Fred Foster hauled out a load of window frames for the school house in District 78 Tuesday.

Ed Radcliffe and F. Larchick are building a school house in District 78 this week.

Luther Goodwin is improving slowly.

Route 2 got about 1 1/4 inches of rain Saturday afternoon and night.

Hans Diatz and John Peterson each hauled a load of material for the new school house Monday.

Otto Henning herded hogs to Loup City Monday.

Sarah Gray is working for J. W. Fletcher.

Carrier on Route 2 has a two-month-old colt for sale.

Robert Holmes lost a stack of grain by lightning Saturday.

Remember to put your return address on left hand corner of the letter.

You can send up to 20 pounds by parcel post after August 15.

Iver Lyne visited a dentist last Monday.

Haying and fall plowing was in full blast until the rain Tuesday night.

Henry Goodwin finished sowing 30 acres of alfalfa Wednesday night.

Jim Rousch and men hauled five loads of fat hogs to the Loup City markets last Thursday.

Mrs. Koch's boy had several head of cattle on the Loup City markets last Thursday.

Clarence Burt was busy last Thursday putting the second coat of paint on his house.

Fred Kornrumpf dug a cave for Jim Johansen last week.

Will Hawk cut the weeds along his line last Friday.

The parade will be the feature of the day at the Route 2 picnic.

Don't fail to attend the Rural Route 2 Picnic parade September first at 9 o'clock at Loup City. The parade will form at Ottenbrun's, go from there to Brown's, then up Railroad street to the square then around the square and back to Deer street then up railroad street to the park, where the fun will commence. Everyone should see this parade as there will be many funny things in it.

H. J. Scott is working for Wm. Rutherford.

Walt Fletcher has bought a pool hall and picture show at Rockville. A daughter of Mr. Scott is working for Grant Rogers on Route 1.

Hornace Casteel is working at home during his brother's absence in the east.

Steen, manager for Standard Oil, delivered two loads of gasoline to Fritz Bichel the past ten days.

Fritz Bechel has cut the weeds along his line this week.

Oliver Brodock has been on the sick list a few days this week.

Clarence Sweetland did some repair work out at Joe Roush's Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. S. A. Pratt were seen autoing toward Hazard one day last week.

Zelfa and Freddie McLaughlin of Aurora, are visiting at the W. H. McLaughlin home this week.

Miss Margaret Nielson is working at the Bob Dinsdale home this week.

Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Mickow and family were seen going west along the divide Tuesday.

A rain last Wednesday night, ranging all the way from a half to three-quarters of an inch covered the entire route, except a small strip on the extreme southeast at V. T. Westcott's and Hans Obermiller's. On Route 1 there seemed to be from three-quarters of an inch to two inches over the entire route.

The windmill on Harry Shipley's place was out of commission last Friday, breaking a shaft.

John Czarnek marketed hogs at Loup City last Saturday.

Frank Casteel cut the weeds along his south line the past week.

Jorgensen, Alleman and Wilkie threshing outfit commenced the threshing at the former's place last Friday. It seemed rather good to see a horse-power outfit in motion again.

Lightning struck a telephone post south of Casteel's Wednesday night last.

E. J. Pugsley marketed a load of hogs Monday.

John Czarnek had several stacks of wheat struck by lightning last Saturday afternoon and burned to the ground. Several more were pulled out of the way by teams.

Mrs. Hanna Sheehan, daughter of Fritz Bichel, met with a bad accident while leading a horse behind a buggy last Friday. She had the rope wrapped around her hand and tried to lower the buggy top so as to handle the horse easily. The lowering of the top frightened the horse, which lunged backward, tearing Mrs. Sheehan's thumb off close to the hand, also taking the second finger off at the first joint. It was thought for a time that she was badly injured. Drs. Bowman and Longacre were called and relieved her suffering, and at this writing is doing as well as could Omaha is always breaking in on the map. Now it is said that city is to be made a terminal distributing point for all western parcel post business. Anyway, bully for Omaha.

No. 1 of Vol. 1 of the Ashton Booster, the new paper just started by W. Z. Todd, formerly of Burwell, came to our exchange table this week dated last Friday, August 8. It's a lively little infant of eight pages of five columns each, with four of them home print. It starts out with about eight columns of home advertisements, nearly as many as shown by either of the Loup City papers, showing that the Ashton merchants are a live bunch and believe in "showing" the people they have something to sell, and want them to know it. Will Todd should be and undoubtedly is proud of the support accorded him and is to be congratulated on having such a fine lot of merchant patrons.

An Editor's Complaint
Backward, turn backward, oh time in your flight; give us a girl whose skirts are not tight; give us a girl whose charms, many or few, are not exposed by too much peek-a-boo; give us a girl, no matter what age, who won't use the street as a vaudeville stage; give us a girl not too sharply in view; dress her in skirts that the sun can't shine through.

Automobilists, Attention
Scientists announce that at last a perfect substitute for rubber has been discovered. It is made almost entirely from corn and potatoes, by a process of fermentation and chemical reaction. It is claimed that this will reduce the cost of automobile tires one-half. Now when we get a cheap substitute for gasoline the problem of locomotion will be solved.

be expected. This is the second accident in this family in 10 days.

Several loads of lumber and other material have been hauled to the new school house in the Peterson district.

Will Draper has a big job of plastering at Arcadia.

Ray Conger, Ray McFadden, and Alvin Koch started on an auto trip of 200 miles the first of the week, and expect to be back the last of this week.

W. H. Hughes was out to his son Homer's Tuesday.

Lars P. Nielson returned some lumber to Loup City Monday.

H. S. Conger and wife spent last Sunday at John Gallaway's.

Claud Burt will be on W. R. Mellor's staff at Lincoln during the State Fair week.

Harry Taylor and family spent last Sunday at Loup City.

John Peterson sold Carrier a load of hay last Saturday.

Fred Kornrumpf dug a cave for Jim Johansen last week.

Will Hank cut the weeds along his line Friday.

John Gallaway seems to have had bad luck with lightning striking his stock this year. Last Saturday night he had a two-year-old colt killed.

Route 2 was visited by a destructive wind, rain and hail storm Tuesday evening about 5 o'clock. The section that suffered most was south from the Wiggie Creek church. Three miles south of the church everything was hauled out clear to the county line. In some places the corn was so badly haled that it stands only two feet high. Alfalfa was cut off close to the ground. The hailed streak seems about two miles wide and twelve miles long. When the hail reached Chas. Snyder's place it divided, one part to the east of J. H. Burwell's, while the other went to the west of his place, and where the hail parted the wind seemed the worst, for at the home of Frank Casteel it tore the roof completely off his barn and scattered it for 200 yards north. Both chimneys were blown from his house and the coal shed, 10x15, was picked up and carried three rods, landing on several pieces of machinery and a small hog shed. The damage to his machinery will amount to a great many dollars. At the time the roof was blown away, Mr. Casteel was standing in the barn. He thought when the roof left it was his move but the storm was over about as soon as it came. Albert Snyder's wind mill blew down, Mrs. Andy Gray had a chicken house, also a corn crib, blown to pieces, and her barn is about down. At Tom McFadden's about 50 trees were blown down. Lots of fresh stacked prairie hay on Mrs. Koch's place was cut close to the ground and strewn over the fields. The Jorgenson threshing crew each had narrow escapes. Some of the loaded racks were tipped over before they could be unhitched from. Mr. Jorgensen's wheat was scattered all over the field. Chimneys on the house of Mr. Wilkie and Ola Snyder were blown off. Frank Wanner had a corn crib tore to pieces. The window lights on the south side at the homes of Frank Wagner, Clark Allman, Lars P. Wilson and others south of here were knocked out by hail. Some hail were as large as hen eggs and completely covered the ground from an inch to two inches of rain fell in this district while at Fritz Bichel's only 1-2 inch fell. Rain was very heavy from Loup City to the Wiggie Creek church. Lots of wheat stacks in the Casteel district were torn to pieces within 3 feet of the bottom. Clark Allman had a setting close to his house that was damaged worst on the Route. No hail north of Chas. Snyder's to hurt anything.

Dr. G. E. Paul Adjudged Insane

Dr. G. E. Paul, a physician of Litchfield, was brought before the board of commissioners on insanity Monday evening and after a careful hearing was committed to the dipso hospital at Lincoln.

Dr. Paul had been a practicing physician at Litchfield for the past four years and was an extreme user of liquor. Of late he had suffered under the delusion that various persons were after him to shoot or poison him, and since last Friday had become so irresponsible and demented that he had been under the constant care, day and night, of friends. His delusions becoming so alarming, he was brought over from Litchfield Monday afternoon by Marshal Robinson, accompanied by Joe Cording, Will Heapy and Chas. Potter, whose evidence, coupled with the hallucinations of the doctor before the board gave no doubt of his complete mental collapse. It is pitiful to see such a wreck of so talented a young man, and it is sincerely hoped that thorough treatment and abstinence from the habit which has overpowered and wrecked his mental and physical well being will be overcome and he be restored in perfect condition to friends and the medical profession of which he is an unusually bright member. We understand he is unmarried and without family ties in this part of the country.
