

The Price of Cream

The dairymen of Loup City and vicinity are receiving the highest price for their butterfat than they have ever received at this time of year.

Our competitors are paying much lower prices in the surrounding towns that have no local creamery than they are paying in Loup City.

To prove this absolutely, just call up Ashton, Rockville, Arcadia, Litchfield, Hazard or any of the nearby towns and satisfy yourself with regard to this price business.

We are the cause of these splendid prices you are receiving for cream at Loup City, and if there was no Creamery in Loup, you would be receiving the same price as the dairyman are receiving at the surrounding towns.

Patronize the local creamery because it furnishes you with the highest cash market, pays the same price to everybody and gives you a square deal every day in the year.

Our price this week is 25 cents for butterfat delivered here. We solicit your business.

A Blessing in the Sick Room

If any one in your home is ill, a

Western Electric

at the bedside enables them to enjoy cool comfort on the hottest summer day.

It's a big blessing to well people too—helps them to keep cool on days that would otherwise be unbearable.

With one of our current taps you can attach the fan to the electric light fixture without even removing the lamp.

Our new fans are just in—come in and see them.

SEASON TICKET PLAN BEST.

You may go to the Chautauqua with a season ticket, or a single admission ticket you buy at the gate. On the season ticket plan the cost is about half of what it is on the other plan. The season ticket may be used by any member of the family. Besides, the community's interest in a Chautauqua is measured largely by the season ticket sales. The Chautauqua's permanency depends on them.

UP TO YOU.

A Chautauqua pledge: I am going to start today planning for our Chautauqua, which is only a few days off. Unless I talk it up, it won't be a big thing. It'll be a fizzle. I must get every man to want to go, as I do myself. The best advertising the Chautauqua will get will be my own efforts in swelling the crowd—in urging everyone I know to "come along." I can make it the biggest event our town has known.

LACERENZA'S BAND FROM SUNNY ITALY

AND THEY CERTAINLY CAN PLAY

Have Toured the West Three Summers Filling Scores of Chautauqua Engagements—Coming Here.

The Royal Italian Guards Band, an organization similar to the one that toured the Redpath-Horner five-day Chautauqua last summer, comes from the same great band organizer, Victor

of New York, with Signor

as director. The Royal Italian Guards and Signor Lacerenza have been over the entire seven-day circuit of the Redpath-Horner Chautauquas two consecutive years. They have filled many important engagements in Italy and have been accorded high honors. They have played at royal command on several state occasions. They have since that time filled such notable engagements as those at Lakewood Inn, Lakewood, N. J., and Brighton Beach, New York.

Signor Lacerenza has been a bandmaster since he was ten years old, when he was placed at the head of the Boys' Musical College band in his native town near Naples.

The band was organized by Victor in Venice, four years ago, and this is the fourth trip to America. Their winter engagements have been almost entirely in Europe. Three years ago they made their first Chautauqua tour and they have been in Chautauqua work during the summers since that time. They will come on the last night of the Chautauqua and will be made a big climax in this great musical festival.

The band has been brought all the way from Venice, in Italy, for this ten weeks' Chautauqua engagement. It is filling a series of seventy-six engagements in towns like ours—good, prosperous towns in Kansas and Oklahoma.

CHAUTAQUA

THIS Chautauqua that you are to have here this summer is a new kind of Chautauqua.

What interest have you in Greek mythology?

None.

But you ARE interested in the business and social life of 1913—in the vital issues that affect your well-being to-day and will affect it tomorrow.

And you need the inspiration of music that stirs every mite of enthusiasm in you and that puts a new incentive into the work of every day.

Then you will like this Chautauqua—built on vastly new lines for the man fighting TODAY'S struggles and facing TOMORROW'S.

It is a grand, splendid program. You will be timid about getting into the Chautauqua habit the first day. The last night, you'll be clamoring for seats and wishing there were more Chautauqua days to come.

Get started on the opening day and you'll be glad to have missed none of it.

SO A GUNBOAT WENT MAD

How the Spaniards Took Vengeance on Moros Who Slew Swimming Soldiers.

Capt. John E. Morris, who spent a long time in the Philippines chasing the Moro, tells a story about a Spanish military governor in Jolo who, in the peace of fancy security, allowed a whole flock of his soldiers to go swimming one day.

Now, the Moro has a habit of going juramatado when the camp meeting variety of religion hits him. When a Moro goes juramatado, he takes the most disagreeable weapon he can find and carves up the first Christian he meets.

When the Moros saw the soldiers in the water several of them thought it was the very best time to go juramatado, with the result that those soldiers never went swimming any more.

The sultan who had charge of that particular bunch of Moros promptly was sent for. The Spaniard wanted to know why his men were slaughtered in such manner.

"How could I help it?" the sultan asked. "They went juramatado."

Nobody wants to interfere with anybody's religion, of course, but there was a Spanish gunboat lying around loose in that immediate vicinity. The governor sent for the commander of the gunboat.

"You haven't had much target practice lately," he remarked to the naval officer, "and you might try a little. Now, a few Moros make fair targets. When I want target practice to stop I'll run up a flag. But until the flag is run up keep at it."

It was one glorious bombardment. A lot of Moros accidentally got hit. And somehow the post flag was mislaid, so it couldn't be hoisted.

It was a most excited sultan who showed up before the Spanish governor. "If that gunboat didn't stop its nonsense he wouldn't be a sultan any longer, because he wouldn't have any subjects to sultan over. And he told the governor so.

"How can I help it?" demanded the governor with some heat. "The fool boat has gone juramatado and I can't interfere with the religion of the blame navy."—San Francisco Chronicle.

Self-Sacrifice. Mrs. Rambo—Absalom, why should anybody wish to live to be 100 years old?

Mr. Rambo—To postpone the funeral expenses as long as possible, Nancy. Even in these days it's cheaper to live than it is to die.

The Captain. "I saw a fellow call the turn on fifty men at once this morning."

"You must be mistaken."

"Not at all. He shouted, 'Column fight, hurch!'"
