

ASKS AID FOR DRUG USERS

Magazine Writer Urges Hospitals for Those Afflicted With Deploable Habit.

The need of hospitals, private and public, for scientific treatment of drug addiction, is urgent, writes Charles B. Towns in the Century, discussing "The Drug Taker and the Physician."

Even the inebriate colony which is to be established by the state of New York will in no way provide for the drug taker. This is probably because he does not come so obviously within the protective province of the state as does the alcoholic, since he is not turbulent and does not break the law except in order to obtain his customary dose.

It will be seen that the physician is the proper agent to deal with the evil under discussion, both in safeguarding the patient from acquiring the habit and in correcting the habit when once it has been acquired. He must, then, be thoroughly equipped for the duty.

ALASKA OF SOME ACCOUNT

Its Cost Paid Back Many Times Over and Now It Demands Self-Government.

The territory of Alaska has yielded to its owner, the United States, $200,000,000 in mineral wealth; in fish and furs this bleak possession has yielded $222,710,036, and it has paid directly into the United States treasury $14,792,461 in cash.

This territory was bought from Russia in 1867 for $7,200,000. The figures of wealth yielded in return for this investment, according to the testimony of Delegate James Wickersham before the committee on territories on March 29 last, were supplied to him by the treasury department. Costing but $7,200,000, and an average of $200,000 annually for the maintenance of its government, the territory has returned to the United States $10,000,000 a year.

Pride of East and West.

The visitor from the far west who refuses to be impressed by some of the town's proudest exhibits is one of the New Yorker's greatest trials, and often the latter discovers that the attitude of his guest is based upon considerably more than a mere assumption of superiority.

He Had a Name.

Patrick, lately over, was working in the yards of a railroad. One day he happened to be in the yard office when the force was out. The telephone rang vigorously several times and he at last decided it ought to be answered.

CHURCH LOCALS

Methodist church: Next Sunday is "Mothers' Day". The exercises will be in keeping with the occasion. A white carnation will be given to every mother who can attend.

Retain Their Employes.

More than two thousand active employes have been on an eastern railroad's pay roll more than forty years, and over one thousand five hundred men who served forty years or more are now receiving pensions.

Her Condemnation.

Sarah Bernhardt is quoted as paying her respects to Isabella of Bavaria, consort of Charles VI of France, in this wise: "It is to her that we owe the invention of the corset, but it was she, too, who sold the half of France to England. There was no crime of which that woman was not capable."

Is Working on Large Picture.

Edwin H. Blashfield, who painted the dome-piece for the Library of Congress, is working on one of the largest canvases ever painted in America, and it is claimed the figures on it overshadow any ever wrought in this country.

The Tie That Binds.

"It does seem as if you and I ought to get along together without quarreling all the time," sighed Mrs. Jawback.

"It does," growled Mr. Jawback, "but it seems we can't. We're fighting like cats and dogs from morning to night."

"Cats and dogs? Look at that cat and that dog of ours—they never fight. They live under the same roof peacefully."

"Yes, they do. But tie 'em together so they can't get loose and see how they'll act!"

Ideal Match.

"But," says the candid friend, "I cannot for the life of me understand why you intend to marry him. He has a wooden leg and the other one is bowed, and he only has one eye and is bald in patches, and positively has the ugliest whiskers I ever saw on a man. Why, no woman in her senses could love him!"

"We shall be ideally happy," explains the beautiful girl, "I shall never be jealous of him for the reasons you have cited. And he will always be so glad and proud that I married him that he won't care how much I flirt."—Judge's Library.

They Were Surprised.

"Jinks, who has just returned from a year's globe trotting, is very wrath at the local paper."

"Why?"

"Oh, the editor wrote a column article about him, which he claims ended: 'His many friends were surprised that he is unchanged,' but the compositor left the 'c' out of 'unchanged.'"

LUMP.

Bronson—What have you been burning in your furnace this winter? Woodson—Hundred dollar bill, as usual.

He Had a Name.

Patrick, lately over, was working in the yards of a railroad. One day he happened to be in the yard office when the force was out. The telephone rang vigorously several times and he at last decided it ought to be answered.

"Hello," answered the voice at the other end of the line. "Is this eight-six-one-five-nine?"

"Aw, g'wan! Phwat d'ye tink O' am? A box car?"

Along R. R. No. 2

W. H. McLaughlin's well was out of commission the past week.

Otto Henning marketed a load of grain at Loup City last Thursday.

H. S. Conger has set out shade and fruit trees and lots of small shrubbery the past week.

Clark Alleman has set trees along his west line.

Muriel Chase visited Saturday at Will Hawk's.

J. H. Burwell was marketing hogs at Loup City Saturday.

Lars P. Neilson had a load of hogs on the Loup City Market Monday.

Adolph Rettenmyer marketed hogs at Loup City Monday.

Beri German spent Sunday at Loup City.

Art Wilson and son, Roy, were hauling hay from Ernest Daddow's Monday.

E. M. Marvel had teams busy Monday hauling out corn.

L. Johnson was on Route 2 this week.

Chas. Johnson was at N.P. Neilson's on business Monday.

A. H. Newhouser helped Marvel haul corn this week.

Leroy Wilson was helping Tom McFadden last week.

Len Haller was out to Ed Flynn's Monday repairing the water tank.

Charles Johnson hauled hay from Ernest Daddow's Monday.

John Haller made a trip to Loup City in his new auto Monday.

Hans Deitz sold Roy Conger several tons of hay last week.

Mrs. Milt Rentfrow visited on Route 2 last week.

Jim Roush was repairing the pasture fence east of Fred Johnson's Monday.

Mrs. L. H. Hansen and son have been visiting in Denver the past week.

Charles Bohr from McCool Junction is visiting his sister, Mrs. F. M. Mickow, this week.

Miss Carrie Bogseth will teach next year in the Fred Johnson district or the same school taught by her this year.

Carrier has a mare 7 years old, heavy with foal, weight 1050 lbs; that he will trade for a mare or horse. This mare is bred to Jim Johnson's horse.

A great many patrons forget to put up the signal when they put their letters in the mail boxes. Unless the signal is up the carrier does not have to look in the mail boxes. Always put your return in the left hand corner with your route number, also box number. This will help the postmaster and carrier.

Why don't some of the automobile owners fasten the road drag to their autos and drag the roads. They could cover a great many miles more than a man could with a team. This would be a big saving to your autos. The carrier thinks that all roads will be dragged with autos instead of horses soon. If autos will pull the plow, why not the drag?

Mrs. Alfred Jorsenson came near having a serious accident happen to her last week while coming out of the cave. In some way the wind caught the door, blowing it shut with such force that it caught her head, rendering her unconscious for some time and when she came to her head was held between the door and the jam. Outside of a lump on her head the size of a hen's egg and the right side of her face bruised, she was all O. K. in a short time.

Winter wheat is as good or better than last week. Alfalfa will be ready to cut in ten days. Pastures are slow about starting but with a few warm days they will be good. A heavy rain covered the route again last week. The average depth to which the ground is wet, is about 2 feet. Some potatoes are up. Oats are up and making rapid growth, the acreage is quite large. Some farmers have a good many acres of corn planted now and next week corn planting will be in full swing. Lots of prairie being broke this spring and the alfalfa that will be sown this year will break all records. The ground is in the best shape it has been for several years. The farmers are farming better every year.
