LOCAL NEWS.

George Slose of Litchfield was a Loup City visitor last Sunday.

Miss Verna Williams, grand-daughter of Mrs. Kornrumpf, who had been working at the city laundry, left Saturday morning for Council Bluffs, called there by the illness of her mother, who had or was about to undergo an operation of some kind.

Krinkle Corn Flakes are fresh, crisp, wholesome, sweet, natural corn flavor at the Mugul Store. Joe Vaughn.

R. F. Wichman of Scotia, who has charge of the excursions from these parts to Texas, took another party from Boelus and vicinity Tuesday of this week. Friend Wichman is a hustler along that line and taken at least a dozen excursion parties down into that country the past few months.

Mrs. Curry, sister of E. G. Taylor, who was here from Kansas City last week visiting him, returned home last Saturday, stopping a few days in St. Paul to visit her parents. Mrs. Taylor and Lucille accompanied her to St. Paul for a short visit.

Everybody should get acquainted with Phineas Poke, "one of the deestric school board" and proprietor of "Poke's Fine Potions" at the opera house Friday, March 20.

Frank Amick, who had been at El Paso, Texas, for the past 18 months, and who had been quite ill for some time in that country, returned home last Thursday convalescing, but it will be several weeks before his recovery will be complete.

We received a pleasant call last Thursday from Mr. Chas. H. Bacus of Litchfield who took occasion to secure a year's visits of the Northwestern to his home. Like all the best and most enterprising people of these parts he wants the paper that give all county news worth while.

Don't fail to see "What's Next" at the opera house Friday, March 20.

Bert Travis, our popular proprietor of the Ten Cent store, has traded property in Aurora to L. L. Mendenhall for the latter's new cement residence in the southeast part of the city, and expects to move into his new home about the first of next month. Mr. Mendenhall moves back to Aurora.

Rev. Elmer Wagner, pastor of the United Brethren church at Litchfield, and brother of Mrs. Ward Ver Valin of this city, preached at the Presbyterian church in this city last Sunday evening. Rev. Wagner has made many friends here on former visits and who were glad to greet him once more.

Mary Ann Fogarty, from the "Imperial Isle," always brings down the house. Don't fail to see her in What's Next at the opera house Friday, March 20.

Last Saturday morning the infant son of Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Mathew was taken to Chicago by a nurse where the little one will have an operation for a cleft palate by an eminent specialist in that city. It was expected the operation would be the first of this week and that the nurse and baby would be home within a couple of weeks.

Mrs. John Golus, who was taken to Grand Island last week Tuesday noon to be operated on for tumor in the abdomen, underwent the operation the following Wednesday, but failed to recover and her death followed on Monday of this week, the body being brought home that evening. Deceased was 54 years of age. Obituary notice later.

Don't fail to be there when Gertie Gush gets gushing at the opera house Friday, March 20.

Rev. H. Smith of Greenfield, Ills., who was here assisting in the meetings at the Baptist church, returned home during last week. He had come to look over the field with the possibility of becoming pastor of the local Baptist church. He was not offered or did not accept the pastorate. The protracted services at that church will close with this week. Three were baptised at the close of last Sunday morning's services.

President Long and Secretary Waite of the court house committee with the entire county board of supervisors went to Seward last Friday to inspect the new court house. Hiyu Aden went by way of Grand Island while the rest went by way of "dry" St. Paul. Sabbe?
