Sunday afternoon a party of children at the home of John Fisher, in the east part of town, were playing with a track torpedo which they had found in the Burlington yards. Anna Fisher and Ethel Tyler, girls of about ten years of age, attempted to explode the torpedo by striking it with a hammer. It finally exploded with rather disastrous results to the Fisher and Tyler girls, one having her nose badly lacerated, and the other having one of her fingers nearly blown off besides having her face and other parts of the body badly contused by the flying stones and gravel which the torpedo contained. Several of the other children who were watching the experiment received minor injuries, but none serious.—Ravenna News.

Ed Magnuson loaded his car of farm implements and personal belongings Monday and on Tuesday morning departed for his new home at Loup City. A farewell reception was given him last Saturday night at the Brick hall by the members of the S. P. L. class of the U. B. Sunday school. A large number of the friends of Mr. Magnuson enjoyed a pleasant social evening, and on departing wished him success and happiness in his new home. Mr. Magnuson has been quite active in church circles during his residence here and his presence in the work will be greatly missed—Marquette items in Aurora Republican.

Rev. W. E. Henry returned Tuesday noon from another trip to Riverdale, on the Calaway branch north from Kearney, where he has accepted a charge to preach, he having decided to enter the M. E. conference, and expects to move the first of next week to that charge. On his way home from Riverdale Monday he was in an exciting wreck in the yards at Kearney, when a switch engine crashed into the Calaway motor, in which were crowded perhaps 100 people, injuring several persons and badly wrecking the car.

Mexico, it would seem, has now almost gone the limit in its butchery and bloodshed. Last Sunday after midnight, deposed President Madero and his vice president, Jose Saurez, were shot to death while being taken from the national palace to the penitentiary, presumably for safe keeping, and opinion prevails that the whole diabolical scheme was the work of the new government to get rid of the two men. Whether that be the case or not, the suspicion that such was the case will be difficult to down.

Senior Class Play

"Mrs. Briggs of the Poultry Yard," a comedy in three acts, by Evelyn Gray Whiting. A domestic comedy looking steadfastly on the "bright side" of human affairs. Mrs. Briggs is an admirable character full of original humor and quaint sayings. There is also a strong Irish character, Mrs. O'Connor, which affords an abundance of Irish wit. This farce is written on the order of "Mrs. Wiggs of the Cabbage Patch" and is a clean play full of comical incidents. Given March 7th, 1913.

Improved 80 acre farm for rent. See W. F. Mason.

Visions from Storkland

Prof. and Mrs. R. E. Dale are the happy parents of a charming little daughter who arrived at their home on the anniversary of Washington's birthday, Feb. 22. The professor has of course that seraphic smile due on such momentous occasions, while Grandpa (Chase is so engrossed over his new dignity that he is barely approachable. Congratulations to all.

CHURCH LOCALS

The First Baptist Church: Sunday, March 2. Services same as usual. Morning sermon will be "The Lamb of God". Evening the "Sower and the seed". Observance of Lord's supper in the morning.

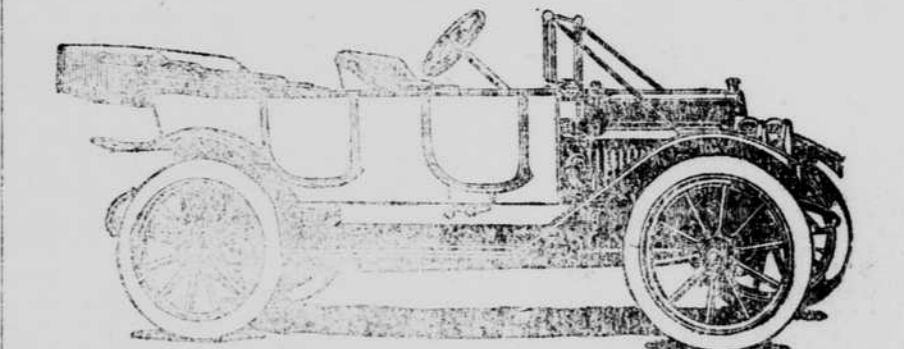

Geo. Sutherland, Pastor.
Methodist church: Sunday March 2. Preaching by the pastor both morning and night. Subject for the morning—"The Conquering Hosts." At night—"Troublesome Times." in relation to conditions now existing in Mexico. The Epworth League will be at 6:45. The League is doing good work and growing in interest as is also the Sunday school and in fact all departments of church activity. Easter Observance. All are cordially invited.
D. A. Leeper, pastor.

Presbyterian church: Next Sabbath March 2. "How Jesus Praised a Man Who Was Grateful" is the subject for the morning service. "God's part in safe-guarding and building up a community" the evening subject. The Teacher's Training work for Thursday evenings is proving very interesting. A study of the early adolescent period will be taken up at the meeting on March 7.
J. C. Tourtellot, Pastor.

More than half the trouble in accidents, breakdowns and expensive delays and repair bills in the operations of motor Cars Result from the use of gear transmission

There are only one third as many parts to a friction drive as there is to a gear drive. You get 20 per cent more power out of your engine from a friction drive than out of a gear drive. They run smoother, you have no jump and jar when you start up, no z-z-z-z-ip, but just a smooth start. your tire expense is cut half in two.

Get all this in mind when you buy a car this year. Let Lee Bros. show you the works in a friction drive.
