

THANKSGIVING

Will Soon be Here.

Come and Look Us Over before You Buy. CUT PRICES Still Prevail in Every Department.

Suits worth $10, $6.98
Suits worth $15, $10.98
Suits worth $20, $14.98

OTHERS PROPORTIONALLY REDUCED

Overcoats at Prices to Attract You

Few LADIES' CLOAKS Left which we will sell at wholesale Prices.

In fact everything we carry is at the lowest possible prices.

THE HUB
V. VIENER, Proprietor.
SEE ME FIRST, IT WILL PAY YOU

CUT THIS COUPON OUT, ITS MONEY TO YOU.

This Coupon Entitles you to 5 per Cent Discount on Saturday November 15, 1913 (only if presented at The Hub Clothing Store. V. VIENER, Proprietor.

LOCAL NEWS.

A good corn popper for 10c at the Ten Cent Store.

Lee brothers will deliver your meat. Phone your orders.

Good fresh candy at 10c per pound at the Ten Cent Store.

See the fine display of shell goods at the Ten Cent Store.

Three big boxes of matches for 10c at the Ten Cent Store.

100 copies of sheet music just arrived at the Ten Cent Store.

Miss Bessie Smith is visiting Miss Maggie McFadden this week.

Charley Snyder is up from Ravenna looking after his farm interests.

Woodward's Fine Candies at The Mogul Store. Joe Vaughn.

Judge Aaron Wall went to Ord Tuesday morning on legal business.

Two house brooms for 35c at The Mogul Store. Joe Vaughn.

New Line School Supplies at The Mogul Store. Joe Vaughn.

Don't miss our Saturday Special at the Mogul Store. Joe Vaughn.

If you want good, prompt draying, call on C. L. McDonald, successor to Hagood.

L. L. Smith was over from the west side Monday and gave us a fraternal call.

Geo. W. Marvel was down from Arcadia Tuesday grasping the hands of old friends.

Leave orders for the G. L. McDonald dry at either lumber yard, or at E. G. Taylor's.

Mrs. J. E. Routh returned home from her trip at Shambaugh, Iowa, last Saturday.

Albert Lynne brother of Alfred Lynne visited here last week returning home Saturday.

Do you want to make money? If so, notice the coupon attached to the Hub adv. in this week's paper.

Mrs. E. S. Hayhurst and Miss Hattie Hayhurst were passengers for Grand Island Tuesday morning.

Toys and dolls of all kinds are being received at cent Ten Store. Better come in and look them over.

Jim Cribshaw and wife and A. P. Paulsen, wife and family visited at the home of Iver Lynne Sunday.

Will Schneider left Tuesday morning for Davenport, Iowa, to visit his sister, Mrs. Emil Schnack.

Don't fail to see the coupon in the Hub advertisement in this week's paper. It means dollars and cents to you.

Buy Mogul Brand Canned Goods. Quality and quantity, at The Mogul Store. Joe Vaughn.

Mrs. Wm. Miller of Deimar, Iowa, returned home Tuesday morning after a few days' visit with Mrs. Henry M. Ellner.

J. P. Parker arrived from Crosbyton, Texas, Monday evening or this week. He is here talking up his Texas country. He will be here a week or ten days.

The Sturtevant Vacuum Cleaner, the clean way to clean. See C. R. Sweetland or phone. He has them for sale or rent.

Crown, Kimball, Price & Teeple Packard, A. B. Chase, Schaeffer, McPhail and other high grade makes of pianos to select from at Schwabers.

Why rent, when you can buy a farm with a payment of $500 and get good terms on balance? For particulars, see J. W. Dougal, Loup City, Nebr.

You can save dollars and cents by reading the coupon the Hub adv. in this week's paper. It will be worth 5 per cent to you on any purchases you make Saturday.

Mrs. Emma McCray went up into the sandhills on business yesterday to look after business. Owing to her accident of some months ago, from which she is still suffering, Hampel Jones accompanied her on her trip to attend her.

Don't forget the play of "Thelma" at the opera house next Tuesday evening, Nov. 18. This is said to be one of the best plays on the American stage today. Read what is said regarding it in another column.

Mrs. Judge Angler, accompanied by her sister, Mrs. Carrie Dickinson of La Motte, Ill., who has been here visiting for some time, left Tuesday morning for various points on the Pacific Coast for an extended visit.

Marshall Ritchey, from near Nome Alaska, visited from last Tuesday till Monday morning with his uncle W. T. Gibson, and family of this city, leaving on the latter day for a further visit with relatives in Pennsylvania before returning to Alaska.

You can count on good and substantial men taking the Northwestern. Last week we added several of these good ones, among whom were Supervisor Dan McDonald, W. J. Fisher of this city and Uncle John Youngquist of Aurora.

Frank Foss, who sometime ago went to Wisconsin to look up a location for himself and father, returned last Thursday evening, just in time to attend the wedding of his sister. Rumor has it that Frank will soon follow her example.

The case of E. G. Taylor against Wm. Elder, in which a car of oats was in question, and upon which the defendant was arrested and his preliminary trial coming before County Judge Smith on Tuesday of this week, the case was dismissed upon defendant paying for the same and costs in the case.

Clark Reynolds returned last Saturday evening from his trip to Valentine and the North Platte country, to look over the country and determine just where he wanted to take out his No. 3 chance on the government lottery. He decided to get a section of land within two miles of Valentine, adjoining the Niobrara, one of the few very backtracks in the lottery.

Upon complaint of Wm. Garnett, a member of the law and order league of Litchfield, C. A. Potter, a druggist of Litchfield, and Frank Clancy, a resident of the same village, were brought before County Judge Smith on Tuesday of this week, and the hearing continued for 30 days, until Dec. 11th. The complaint against Druggist Potter is for keeping liquors with intent to sell, without license therefor, and the complaint against Mr. Clancy is for selling liquors without license and contrary to law. It is claimed the goods were found and sold according to compliance in either case.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Bredthauer went to their old home at Scotia Tuesday noon for a short visit.

Miss Hlava, angel composer of the News at Ravenna stopped over here between trains yesterday on her way to visit friends at Sargent and favored this office with a call.

COAL! COAL! COAL! We still have some Colorado coal on hand. At the same old prices, but cannot buy more when this is sold out. Taylor's Elevator.

Supt. Currier came up the latter part of the week from the State Teachers' Association, reporting a mighty interesting session. He had been called to South Dakota by the dangerous illness of his good mother, whom he left convalescing, going from there to the association meeting before returning home.

SHERIDAN COAL gets better each year and the price is much less than most coal sells for. If you try Sheridan we guarantee it will never fill up your stove pipes. Lump $7.00, Nut $6.50, Pea $6.25 for sale at Taylor's Elevator.

"Thelma" is Coming

Thelma, is romance of the Northland, by Marie Corelli, will be presented at the Opera House Nov. 18th. This beautiful love story of "Thelma" and Sir Phillip Errington, their marriage, and the bride's unhappy life in London, and the return, heartbroken, of the snow covered home, in the mountains of Norway, followed by her husband, and their happy reconciliation, by the light of the midnight sun, is presented by Henry W. Link's company of competent artists with special scenery and electrical effects. The scenic production will be given in detail. The ship, the vision, the midnight sun, and the rainbow of death, will add great interest to the play. Prices 75, 50, 35 and children 25c.

TO ALL FORD AUTO OWNERS

I have a complete stock of Ford repairs. When in need of anything, call on A. C. Ogile.

Down in Pennsylvania the other day they postponed a hanging three hours so that the condemned man might have time to eat a big chicken dinner.

An Aid Society. Do not eat when tired. He who for a few minutes first, then when little rested the digestive organs will perform their duties much better.

ALONG ROUTE TWO

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Conger and family spent Sunday at the home of Slim Criss.

The rural carriers of Sherman county are going to meet at Loup City to organize on Thanksgiving day.

Clarence Gallaway is getting along nicely.

Luther Goodwin is slowly improving but it will be a long time before he is able to work again.

R. O. Hendrickson attended Rebeckan lodge at Loup City Wednesday.

Mrs. Henning has been quite sick the past week.

Chris Oltjenburn returned last Saturday.

Mrs. Hartwell of Austin visited school at district 37, last week.

Those receiving attendance certificates in Dist. 37 were: Margaret Nelson, Fred Ferdinand, Hans Obermiller and Willie Allemen.

Gertrude Thode is visiting at the home of her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Obermiller.

Last Sunday afternoon a crowd of the friends and neighbors of Mr. and Mrs. Kilpatrick gathered at their home prepared to celebrate their twenty-ninth wedding anniversary. The crowd was soon joined by the ones from the Sunday school and began to bring in the eats and a splendid dinner was soon spread. Mr. and Mrs. Kilpatrick were the recipients of a beautiful water a d tea set. Later in the afternoon the guests departed with many kind words for their host and hostess.

Mrs. Will Gross visited her mother at Loup City a couple of days this week.

There is to be a dance at Frank Phista on the 22nd of November.

John Shehan has been working on the road the past week.

Art Kowalewski has been working for V. T. Wescott the past summer. Fritz Bichel has been doing some splendid work on the roads.

Ernest and Ira Daddow and families took Sunday dinner with R. Holmes.

H. Jung took dinner at Frank Daddow's Sunday.

Last Friday evening the literary on the Creek was well attended, the program was fine. The debate was postponed for two weeks, on account of the absence of several of the debaters. A splendid entertainment is being prepared for the next time. Every one cordially invited.

Ladies aid meets with Mrs. Casteel next time. The ladies are planning a chicken pie supper for Thanksgiving night. Watch the paper.

Several friends of Mr. Sneider's took dinner with them Sunday.

Mrs. Will Hawk has been suffering with rheumatism the past few days.

John Burrows was out on Route 2 repairing telephone troubles last Friday.

Roy Garner came home from the Grand Island hospital Saturday feeling pretty good.

Dr. Campbell and others were seen autoring to Litchfield Saturday.

The Conner and Gallaway families surprised Mrs. H. Conger on her birthday.

ALONG ROUTE NO. ONE

Gus George is picking corn down next by the river. He says it is making forty bushels to the acre. This is the best corn the carrier has heard of on the route this year.

Frank Foss who has been in Wisconsin the past month returned home last Thursday.

Fremont Cowling visited home folks over Saturday and Sunday.

Harry Hinman and Kelly were doing some line work on the telephone west of Arnetts Wednesday.

A. S. Coppersmith fixed a rough piece of road up in good shape over east of his place.

Harvey Shipley has changed his box and put it up in fine shape now. Thanks.

James Hagar who drew claim No. 109 in the drawing at North Platte left Sunday with a bunch from Litchfield going up to look at the land and pick out their claims.

Miss Theresa Weller who is attending school in Kearney, Nebr. was visiting relatives on the creek Saturday and Sunday.

Thomas Parsley had quite a little trouble Sunday night when he was taking Winnie back to school. The tires got to leading causing them to loose quite a little time.

Chris Zwick was in town Monday and took home a load of shingles for his new barn which he has all enclosed.

John Cowling and a man working for the Standard Bridge Co. have repaired two steel bridges on the route the past week.

Quite a number of the town boys are trapping along the river this fall.

Quite a number from Route one attended the dance in town Saturday night.

ROCKVILLE

A. B. Cole of Palmer came up Friday evening to visit with his daughter Mrs. A. E. McCullough.

Fred Dunker and family spent Sunday with relatives at Loup City.

Miss Elva Teompson went to Omaha Wednesday in response to a message received from her brother, Frank who was injured in an auto accident.

George Tockey and family autored to Grand Island last Sunday to visit with relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Sebeck of Omaha came up Thursday evening to visit their sons Albert and John.

A jolly crowd of married ladies surprised Miss Olga Cords at her home, last Wednesday evening in honor of her approaching marriage. They brought with them baskets of good things to eat and left many beautiful and valuable presents as tokens of their friendship and good wishes.

A miscellaneous shower was given last Friday evening at the home of Elda Lund in honor of Miss Olga Cords whose marriage to Roy Babcock took place Tuesday November 11. The program of the evening was several good musical selections. Many beautiful presents were presented to the bride-to-be. Later in the evening light refreshments were served by the hostesses and all departed at a late hour feeling that it was good to have been there.

FOR WINTER

You will need good warm

Underwear

You can get them in all weights at

ARTHUR'S

Lost, Want or For Sale Ads

For Sale—Scotch Collies. See H. G. Hosier, or phone Red 17.

Wanted—Horses to winter at $1.50 a month. Inquire of or phone 9604. Gotlieb Aufrecht.

For Rent—Farm of 320 acres in Valley county. A. E. Charlton, Loup City, Neb., phone 9203.

Lost—$10, $5 and $1 bills Saturday, Oct. 25, somewhere between the Loup City Mercantile store and residence of Walter Waznick. Reward to finder.

Lost—Hood of auto, last Sunday, west side of river, between Loup City and Arcadia. Return same to Blaska & Waznick garage and earn suitable reward.

For Sale—Lots 1 to 5 inclusive, block 2. Also, my two lots, including store building south of court house, block 19. Write Alpha V. Zink, Merin, Oregon.

Lost—Carpenter's ladder between the residence of Wm. Engle and the home of Gene Miller in Webster township, on the evening of Oct. 21. Finder please notify the latter.

For Sale—Good 4-room house, barn and 6 good lots, two blocks from school, $1,600, will buy this property, if taken soon. $500 cash, balance in five years at 6 per cent interest. For particulars, see J. W. Dougal, Loup City, Nebr.

For Sale, Cheap

Large hard coal burner, good gas-line stove, automobile and automobile house. All in first class condition, and will sell cheap.—H. Krebs.

Legal Notice

State of Nebraska, }
County of Sherman, }
The defendants, John F. Montgomery, Mrs. Montgomery, wife of John F. Montgomery, real name unknown, J. Hugh Spivey, Mrs. Spivey, wife of J. Hugh Spivey, real name unknown, the unknown heirs and devisees of John F. Montgomery, deceased, the unknown heirs and devisees of J. Hugh Spivey, deceased, will take notice that on October 1st, 1913, Clinton C. Outhouse, plaintiff herein, filed his petition in the District Court of Sherman County, Nebraska, against said defendants, the object and prayer of which are to obtain the degree of said court, quieting and confirming the title and possession of the following described premises situated in Sherman county, Nebraska, to-wit: Lots numbered Four and Five in Block numbered Seventeen in the original town, now city, of Loup City, in the plaintiff as against each of said defendants, and perpetually enjoying said defendants and each of them from claiming any interest in said premises adverse to that of plaintiff and from in any manner interrupting plaintiff's use and enjoyment of said premises; removing the cloud upon the title to said land caused by the record of a certain deed which is recorded in Book 2 at page 421 of the deed records of said county, and which is made by Tilford M. Messick and wife to the said John F. Montgomery, purporting to convey the above described real estate to him, and for general equitable relief.

You and each of you are required to answer said petition on or before the eighth day of December, 1913.

This notice is published in pursuance of the order of said District Court made on October 21st, 1913.

Dated this 28th day of October, 1913. Clinton C. Outhouse, Plaintiff.

By R. J. Nightingale, his attorney.

Notice of Petition of Executor as to Payment of Legacies

In the County Court of Sherman County Nebraska.

In the matter of the estate of John Brown, deceased.

State of Nebraska, }
County of Sherman, }
To Hattie Smith, Walter Leitch, Mary Leitch, John E. Brown, James L. Brown, Charles S. Brown, Addison F. Brown, David Brown, and all persons interested in said estate.

You will take notice that on November 10th, 1913, David Brown, executor of the estate of John Brown, deceased, filed his petition in the county court of said county, the object and prayer of which are to obtain the degree of said court determining the persons to whom the several legacies, provided in said will, shall be paid and for an order of the court directing the payment of the same, and that the hearing upon said petition is set for the 3rd day of December, 1913, at ten o'clock in the forenoon, at the county court room in Loup City, Nebraska, and that notice of said hearing is ordered to be given by publication for three successive weeks in the Loup City Northwestern, a legal newspaper published and of general circulation in said county.

Given under my hand and the seal of said county court this tenth day of November, 1913.

E. A. SMITH, County Judge.

[SEAL] Last pub. Nov. 27.

Cure that CURE CORN

All that agony will soon be removed if you use NYAL'S LIQUID CORN REMOVER OR BLUE JAY CORN PLASTER. It is a never failing cure for corns of all kinds. We have the testimony of scores of delighted persons who have gotten rid of corn agony forever through its aid. Get it today. Price 25c

Swanson & Lofholm

MAKOWSKI & PRITCHARD

POOL HALL

Handles Cigars, Tobacco, Candy, in fact almost anything in their line you may wish, at prices as low as the lowest

Give Us A Call

Turkeys Wanted!

We will pay 16 cents per pound for Turkeys weighing 8 pounds or better. Old Toms 11 cents. This price good for this week only.

Ravenna Creamery Co.

LOUP CITY, NEBR.

LOUP CITY

STEAM LAUNDRY

Solicits Your Patronage

Family Washings Made a Specialty

Rough Dry 24c Per Dozen

E. E. McFADDEN, Propr.

Help us make the Northwestern better