Capital punishment remains a law in Nebraska, the state senate by a vote of more than two to one, refusing to change statutes relating to penalty for murder.

It would seem that though Boelus voted to have saloons for the coming year, it is likely they will have none, as we learn from a prospective dealer that no more than twenty-five signers can be secured for drink emporiums in that village, which of course bars them out.

We are in receipt of Ed Brown's Friend Sentinel of last week, which looks as pretty and nice as love's young dream of a bride, he having secured a linotype and had his paper set with linotype slugs. Brother Brown and son, Arthur, are to be congratulated over the evidence of their success in making a splendid paper out of the Sentinel.

The present legislature has given us a base ball law, which allows ball playing on Sundays. At present the county board of supervisors may at their option grant Sunday base ball playing anywhere in their bailiwicks outside of incorporated towns. However, if ball playing is to be done inside of corporations, the people must first vote on the proposition, and if the years have it base ball will be allowed, or vice versa, if the vote be for it. No vote so far has been taken in Loup City, hence the first Sunday base ball under the new law here was had Sunday afternoon last west of this city. Undoubtedly the proposition will be voted on here in the near future.

Hymeneal

On Wednesday afternoon of this week, April 16, 1913, at the Presbyterian manse, Rev. J. C. Tourtellot officiating, Mr. Henry Rutherford of Wiggle Creek, this county, was united in marriage to Miss Muriel Ice of Polk, Polk county, Nebraska. The groom is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Rutherford, while the bride is a young lady who has been visiting friends here in the past, both young people being well and favorably known to many of our people. The Northwestern wishes for the happy couple, a joyous and prosperous wedded life. They will make their home on the groom's farm a few miles south of this city.

The report reaches us that our young friend, Alfred Minshall of this city, was married at St. Paul last Saturday to Miss Jennie Hendrickson of Austin. Mr. Minshall is a son of Mr. and Mrs. John Minshall of Richmond, Virginia, formerly of this city, while the bride is one of Sherman county's most winsome lassies. May good fortune attend them.

County Judge Smith on Tuesday of this week united in marriage Mr. John Naibert and Miss Francis Razim, both of Bristol township, this county.

County Sunday School Convention

The Annual County Sunday School Convention was held in Loup City, Sunday, April 13, 1913, under the leadership of W. H. Kimberly, of Lincoln. The opening session was held in the Presbyterian church Sunday afternoon and was one of the liveliest meetings of its kind ever held here. In the evening a union meeting was held in the M. E. church, where a large audience listened to Mr. Kimberly's splendid lecture on "Organized Adult Bible Classes," and were given a vision of what their influence really means to a community. Upon the report of the nominating committee the following officers were elected for the ensuing year: President, Mrs. E. W. Thompson; vice-president, A. S. Miller, Litchfield; secretary-treasurer, Mrs. Ed Angier. Superintendents of departments as follows: Elementary division, Miss Harriet Hayhurst; Secondary division, Mr. Ward Ver Valin; Adult division, Mrs. C. F. Beushausen; Home and Visitation, Mrs. C. R. Sweetland; Teacher Training, Rev. J. C. Tourtellot; Pastors, Rev. D. A. Leeper; Missionary, Mrs. Ward Ver Valin; Temperance, E. H. Robinson, Hazard

Ashton News

Will Schuman, Chris. Johansen and Ed. Oitman of Loup City were Ashton visitors one day last week.

T. C. Dethlefs and Johnnie Rapp, Jr., took in the sights of Farwell last Saturday night.

Mr. and Mrs. John Sawicki and son Alexander of Farwell were out of town guests at the Jamrog-Maschka nuptials.

Miss Clara Nielson of Grand Island is here visiting the Misses Jamrog a few days and incidentally to attend the Jamrog-Maschka wedding.

S. D. Smith was here a few days this week visiting at the T. C. Wilson home, returning to St. Paul Wednesday morning.

Victor Prehnich and Leo Tesmer, two of Paplin's stalwarts, were east-bound passengers for Farwell last week Friday.

Miss Alma Ojendyk of Portland, Oregon, is here visiting her brother and family for a short time, after which she will go to Lincoln for an extended visit.

R. F. Wiehman of Scotia, Neb., was here Monday of this week boosting Texas land. Fred has a good proposition, which should be investigated by our people.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. I. W. Sandberg, on Thursday, April 10th, a bouncing baby girl of regulation weight. At this writing, all are doing well, with Isaac still passing 10c cigars.

Miss Laura Zochol was a St. Paul passenger Saturday morning. Miss Laura expects to remain in that metropolis a few days to visit her brother and family.

We understand that Cash Topolski is the latest to become the owner of an auto, having purchased a Franklin car of a Mr. Williams in the vicinity of Schaupps.

Mrs. A. E. Wanek, who underwent a surgical operation at Grand Island some time ago, is doing nicely, as we understand, and will be home in the near future.

The Misses Arlie Corning, Klea and Lila McNulty went to Loup City Friday evening last to visit at home over Sunday, returning to their school work Monday morning.

On account of the very inclement weather and the blockade of all roads the past week, very few farmers came to town, consequently, business has been more or less on the standstill.

We understand that this town is to have another cream station in the near future, a representative of the Lincoln Pure Butter Co. being here one day this week looking for a location.

T. C. Wilson went to Loup City last week and purchased a new Buick auto of the Ogle Auto Co. Clyde says if the weather will just give him a chance now, he will show the boys how to cut figure eights.

The Vincent brothers received the sad news last Friday that their mother, who resides at Midway, Neb., was critically ill and not expected to live. Martin and James, her two sons, hastened to her bedside.

S. J. Krance of Paplin vicinity, who is local correspondent for the St. Paul Republican for that locality, was on our streets one day last week. Sylvester is always wideawake and was evidently watching for anything that might be of interest to his local readers.

Mr. F. X. Badura was an east-bound passenger Monday morning for Grand Island, where he went to pay a visit to his son, Peter, who has been confined in a hospital at that place for the past two months. The reports are that he is recovering, but very slowly. We all have hopes, however, that he may soon be able to leave that place and once more be among his many friends.

Mr. Frank Powell of Burwell, Neb., has accepted a position with L. B. Campbell in his tonsorial parlors. We understand Mr. Powell is not only a first-class barber, but also an A. No. 1 ball player and will assist our own Lanky Pete throughout the season, in dishing out the usual assortment of goose eggs. With this asset to our ready strong aggregation, Ashton will no doubt give the other members of the Sherman-Howard League a close race for the pennant.

Messrs. Dutch Werner, Elmer Strum, Billy Stott and Miss Coulter of Rockville, Messrs. Milburn, Castle, Curtis and the Misses Mada Parlett and Francis Corning of Loup City, and Frank Sundstrom of Palmer were the out of town parties in attendance at the Jamrog-Maschka wedding dance. We understand however there were quite a number whose names we failed to learn.

Any one being of the opinion that this locality has not had enough snow will do well to see either Jos. Hruby or S. S. Polski. Either of these gentlemen will tell you that so far as they know we have had too much of the blamed stuff, for if such had not been the case, they would not have missed a dinner one day last week.

Happily Married

At 9 o'clock Tuesday morning, April 15th, at St. Francis Catholic church of Ashton, occurred the marriage of Miss Helen Jamrog and Mr. Frank A. Maschka. The bride is a daughter of our popular mayor and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Jamrog, while the groom is a rising young business man of this city. Taking everything into consideration, it was one of the most beautiful weddings that ever took place in our city. The bride was dressed in a wonderful creation of silk marquisette over white charmeuse, trimmed in shadow lace, with a veil of old French lace topped with hyacinth and sweet peas, and carried a beautiful shower bouquet of bride's roses and sweet peas. The bride was assisted by her beautiful sister, Nellie, as maid of honor, dressed in lavender silk crepe de chine, carrying a bouquet of pink carnations, while the groom was assisted by his brother, Alonzo. The bridesmaids were Miss Frances Maschka, Miss Vernie Maschka and Miss Stella Jamrog, dressed in pink silk voile trimmed in messaline, and attended by Mr. Louis Jamrog, Mr. Peter Jezewski and Mr. Alexander Sawicki. After the ceremony, the wedding party was taken to the home of the bride. On the way they were stopped by a large crowd of friends and well wishers, with a rope stretched across the street, and treated to a band concert, a speech of congratulation, and refreshments. After the groom had placed the town at the disposal of the crowd, the wedding party proceeded to the home of the bride, there to partake of the bountiful repast prepared for them. In the evening a dance was given, a large crowd from all parts of the county attending. All report a good time. The congratulations and best wishes of all their friends go with the happy pair. May their journey through life be lightened by little cares, and may the union prove a long, happy and prosperous one.

Additional Local

Mrs. Louis Bechtold was a passenger to Grand Island yesterday for a few days' visit.

Mrs. Harry Ballinger and little daughter of Omaha came yesterday for a visit with relatives and friends.

A marriage license was issued on the 14th instant to Ignac Kosnicki of Ashton and Miss Birnie Levandowski of Schaupps.

Mr. and Mrs. Charley Barnes came down from their ranch up in the sand hills Tuesday, to visit. Charley is situated on a ranch near Gracie, in Loup County.

Miss Pearl Needham went to Omaha last Saturday to consult an oculist in regard to her eyes and get glasses to fit. She may return the latter part of the week.

It looks now as though John Needham and A. N. Cook will abandon their removal up into Wyoming. They have received notification from government officials that the land on which they have secured half section homesteads is not on the market, and a mistake has been made in doing so by parties interested in exploiting that country.

E. W. Gordrich went to Loup City Wednesday to be with his sister, Mrs. McCray, who has been dangerously ill for several weeks. Her condition was reported to be extremely dangerous last week, but has shown a slight improvement the past few days and hopes are now entertained that she has a chance to recover.—Sargeant Leader.

Mr. and Mrs. Walker, who were recently married at the home of the bride near Loup City, have been spending a part of their honeymoon at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Zigler, south of town. Mrs. Walker will be remembered by our citizens as Miss Zigler, one of the youngest daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Zigler, who were former residents of this place. Mr. and Mrs. Walker will take up their residence soon on a farm near Loup City.—Marquette Items in Aurora Republican.

The Sherman-Howard base ball league will open next Sunday with John Warneke at home, entertaining Farwell, Ashton at home taking care of Boelus and Elba doing things to Dannebrog at home. Last year the Sherman-Howard league had a successful season and with the experience gained from their first year in organized base ball, they should have a better season this year. They play good ball on the circuit and the attendance should be larger than ever this season.—St. Paul Phonograph.

We received a pleasant call Monday from Mr. Frank H. Lupton of Sheridan, Wyo., who was here visiting old friends of twenty years ago when he was a resident of Loup City. He had been at Excelsior Springs, Mo. Mr. Lupton left here nineteen years ago, and remarked with astonishment the wonderful advancement and improvements in his old home town. He found quite a number of former friends, among whom were the Chases, Odendahs, Outhouse

50,000 YOUNG MEN

Wore Graduate hand-tailored Clothes last year. To each of these 50,000 young men a guarantee of clothes satisfaction was given with the provision that if the clothes did not give satisfaction in any important or minor detail the garments were to be returned at the maker's expense.

Not a suit has come back. Does this mean anything to you? It should mean a lot to you in confidence, but what you should see further is the style, fit, richness of all-wool materials, and beautiful patterns of these cloths. Come and see them today at this store. You'll be taking the first step toward clothes satisfaction

John Warneke disposed of his poultry business last Friday, C. R. Scovill being the new owner. Last July Mr. Warneke came here from Loup City and opened up the business that he has conducted until the present time and while he labored under great difficulties he succeeded beyond his greatest expectations and today he has one of the best poultry business plants in this section of the state. Coming in here so shortly after the lamentable failure of the McPheeters outfit he had hard sledding to get a start, but the people soon learned that John Warneke was a man in every sense of the word, and he soon gained the confidence of the people of this section of the state, and after events proved that they had not misplaced their confidence. We understand Mr. Warneke will remain for the present and conduct the business for the new man. He has a large number of friends who will be sorry to learn that he has disposed of his business here, but who will be glad to learn that he decided to remain for a time, at least.—St. Paul Phonograph.

Local Pride.
"Your baseball team failed to make much of a showing during the past season, I believe."
"Yes, but don't come here for the purpose of boasting about your one-horse town. Your baseball team finished higher than ours did, I admit; but a cabaret has just been opened here."

A Born Salesman.
"You are wasting your time writing poetry."
"But I sell my poetry," protested the other.
"And that convinces me that you can sell anything. Such being the case, why not take up high-class bonds or steel bridges or something big?"

What She Gained.
Hub—Well, do you think you've gained anything from your two weeks in the country?
Wife—Indeed, yes. I've learned more about the different brands of canned goods than I could pick up in a year at home.
