CONTEST CLOSES

Mrs. H. W. Ojendyk of Ashton
Winner of Ford Auto, With Winnie Gasteyer 2nd and
Mrs. Emma Daddow 3rd
in the Race

Monday evening of this week closed the great subscription contest which has been carried on by the Northwestern for the past nine weeks. At the final count, the office was crowded with contestants and their friends and excitement was intense on all hands. At exactly 9 o'clock the office was closed and the contestants began putting in their votes, the local contest manager finally announcing the last moment when the ballot box would be closed and no more votes received. When the announcement was made, the ballot box was placed in the hands of the judges—Miss Pearl Needham, deputy county treasurer; W. J. Root, assistant cashier of the State Bank, and Lawrence Polski, assistant cashier of the First National Bank—and soon thereafter, with the rapid aid of a counting machine, the vote was announced, showing Mrs. H. W. Ojendyk of Ashton the winner of the grand prize, with Miss Winnie Gasteyer of this city a close second, followed by Mrs. Emma Daddow third, the rest of the contestants following about in the order as published in the paper of last week. That the contest was a happy surprise to the Northwestern in the successful outcome, would be to put the matter mildly. From the beginning, the weather had been by far the worst of the past season, almost half of the nine weeks being so inclement that contestants could not work to any advantage, and we had about concluded that we could kiss good-bye to the wish that we might record a successful outcome, so far as regards the addition of any considerable number of new subscribers. However, we were most pleasantly surprised, as the result more than fills our most sanguine expectations, our list of subscribers is more than doubled, in fact nearly trebled, and we thereby happy. We want to take occasion at this time to give just tribute to Mr. C. L. Brannan, the live-wire local contest manager to take care of the work. He was on the job every minute, pleasant, affable and a most indefatigable worker for the success of the contest. Miss Pearl Schuette, who has been local manager of like contest at Grand Island came up and helped Mr. Brannan the closing hours, because of the illness of C. R. Brady, the head of the series of like contests over the west, who is lying very ill at Excelsior Springs, Mo., and could not be present himself, so sent one of his most valuable aids in the person aforementioned. In closing, the Northwestern wishes to extend heartfelt thanks to every contestant in the race for their good work in building up the subscription list of the paper, and also to every one who has given aid to favorite contestants. It is too bad that all cannot win, but we can truthfully say that in the contest just closed each and every one who has failed to land the prize has proven a good loser, and rank among the best people of earth.

Card of Thanks
Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Ojendyk of Ashton wish to express for them their warmest thanks to the great, big-hearted people who by their generous subscriptions to the Northwestern during the contest made it possible for them to possess the dandy Ford auto given away to the contestant sending in the highest number of votes, Mrs. Ojendyk being that fortunate one. They would like to give their expressions personally but that being impossible at this time, take this occasion of returning the same.

Special Teachers' Examination
Notice is hereby given that there will be a special teacher's examination held on April 18 and 19, 1913, in all county certificate subjects. The reading circle examinations for the year will be held on the third Saturday in April, April 19, and the third Saturday in May, May 17. These examinations will be given on the dates mentioned in the afternoon only. Teachers will be required to write on either "How to Study," or the "American Rural School," and in addition, answer any two questions from the list on "The Personality of the Teacher." The last number assigned the applicant for the regular examination will be used for the reading circle examination that is, the last number assigned before certificate was issued. No additional fee will be charged for taking the reading circle examinations. The county superintendent has a supply of reading circle books at the office which will be furnished to teachers at the price given in the booklets sent to teachers some time since.

New 5 and 10 Cent Store for Loup City

Loup City is to have an up-to-date 5 and 10 cent store. Mr. Bert G. Travis of Aurora this week opens up a fine store in this line in the large north store room of the Gzechviak block, just north of the First National Bank. Mr. Gzechviak has vacated that part of the building, putting all his stock in the south store room. A goodly portion of Mr. Travis' stock of goods arrived last Saturday, and the rest arriving the first of this week, and he is now fairly opened up to business, his opening day being this publication day, Thursday. Mr. Travis' wife and two little sons arrived Saturday evening, and will be at home in the Todd cottage near the St. Joseph church. We warmly welcome the new store and its enterprising proprietor and good family, and believe Loup City is a large gainer thereby.

RESOLUTIONS

By Loup City Commercial Club
The death of Herbert W. Pedler was a great blow to our people. He had become one of our most loved and respected citizens, a noble and useful man, whose influence was felt for good, and whose passing away in the meridian of life, is to most deeply regretted and deplored, and this organization feels a keen sense of grief and sorrow, and the public a great and irreparable loss in his death. It is particularly fitting that the Loup City commercial club should join in the universal tribute to our lamented citizen and chief executive of our beautiful little city. In his career as a city official, he labored persistently for the people's good. No taint of gain ever touched his hand and no surrender of principle as he viewed public questions ever marred his public service.

He worked in the vanguard for our city's commercial and industrial progress, until death overtook him, and today how heavily we feel his loss. But the kindly and beautiful traits of his private life and character made him most loved by all who knew him, exemplifying to the fullest extent, the sterling virtues of friendship, courage, industry and frugality. Every day found him as our Master Mechanic at his post of duty, with hammer and anvil at the flaming forge, moulding and fashioning the useful tools and implements for our people's needs.

"Week in week out, from morn till night,
You could hear his bellows blow;
You could hear him swing his heavy sledge,
With measured beat and slow,
Like the sexton ringing the village bell
When the evening sun is low.
"Tolling, rejoicing, sorrowing,
Onward through life he goes,
Each morning sees some task begun,
Each evening sees it close;
Something attempted, something done,
Has earned him last repose.
"Thanks, thanks to thee, our worthy friend,
For the lessons thou hast taught;
Thus at the flaming forge of life
Our fortunes must be wrought;
Thus on the sounding anvil shaped
Each burning deed and thought."
Therefore be it resolved: That in the death of Herbert W. Pedler, Loup City has lost one of its best, most energetic, and most useful citizens, who was always devoted to its interests and its welfare, and this commercial club one of its most loved and respected members.

Resolved, That we tender our heartfelt sympathy as a club and as a people to the bereaved wife and family of the deceased, and that a copy of these resolutions be forwarded to them, handed the Loup City papers for publication and spread at length on the minutes of this club.

By City Council
Whereas, In the death of H. W. Pedler Loup City has lost its mayor and chief executive officer, one who in the person of Mr. H. W. Pedler conscientiously and ably presiding and discharging the duties of said office with malice towards none, charity for all, and with the interests of said Loup City always at heart, and first in his consideration, and with a frankness, honesty, and courage that endeared himself to the members of Loup City council, its officers and employees, who will officially miss his wise counsel and companionship, therefore, be it Resolved, By the acting mayor and members of the city council of Loup City, Nebraska, its officers and employees that it do, as an official body, hereby publicly express its regrets in the death of its mayor, H. W. Pedler; and be it further,

Resolved, That these resolutions be spread at large upon its records and minutes, and that a copy thereof be published in the newspapers of Loup City, Nebraska, and a certified copy be given to the wife of the departed. Members of city council: A. B. Outhouse, acting Mayor; W. D. French, Jas. Lee, John Ohlsen, Councilmen; R. P. Starr, City Attorney; James Burnett, Marshall; Pete Rowe, City Clerk.

Sunday School Convention

The District Sunday school convention met at Wiggle Creek church Sunday, March 30th, 1913 at 2:30 p. m. A crowded house greeted the people; delegations coming from Loup City, Austin and Rockville.

The meeting was called to order by Rev. J. C. Tourtelot, district president. A splendid song service led by Mr. Burwell, was first on the program. This was followed by scripture reading by Mrs. Thompson. Invocation by Dr. Leeper.

In the absence of Mrs. Ed. Angier, district secretary, Mrs. Ver Valin was appointed Secretary pro tem. A nominating committee was appointed as follows: Mrs. Thompson, Fred Daddow. Alonzo Daddow, said committee to report at close of session.

Rev. Tourtelot gave a very satisfactory and complete explanation of the "Efficiency Standard." The Efficiency Standard is being adopted by all our progressive Sunday school over this great land, as a big ideal to work for.

The audience was treated to a fine quartet, "Like as a Father Pitteth His Children," by Mr. Burwell, Mr. and Mrs. Jorgenson and Miss Casteel.

The subject of the "How and Why of the Teachers' Training," was discussed by Mrs. Ver Valin.

Dr. Leeper gave some very helpful suggestions on the subject, "The Pastor and the Sunday School—How they may help each other."

Clarence Burt gave a solo, "Remember me." This was very much enjoyed by all present.

Mrs. Thompson gave a splendid talk on "Our Young Folks," supplementing the remarks made by Mrs. Ver Valin on the Importance of Teachers' Training.

Mr. Ver Valin gave in a few words the "Graded Work for Seniors" as used in his class of boys and girls from 16 to 20 years. Both teacher and pupils are enthusiastic over the work.

The nominating committee reported at this time and their nominees for District officers were elected as follows: President, Rev. J. C. Tourtelot; vice president, Alonzo Daddow; secretary, Mrs. Burwell; Supt. Elementary division, Mrs. E. Angier, Supt. secondary division, Mrs. Ward Ver Valin; Supt. adult department, Mrs. A. S. Main; Supt. teachers' training, Mrs. Thompson; Supt. missionary department, Mrs. J. Plant; Supt. Temperance department, Ira Daddow; Supt. pastors' department, Rev. A. L. Zimmerman.

The evening session was well attended. A full house reported. Rev. Zimmerman gave a good talk on the "Authenticity of the Bible." Duet by Miss Casteel and Mr. Claude Burt.
