

LOCAL NEWS.

Harold Hancock returned last Friday evening from a several days visit to Lincoln.

Guess the Northwestern will have to add a female gossip and scandal monger to its reportorial staff in order to keep up with the spirit of the times.

Wanted, hides and chickens at Egger's meat market. Highest market price paid for same.

Fred Richmond was among the many over from the west side as interested spectator at the State-Potter preliminary hearing.

Moncil Milburn, who has been clerking at the Oliver Mason implement house, left last week Wednesday to accept the management of an implement store at Arcadia.

Toys and dolls of all kinds are being received at cent Ten Store. Better come in and look them over.

Druggist Joe Cording was over from Litchfield last Thursday attending county court and getting points on the beauties of what he is to go up against in the near future, as his portion of the Litchfield lawing.

Bring in your chickens to Lee Bros. and receive from them the highest market price.

Jesse Fletcher is another of Sherman county's progressive young farmers who adds his name to our big list of readers. Jesse is among the lucky ones who secured a fine piece of land in Uncle Sam's recent lottery and expects to move up on his holdings in the spring.

See the advertisement of Cooper's Special Bargain Sales in this week's paper.

The mumps continue to run riot in Ravenna and there is hardly a family that is being slighted. Seems like they are making a cleanup this time, but there will be a new crop of victims next time the malady makes a visit.—News.

Boyd Burrows and his company will be here at the opera house Dec. 20.

F. W. Clancy of Litchfield was among the many who added their names to the Northwestern's list of west side readers last week, being interested in knowing the happenings of the west side especially. We acknowledge a pleasant call Friday.

For Sale—Plymouth Rock Roosters. Inquire of P. C. Parks, P. O. address Arcadia, Neb.

The Litchfield Monitor issued its boom edition last week, and Editor Rightenour is to be congratulated over his effort which has given to that village and the Monitor readers a very creditable exposition of the village and in fact a credit to the county.

The Sturtevant Vacuum Cleaner the clean way to clean. See C. R. Sweetland or phone. He has them for sale or rent.

Mrs. C. A. Potter, the charming wife of one of Litchfield's leading druggists, was an interested spectator last Thursday at the trial, in support and sympathy with her husband. The loyalty of wives and mothers is one of the grandest things of our American republic.

Lee Brothers will pay you the highest price for chickens.

There is one thing certain, and that is that we are having a generous sprinkling of Litchfieldians in our city these days, and so far as our people are concerned they are most welcome, both individually and collectively, yet just how many of them feel and talk would not look well in print.

See adv. of Cooper's special feature sale in this week's Northwestern.

Robt. Jenner returned Thursday evening from a week's visit in Omaha. Bob was there at the time of the run on the Citizens' National bank, and enjoyed the exciting times incident thereto. The run arose from an irresponsible rumor, and shows what a little thing will cause a generous scare.

See the fine display of shell goods at the Ten Cent Store.

The Northwestern has added the names of C. A. Potter and J. T. Campbell, two of the principal men in the Litchfield troubles now being aired in our courts. Naturally the gentlemen wish to keep posted on what is being done along the interesting lines furnished by that live little village, and take the best method of doing so. We acknowledge pleasant calls from both gentlemen.

Leave orders for the O. L. McDonald dray at either lumber yard, or at E. G. Taylor's.

Miss Charlotte Bushong returned last Friday evening from Edenburg, Texas, where she was called to attend the funeral of her stepfather, Rev. W. C. Miller, account of which is given in another column. On her return she was detained at Houston, Texas, for a number of days by the great floods which devastated that southland.

Three big boxes of matches for 10c at the Ten Cent Store.

ALONG ROUTE TWO

Mrs. Henning is still very poorly. John Petersen fixed a bad washout at Fritz Bichel's place Monday.

Joe Johnson has been helping Floyd Howard get his corn out this week. Lloyd Scott moved from the farm to town the past week.

Frank Casteel was painting his house Monday.

Mr. Czarnik has a new baby boy at his home, born last Thursday. Jim McBeths took dinner with Mr. Brodocks last Sunday.

H. S. Conger and wife visited their son Roy on the route last Sunday. Vern Alleman marketed hogs last Monday.

S. Yunglund and son hauled tale hay from Route 2 Monday.

Mrs. James Arret visited at the home of Gust. Yunglund Monday. Henry Goodwin and son Floyd took loads of hogs to Loup City Monday.

Don't miss the big play at Wiggle Creek literary Friday night, "Jumbo Jim," in 4 acts.

A sister of Anton and Frank Spotsanski on Route 3 has been at the point of death for some time.

Don Holmes, Ira Daddow and Fred Johnson helped Lloyd Scott move to town last week.

Ed Radcliffe and Ler Bly were doing some carpenter work on the route Monday. Ernest Iossi came up from Columbus, and was not alone, either, when he reached Loup City.

Simeon Iossi has dragged the road along his line several times the past week.

Romeo Conger and Miss Burt took dinner at the home of Roy Conger Sunday.

Arthur Rowe put new siding on part of Frank Casteel's house the past week.

Jim and Clarence Arnett and Gust Yunglund were baling hay on the Bichel land this week.

N. P. Neilson repaired the signal and painted his name on his mail box of late.

J. E. Roush has reset his mail box so it is handier for the carrier. This is something every carrier appreciates.

C. S. Morrison has shown the right spirit the past week. He has dragged all the main traveled roads in his district.

Albert Snyder, Ernest Daddow and Tom McFadden and wives did Xmas shopping in Grand Island Saturday.

Ladies Aid met with Mrs. Vergie Daddow last Thursday. The next meeting will be Jan. 8, 1914, with Mrs. Julia Howard.

Luther Goodwin is still at his brother's home on Route 2, the back of his head and neck still very sore from his accidental fall some time ago.

Mr. King, Fred Johnson and J. P. Hansen with their families, and Miss Rasmussen of Hazard, all visited Sunday with L. Hansen and family on Route 2.

The carrier has seen farmers reset small grain on account of wet weather in summer time, but never until this week have seen corn fodder reshocked on account of wet weather.

J. Plambeck and son burned the grass along the road side at his place last week. He did this to help the carrier. When the grass is burned the snow does not have anything to lodge in. It not only helps carrier, but all who travel the road.

All of Wiggle Creek with well filled baskets, swooped down on Clark Alleman and family last Friday night and gave them a glorious surprise. About 75 were present and presented Mr. Alleman with a fine Bible as a token of remembrance. All spent a very enjoyable evening but regret very much that this good family is to leave us so soon.

E. B. Corning the past week surveyed the island that lays east of B. T. Snyder's place. About 20 years ago, carrier tried to homestead this island and wrote the land department at Lincoln and found that the consent of parties laying on each side of the river opposite the island was necessary before it could be surveyed. Then it would be put up at auction and sold to the highest bidder.
