

Along Route 2

Mr. and Mrs. George McFadden and daughter Ruth left Monday morning over the B. & M. for a visit in Illinois, Ohio and Michigan.

Dick Brodock was hauling corn from Loup City Tuesday.

Mrs. John Baughman, of Leigh, Nebraska, visited at the home of her sister, Mrs. Simeon Tossi, last Friday. She also visited her mother in Loup City, returning to her home this week.

Lars P. Neilson has his large granary almost completed. Vern Allman, Alfred Jorgensen and G. B. Wilkie have bought a horse-power threshing outfit and were busy the past week putting it in shape.

E. A. Brown visited his brother, Will Brown, and family the past week. Ray McCullough is driving Route 1 while Edgar Foster is taking his vacation.

Mrs. Stewart Conger and Mrs. J. W. Conger were out to Roy Conger's last Friday.

George Stork is still doing painting for Bichel.

Miss Sarah Bichel is about well again after her severe kick from a horse.

Fritz Bichel and son Henry threshed for John Peterson last Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Burt attended the K. of P. picnic at Jenner's Park last week Wednesday.

E. G. Taylor's new coal sheds are completed.

Doctors Bowman & Bowman were out on Route 2 last Saturday.

N. P. Neilson has fixed his mail box on a new post lately.

Standard Oil Steen took a load of gasoline out to Fritz Bichel's a few days ago.

Eli Fisher visited at Art Wilson's last Sunday.

Kuhl Brothers helped Gunn and Rousch drive their fat cattle to Loup City Monday.

Leroy Barr is working for Will Hawk this month.

Mrs. Rettenmyer died last Sunday night. The carrier and patrons on Route 2 sympathize with the family in their sorrow.

John Zarnek cut the weeds along the north side of his place Monday.

Fred Johnson last week traded his farm on Route 2 for a quarter section of land six miles east of Columbus, Neb., and will move there in the spring. The deal was made through Stanley Goc, of Loup City. The papers have all been made out and signed up by both parties. We shall be sorry to lose the Johnson family.

Chas. Larsen is looking after the B. & M. coal sheds while Hiram Cramer is visiting in New York.

Mr. Thornton was unloading a car of lumber the past week.

Roy Conger helped Ray McFadden put up hay the past week.

Adam Ghering was setting up a new mowing machine at his place the past week.

The wheat so far that has been threshed on Route 2 has run all the way from fifteen to twenty-five bushels to the acre, with the average close to twenty bushels. Some fields that have been stacked will go more than that.

Miss Anna Paulson visited several days at Boelus the past week.

The oats crop is making over twenty bushels to the acre.

Harold Burt is working for Harry Rutherford threshing these days.

W. H. Gunn and Jim Kousch loaded their seventy head of baby beaves at Loup City Monday and shipped them to South Omaha and if the market is not so good as they think it should be they were going on to Chicago with them. They were the finest fat cattle of their age the carrier has ever seen. Mr. Rousch went with the shipment.

Harry Rutherford broke a separator wheel Tuesday while pulling over to Frank Spotski's.

Oliver Brodock is working with the Rutherford threshing outfit these days.

Henry Beck and family were seen out on Loup City Tuesday.

Corn that was planted too thickly, or that is weedy and corn on alfalfa ground is about the only corn that has suffered during the dry spell. There are fields after fields which have not been hurt at all. Listed corn is the best on the route. There seems to be moisture in most corn fields but all corn needs a good rain. Some fields have roasting ears in them now.

Flossie Hauck Married

The following marriage announcement, received by Jay Cole a few days ago, will be of much interest to many friends of the bride here: "Mr. Fred Lee Hauck announces the marriage of his sister, Flossie Louise, to Mr. Wyman VanLiere on Thursday, the 24th day of July, 1913, Los Angeles, California." The bride will be remembered as Miss Flossie Hauck, who was formerly a Loup City girl and lived here until a few years ago, her mother being a sister of Mr. Cole. Miss Flossie is a charming girl and we believe will prove a charming wife and companion to the man of her choice.

It's a pity some white man does not get hold of the Times.

Some scientist over in New Jersey has a plan to kill mosquitos by musical vibrations. Perhaps he extracts the musical vibrations from the mosquitos, so prejudicial to good sound sleep where the pests exist, and, like some poisonous snakes, upon losing their venom, conclude to die.

President Wilson has concluded not to recognize the Huerta regime in Mexico. Now, if Huerta concludes not to recognize Wilson, honors will be even and then Edgar Howard may have a chance to head that proposed regiment to exterminate the Mex's—unless he does as Bryan did, resign his command when the fighting is about to commence.

Governor Morehead made the statement during the campaign that he would not run again for governor. Perhaps he thought it was no use, or, it may be, he really wants to go to congress, as has been whispered very loudly in the past. But he's a democrat and, like all the rest, is never satisfied to return to private life. We have one of that kind here who has proved that fact an inordinate degree.

Uncle Sam is having all kinds of trouble with Mexico and now to have the situation more complicated, Huerta, the present head of that benighted country, says he does not want any interference or mediation, while Castro, the deposed leader, has returned to Mexico and taken command of the rebel forces. Very probably Bryan will have to forego further delightful mouth work on Chautauqua circuits to attend to his legitimate work of handling the matters coming before the secretary of state. Later—Bryan has cancelled his Chautauqua dates on account of the pretising duties of his office. Heard the people kick, eh?

Ashton to Have Newspaper

We understand that Will Todd, formerly of Burwell, and brother of Mrs. F. M. Henry, of this city, is making arrangements to start a paper at Ashton. He formerly owned the Burwell Tribune and was at one time treasurer of Garfield county, of which Burwell is the county seat. Mr. Todd has some reputation as a newspaper starter, having started papers at Ohioa, Coatsfield and perhaps one or two other towns, besides two papers at Burwell, all of which, except the Burwell Tribune, lived but a short time. It is to be hoped, for Will's sake, that his Ashton venture may have more adhesiveness.

Picnic For Rural Route Patrons

Carrier James W. Conger of Route 2 will entertain his patrons on Labor Day, September 1 with a free-for-all picnic. Everything will be free except the dinner and each patron will please bring a basket well filled as you know the carrier's failing in regard to appetite.

Sherman County Institute
The Sherman County Teachers' Institute opened August 4 with a very fair enrollment for the first day. A few teachers who expect to teach in this county are attending institute in their home counties. Owing to the fact that repairs are going on at the high school building, the institute is being held at the Methodist church. The teachers very good naturedly accept any little inconveniences occasioned by lack of room, absence of desks, and the like.
The instructors are Miss Danielson, who taught in the institute here and two years ago, and Professors Bradford and Lefler, both of whom taught here in last year's institute.
Miss Danielson's helpful talks and demonstrations in primary work are always well received. The younger teachers will find her methods of especial interest to them.
Professor Bradford teaches agriculture, composition and school management. He is especially suited to handle these subjects, by both temperament and training. If sometimes his theories seem odd, they will nevertheless awaken thought in the mind of the earnest teacher. The professor is all right in institute work.
Professor Lefler, of Peru Normal teaches reading, arithmetic, civics and grammar. He does not so much show his class a point as he leads them to discover it, which is a far better way. Before the first grammar period was over he led the most of his class to see the need for more thorough preparation in that subject.
The address by Deputy State Superintendent Elliott of Lincoln, on Monday evening, received close attention from the audience present. It was earnest, practical and helpful.
Following is a list of teachers present:
LOUP CRY—Beth Sharp, Jeanette Taylor, Mary Hendrickson, Maybelle Leeper, Lila Goodwin, Mata Johnson, Vida Cowling, Rosa Critel, Lila McNulty, Klea McNulty, Winnie Gasteyer, Ida Steen, Emily Steen, Marie Gilbert, Estella Petersen, E.
