Not one court house in this part of the country has the ideal location for a site which Sherman county has.

Clare Kettle was up from Ashton last Saturday shipping a couple of cars of horses to Grand Island markets.

If you want a dray, phone A. L. Enderie, Black 63, or leave your order with either lumber yard or E. G. Taylor. Best of service guaranteed

O. D. Henyon has rented the Marvin Lee cottage and will move therein the first of April, Marvin moving out on his farm in Webster township.

William Root is making several changes around his home and we see that his home will show what one can do where there is ambition and effort.

Farmers—Don't forget your discs, this is the time for you to get them sharpened and A. C. Ogles is the place.

Not one county that has built a new court house but has advised Sherman county to go ahead and build one. They all say that any increased tax is more than offset by the increase in farm values.

We admit that the ladies spring hats are queer and we smile at them but, Ding Bing it they look down right nifty at that and we wouldn't change the girls one bit. 'Oh You Stick Out!'

If you want trees, plants or shrubs, or insurance of any kind call on F. E. Brewer. Phone red 60 Loup City.

Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Waite last week Wednesday evening entertained the ladies of the Entre Nous and their husbands at the Waite home a most enjoyable and novel entertainment being given.

Bert Charlton is interested in the jail department of the new court house, from which one would judge that if he becomes county judge, he will give out confining treatment to his victims.

Frank Lorchick pays the highest market price for chickens.

H. A. Woody writes from Cottonwood, Calif., enclosing a postal note for a coming year's subscription, saying, "Here's for another year, so let it come along as we cannot do without it."

Mrs. Willard Thompson and young son left Thursday morning last for Harvard, Ills., for a visit of a couple of weeks, and to bring Grandma Thompson home, she having been back there the past two years.

Frank Lorchick's meat market makes two deliveries daily—at 8 and 11 o'clock, and at 9 o'clock on Sunday. Get your orders in early.

They tell us in a near by county that those whom worked against their court-house proposition are just as keen to show visiting friends the new building as any one and some of them are honest enough to 'fess up that they are glad it was built. It will be the same way in Sherman county.

J. A. Gibson was over from Litchfield Thursday on business. Friend Gibson has it in for whoever causes the delay of the package of Northwesterns in reaching Litchfield. For instance, the Northwestern of date of March 19, which should reach there on the morning of the 20th, failed to be received till the following Tuesday, March 24. What do you know about that.

LOCAL NEWS.

E. G. Taylor has a force of men widening the mill race at its head to 80 feet across, with several thousand feet of piling to keep the sand away, the whole when finished giving all the power that can be used in the betterment of the electric light service. The improvement will cost Mr. Taylor upwards of a couple of thousand dollars.

Wanted young calves. L. N. Smith.

March did all right this year till about the 18th, when it tried to go February one better and made three or four starts towards organizing genuine blizzards during the next few days, but couldn't cut the mustard to any alarming degree. However, it succeeded far enough to make a disagreeable impression.

Wanted—To buy young calves, Call 7611. Hempel Jones.

W. O. Brown says that one of the best features he sees about a new court house is the rest room and toilet accommodations which can be provided especially for folks from out of town. Instead of hanging around some store, visitors will here find a clean, warm and private place where not only grown ups will find comfort but little tots and babies can be brushed up.
