

LOUP CITY NORTHWESTERN

OFFICIAL PAPER OF SHERMAN COUNTY, NEBRASKA.

LARGEST CIRCULATION OF ANY NEWSPAPER IN SHERMAN COUNTY.

THE PAPER THAT THE PEOPLE READ

VOLUME XXXII

LOUP CITY, NEBRASKA, THURSDAY, March 26, 1914.

NUMBER 16

QUESTIONS OF NEW COURT HOUSE

The Following Legal Puts the Proposition Squarely in the Voters of Sherman County, Nebraska.

RESOLUTION, NOTICE AND PROPOSITION.

Whereas, Under the laws of the State of Nebraska...

county supervisors of the county of Sherman in the state of Nebraska...

Official Ballot for Special Bond Election

To vote for the issuance of seventy-five thousand dollars of bonds of Sherman county, Nebraska...

Against the bonds and tax...

The said ballot shall be prepared, procured and delivered to the proper election officers...

To the Legal Voters of Sherman County, Nebraska:

THIS IS HEREBY GIVEN, That at a special election to be held in said county on Tuesday, May 12th, 1914...

Shall the Board of County Supervisors of Sherman county, State of Nebraska, issue the bonds of said county...

Said court house and jail to cost not to exceed $75,000.00 completed and furnished according to plans and specifications prepared by Berlinghoff & Davis of Lincoln, Nebraska...

The said bonds to be negotiated at a sale not less than their face value. Said bonds to be sold only in amounts needed and at the times needed for the construction of said court house and jail in connection...

W. R. Mellor just couldn't stay away, and came up from Lincoln last week to be present at the K. of P. doings Wednesday evening, going back the following morning.

K. P. CELEBRATE ANNIVERSARY

Local Lodge Held Entertainment and Supper in Honor of 50th Anniversary

MUSIC "SOME CLASSY"

Last Wednesday evening, the local K. of P. lodge celebrated the golden anniversary of Pythianism with an entertainment, followed by a lap supper of two courses. The evening was very inclement, yet a goodly number of the brothers, their wives and sweethearts were present.

GREELEY MAN FOUND DEAD

Chas. Stromberg, a bachelor living north of Greeley, was found dead at his home by one of the neighbors Saturday. It was at first supposed that he had suicided but no cause could be assigned for such a deed and the general belief now is that his death was caused by the accidental discharge of a gun.

"WHAT'S NEXT" WELL RENDERED

The Ashton Dramatic Club, which gave the play "What's Next," at the opera house last Friday, far exceeded the most sanguine expectations of their Loup City friends...

Robespierre, 3-reel special shown at the opera house last Thursday night drew a good crowd who pronounced it excellent. Mr. Daddow is putting on an excellent picture service and it is highly appreciated by all patrons of that place of amusement.

OLD RESIDENT MOVES WEST

Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Nightingale Leave Today For Bellingham Washington.

RESIDENT HERE FOR THIRTY YEARS

Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Nightingale leave today for Bellingham, Wash., their future home. For a year or more Mr. Nightingale had been closing up his law practice here with a view of removing to the Pacific Coast to make their home.

PETIT JURORS APRIL TERM

The following jury has been drawn for the coming term of the district court which convenes April 7 next: Alvin Callaway, L. N. Smith, G. H. Hossler, T. R. Lay, R. E. Gilmore, Henry Dieffenbaugh, Stanley Goe, A. Hedlund, Geo. F. Lukawski, Wm. Minnie, Jos. F. Karel, Henry Hermann, Anton Dymek, Carl Farnsworth, Hans Dietz, Edward Fagen, Fred Trechmeier, John Grel-lay, Geo. F. Douglas, C. H. Kee, Roy H. Conger, G. C. Frink, Henry Apple, James Hurtye.

OUR CITY WALKS TOO NARROW

Not a few have called attention to the too narrow condition of the cement sidewalks on the main business street of our city. A business man and one of the principle merchants owning a building and doing a thriving business on said street, said to the reporter, I wish you would call public attention to the fact that the walks are at least three feet too narrow for the traffic on said street.

LAST NUMBER OF LYCEUM

The last number of the Lyceum Bureau entertainments will be given at the opera house next Tuesday evening March 31, by Alvah Green, the prince of humorists. He is said to furnish the finest fund of wit, humor and pleasantries of any entertainer on the boards today.

SEARCHING FOR WIFE AND CHILD

Garfield Errington of Ord Seeking Information Through Authorities.

MISSING SINCE DECEMBER 13

In Monday's World-Herald the following story about the disappearance of Mrs. Garfield Errington was printed: "Garfield Errington, a wealthy young farmer of Ord, Neb., is appealing to the authorities all over America to help him find his wife and 2-year-old daughter. Mrs. Jessie Errington, 28 years old, and Goldie, the little daughter, boarded a train at Ord on December 13, bound for Omaha they were going to transfer here and continue their trip to Melford, Canada, where she had relatives they intended to visit.

ITEMS OF NEWS FROM ASHTON

The members of the Home Talent Co. that played "What's Next" at Loup City Friday night speak very highly of the treatment accorded them by the Loup City people, they report an exceptionally large house, and most cordial treatment from the many people of whom they had to ask favors. Judging from the applause and the comments of the people with whom they talked believe that they succeeded in pleasing their audience.

Investigation has led to the discovery that Garfield Errington is a brother to Joe, who is well known at here and who now lives in the north part of the county, near Barwell, Garfield does not live in this county and probably never has but has been known at Barwell for years. He is far from being wealthy farmer and many who have seen him in Barwell daily of late had not known that he was concerned about his wife or child.—Ord Journal.

We, the members of the B. B. B. club wish to correct an error in Ashton's last week's items, stating that said club sang and yelled until the marshal told them to stop—night being the time to sleep, etc. This was simply a joke—some of the young men, who had no intention of sleeping for some time, told the marshal to stop us. At the time it was only 9 o'clock and part of the girls had gone home and the rest were on their way, and the noise had stopped some time before. The club will forgive the offending parties providing such thing does not occur again.—The members of the B. B. B. club.

The B. B. B. club painted the town very green every principal corner also sidewalk, were the victims this time—some class to that.—A traveling Salesman said is the graduation exercises over with—and one of the townsman said, "you are dreaming man, you get to wait till in June.—"O said the traveler, "I was judging by your walks that it was all over with." "Oh no, said the Ash-tonite "you see, we people here in Ashton graduate, at least twice a year, this time the B. B. B. club graduated.

Everyone should put their shoulder to the wheel and boost for a new court house for Sherman county. A new court house is for the good of the whole county and something that is badly needed, and when election day

On Monday of this week, John Eggers sold his meat market to his son, John Eggers, Jr., who recently arrived here from Denver. The new proprietor is a young man with all the marks of energy and progressiveness showing in his make-up and we believe he will prove a welcome addition to our business interests.

Mrs. S. A. Allen went to Omaha yesterday morning for a few days stay. Mrs. A. L. Ballinger returned home to St. Paul Monday, after a few days' visit here with her mother.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Allen from Council Bluffs arrived last Friday for a protracted visit with their son, Dr. S. A. Allen.

GEO. L. ZIGLER DIES SUDDENLY

Prominent Citizen of Logan Township Drops Dead at His Home. Funeral At Opera House Last Monday.

FIVE HUNDRED PEOPLE PAY LAST TRIBUTE

Last Friday evening, about 6 o'clock, at his home in Logan township, George L. Zigler, one of the best known and highly respected farmers of Sherman county died suddenly from a paralytic stroke. He had just driven in from the field with a load of corn fodder and had loosed the tugs when he fell at the horses heels under the front end of the wagon, where his two sons found him a few moments afterwards and carried him into the house. Thinking he had been kicked by one of the horses, Dr. Bowman was sent for who on arrival found Mr. Zigler dead, had probably died immediately where he was found. Dr. Bowman phoned to town for Dr. Main, the coroner, who found Dr. Bowman's diagnosis as coinciding with his own, and held no inquest necessary. The funeral was held at the opera house in Loup City Monday following, deceased being so well and favorably known that no church would have sufficient seating capacity to accommodate all who would wish to pay last respects to their departed neighbor, friend and brother. The funeral was held at 1 o'clock in the afternoon, fully 500 being in attendance and nearly exhausting the seating capacity of the building. The Odd Fellows, of which he was an honored member, had charge of the services, closing with ritualistic work following short talk and address by Rev. Boukouts and Dr. Sutherland of the Baptist church, after which interment was had in Evergreen cemetery. In the death of Mr. Zigler, Sherman county has lost one of her best citizens, a man highly respected by all, and one whose life was most exemplary and uplifting. In his death his family has lost a loving, devoted and affectionate husband and father; those who knew him a kind friend, and the people of the county a progressive citizen.

George Leander Zigler was born in Lorain, Stevenson county, Illinois, Oct. 24, 1862. In February, 1884, he moved to Ashland, this state, thence that fall to Marquette, Hamilton county, living there until Feb. 19, 1901, when he came to Sherman county where he lived until death. In February, 1889, he was united in wedlock to Miss Della Weaver, to whom were born two sons and four daughters, Ralph, Lee, Grace, Lila, Fay and Hazel, all of whom, with the wife, survive him. He is survived also by two brothers and one sister—J. C. Zigler of Savannah, Ills.; W. T. Zigler of Marquette, Neb., and Mrs. Katie Fullrath of Mt. Carroll, Ills. Deceased united with the U. B. church in 1894, which membership he retained until his death.

Card of Thanks We wish to express our heartfelt thanks to friends, neighbors, the brotherhoods and all who gave aid and sympathy in our deep loss of loving and devoted husband and father. Mrs. Della Zigler and Children.

rolls around Ashton should pile up a handsome majority in its favor, if this can be done Ashton will have something to which it can point with pride in future years.

The B. B. B. club were entertained at the S. S. Polski home last Tuesday evening. This club affords many glorious times to its members and all concerned.

Mr. McKline was one of the happiest men in Ashton on St. Patrick's day wearing the genuine Shamrock from Ireland in the old country.

Henry Ojendyk and Harry Lorenz the auto expert (alias) Barney Oldfield were on the go all day Monday visiting in different parts of Sherman County.

The Metropolitan Policeman, Chas. Shamrock is still wearing the smile "that won't wear off." He says wasn't that a boost they gave us in Loup City.

If anybody wants to know how batching is ask Steve Polski or Jos Hruby they can tell you how to do it in a way of cooking and frying eggs.

Jos. Jankowski, the enterprising cashier of the Ashton State Bank purchased a new Ford auto from the Ashton Auto Co., last week.

Miss A. Zochall was a St. Paul visitor last week. John Hansen and wife of Minneapolis were Ashton visitors for a few days. Miss Ina Todd left Saturday for Burwell after a few days visit with her parents and friends. Born to Mr. and Mrs. F. G. Smith, Friday, March 20th, 1914, a baby boy. Paul Chileski is remodeling his blacksmith shop for some other business. The B. B. B. club, in honor of the patron saint, painted the whole town with green paint. Mr. Golus of Loup City was an Ashton visitor, Monday. Peter Ross moved to Loup City the latter part of last week.