Saturday morning for Aurora for a short visit, after which she will take their oldest child to Omaha for an operation for tonsillitis and other throat trouble. Miss Belle Whitaker, from California, who has been here visiting her brother, Geo Whitaker, and family, left last Thursday for LaVerne, Minn., for a short visit, and may conclude to return here for another visit before going to her home in California. Miss Henry Young and Miss Lena Smith, two of our popular school teachers, left Tuesday morning over the Union Pacific for the West, Miss Young going to Ogden, Utah, and Miss Smith to San Francisco, Calif., and other points. They expect to visit at several points of interest on their way out and will return to Loup City before the opening of school this fall. On Tuesday of last week, Walter Kosnicki purchased the southeast quarter of section 26, Loup Township, at a bargain price, neighbors in the vicinity declaring that Mr. Kosnicki bought the farm for at least $1000 less than actual value. Sale was made by J. W. Dougal, Loup City's new real estate man. He says he has many other bargains that are just as good. Give him a chance to prove it. The Northwestern this week printed invitations for the marriage of Miss Nettie A. Fowler and Mr. William H. Doner, the wedding to take place at the bride's home in this city, Wednesday morning, June 12th, at 5 o'clock, after which the bridal couple will leave over the Union Pacific for a short wedding trip, and will be at home in Loup City after July 1st. The Northwestern joins their many friends in wishing this worthy couple a long, happy and prosperous married life. The Electric Light plant is nearing completion, a large majority of the machinery is in place and a goodly number of poles are set and others are being set and wiring will soon commence, and that will progress rapidly, as there will be several men working at it. In a short time we will have electric lights shining from every corner in town. The mill will be started some time this week.
