

Loup City Northwestern Supplement

Vol. XXX

Loup City, Nebraska, Thursday October 31, 1912

Number 51

Along R. R. Nos. 1 and 2

Mrs. Switzer visited her sister, Mrs. Herman Jung several days the past week.

Oliver Mason was doing some well work for Forsman, on Route 1, last Wednesday.

D. C. Grow visited a few days at W. O. Brown's last week.

Henry Reed put in a big culvert east of Mrs. Andy Gray's last Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Jorgenson are at home again after spending several weeks at Albion, Neb.

Mrs. George Peterson visited at her home on Davis Creek last week. George went over Sunday in his auto after her.

Mrs. Knapp is visiting at Arcadia this week.

Joe McMullen was at Loup City Monday. He said that he had been laid up with appendicitis almost all summer.

Fred Reed was at Loup City after a load of bridge lumber last Wednesday.

Leser Hiddleston has been working at Wm. Rutherford's the past week.

Born To Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Daddow last Tuesday, a son.

Mr. and Mrs. Ben Wilkinson from Lane, Kansas, have been visiting Mrs. Wilkinson's father and mother near Ravenna the past week.

The Ladies Aid Society meet at the home of L. G. Gross next Thursday.

Iver Lylin has bought a new feed cutter.

Mr. and Mrs. Rudolph Johns were trading at Loup City last Thursday and took home a load of coal.

The Ladies Aid Society met at the home of Simeon Iossi last Thursday.

Mrs. Ben Wilkinson and Mrs. Cecil Holmes visited at the Joe Daddow home last Friday.

C. J. Nordstedt took home a load of potatoes from Loup City last week.

Frank Adams marketed a load of porkers last Friday.

John Olsen helped C. O. Wagner several days the past week.

Nick Daddow has replanked the bridge west of the church.

Mr. and Mrs. Ben Wilkinson are going to move back to Shelton, Neb., from Lane, Kansas.

O. F. Peterson has been building a new corn crib and granary on his farm on Route 1, the past week.

Stanley Krollerski has been building a new barn this week.

L. M. Williams' carrier on Route 3, was driving on Route 2 Sunday.

Tessman has about 1500 bushels of corn in the field that he will sell. He moves to Henderson as soon as he can dispose of same.

J. Tessman got back from Henderson last Friday.

Ed Radcliff, Harry Taylor and Fred Kornroff put in J. W. Conger's new ice elevator the past week.

The Ravenna Creamery are digging their ice house deeper this week.

Albert Snyder was hauling hay last Friday.

Mrs. Gordon Snyder and Miss Bogseth attended a play at Ravenna last Friday evening. They returned home Saturday.

There was a dance at J. Gowdon's last Friday night.

Mrs. P. McMullen from Lyons, Neb., is visiting at the Teeters home on Clear Creek this week.

Ernest Garnette made his regular trip to Loup City Sunday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Schwaderer and family attended church at Loup City Sunday.

The Ladies' Aid will serve a big, liberal farmer's supper at the Wiggle Creek church election evening, Nov. 5. Regular supper, with a big dish of oyster soup, 25c. Children and extra dishes of oysters, special prices. Everybody come and enjoy prosperity.

Joe McMullen was on the market with a load of hogs Monday.

The W.C.T.U. will have a Silver Medal contest at the Wiggle Creek church, beginning at 8 o'clock Friday evening, Nov. 1. The 8th grade of the Verdurette school will be the contestants. Admission 10c. Everybody come and encourage the W. C. T. U. and the contestants.

Ed Kilpatrick took home a load of brick Monday.

Jim Roush, Oliver Brodock and R. D. Hendrickson attended L. O. O. F. lodge at Loup City Saturday evening.

Harry Vaughn and Huckleberry took their first steps in Odd Fellowship last Saturday evening. They will take their second step, the first degree, this Saturday night.

Ed Radcliff and men have been working at H. S. Conger's house this week.

A liveryman from Kearney broke a wheel on his auto, south of C. Oltjenbrun's Sunday.

Will Schuman's auto took Miss Ohlsen to her school Monday.

Misses Winifred Parsley and Teresa Weller spent Sunday at their homes on Clear Creek.

The neighbors of Mr. and Mrs. John Heapy on Clear Creek surprised them last Wednesday evening before their departure to the south. They have lived on Clear Creek almost all their lives and will be missed by all who know them. They are going south for the health of one of their children. The carrier joins with the Clear Creek people in wishing them good luck.

Eugene Miller and sons have been grading W. O. Brown's yard this week. This makes W. O.'s home look grand.

Liveryman McLaughlin took a load to Litchfield Tuesday.

Following are the names of the pupils of District 47, that received attendance certificates during October: Bennie Ratzlaff, Henry Ratzlaff, David Ratzlaff, Sarah Bichel, Marie Bichel, John Flynn, Declen Flynn, Alice Flynn. Miss Edna Henderson, teacher.

Eighteen of the L.C.H.S. graduates and Miss Beynon were out on their observation tour last week Wednesday. They visited Dist. No. 4, both morning and afternoon. Come again. They also visited Dist. 36 and gave excellent reports from both districts.

Pupils of District 46 who were neither absent nor tardy during the month of October: Veva Wilkie, Lena Snyder, Russel Wilkie, Lloyd Alleman, Bert Snyder, Bessie Johnson, Edith Alleman, Hattie Johnson, Maggie Paulsen, Burla Wilkie, Fern Wilkie, Bern Wilkie and Gower Hansen. Carrie Bogseth, teacher.

Tony Johns loaded a car of baled hay this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Burt visited at John Peugh's last Sunday.

Herman Jung is on the sick list.

Homer Hughes and wife and Winifred Hughes and wife visited at Ernest Daddow's last Sunday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Burt spent Sunday evening at Herman Jung's.

Don't forget the annual election supper at Wiggle Creek church.

Those receiving perfect attendance certificates in Dist. 36 for the month of October were: Ethel Daddow, Lulu Brodock, Laurice Peugh, Hazel and Vergie McFadden, Elva, Clifford and Curtis Roush, Floyd and Elsie Goodwin. These were given a "peanut hunt" and a merry time followed. Elva Roush found the most peanuts. Let us try to have all these enrolled on the perfect attendance list this month.

Pupils neither absent nor tardy in District No. 72, during the month of October: Alvena Blaschke, Judith Johnson, Robert Henderson, Enoch Johnson, Viola Kilpatrick, Bessie Kilpatrick Fritz, Sophia and Louisa Schwaderer, Emma and Minnie Adams, Miriam and Helen Draper, John and Bertha Blaschke. There are 30 pupils enrolled.

Fritz Holm is working for Mr. Kilpatrick.

W. T. Draper, who is plastering in Arcadia, spent Sunday with his family on Route 2.

The following pupils of Dist. No. 4 received perfect attendance certificates: Viola Daddow, Ruth McFadden, Francis Spencer, Herbert Oltjenbrun, Theodore and Willie Daddow, Elsie Spencer, Earl Gallaway.

Misses Leonia May, Helma Jung and Dorthy Ohlsen visited school Friday afternoon in Dist. 4.

Tom McFadden and Homer Hughes left Monday for Oklahoma.

Lettie Peugh and Eggar Foster spent Sunday evening at the home of H. Reed.

The social at the school house in Dist. 37, was well attended. The proceeds amounted to $19.

Fred Reed marketed hogs at Loup City, Monday.

Winifred Hughes, S. McFadden and Mr. Oltjenbrun have begun shucking corn.

Will Smalley is going to spend the winter with Steve Smalley.

Allie Bailey and Miss Emma Rowe autoed to Brewster Saturday, staying over Sunday with the latter's sister, Mrs. Bechtold.

Lilia Goodwin is expected home from Kearney next week, as the teachers will go to Omaha for the association.

Ada Smith from Loup City attended the box supper in Dist. 37 last Friday night. She visited at the Stewart McFadden home.

Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Burt were visiting at John Peugh's Sunday.

We understand Henry Reed has rented a farm in Iowa and expects to move there in the near future. We will miss these good people on Route two.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Daddow drove to Kearney last Friday to visit Mrs. Daddow's mother, returning home Tuesday.

Grover Huston's friends on Wiggle Creek will be glad to know that he was well enough to leave the hospital at Kearney Tuesday. His brother, sister and mother have been with him all the time and Tuesday took him to their home in Illinois.

W. H. Gunn of Kearney, has been visiting at the home of Jim Roush the past week. He has been a constant sufferer all summer but is feeling much better.

Mrs. Carl Squires, while doing some sewing Monday ran the sewing machine needle into one of her fingers, breaking the point off. It is very painful.

Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Conger visited at the home of W. O. Brown Sunday evening.

Nick Daddow and family, Henry Goodwin and family and Oliver Brodock visited Lonnie Daddow's Sunday.

Eva Goodwin visited at Mr. Peugh's Friday evening.

R. P. Ratzlaff was hauling corn to Ray McFadden's Tuesday.

Carl Squires sold his crop in the field to some parties from Arcadia, and will have a sale Nov. 12 and move to Comstock, where he owns a half interest in a livery barn with his brother John.

Lulu Brodock is staying with her sister, Mrs. Bessie Daddow, this week.

Quay Snodgrass is working for Mr. McBeta this fall.

A Masque Hallowe'en Social

A Masque Hallowe'en Social will be held in the basement of the Methodist church, Friday evening, Nov. 1st, to which all are cordially invited. Numerous amusements have been planned to make it a pleasant social feature, among which are a mystic fish-pond, a pie eating contest, fortune telling, etc. The receipts of the evening will be used to lend financial aid to the Sunday school and establish a library fund. At 9 o'clock the following refreshments will be served:

Mystic Broth and Wizard Islands, 5c.
Black Cat's Sorrow
Witches' Pride	} 10 cents
Lamentations
Job's Tears
Black Lotion
Soothing Syrup	} 10 cents
Yellow Peril
Sweet Revenge

The old sign board of the Northwestern office, 18 inches in width by 16 feet in length, can be purchased cheap by anyone wishing same for sign work.

C. L. McDonald, the drayman; try him for good, prompt service.