TO THE RUNTS

In answer to your boastful article in last week's paper, we have a word to say. Of course we lost the game, according to the umpire's decision, but if you remember was considerably under weight and we claim that his judgment was warped downward. And further, we claim your team was overweight. We will take 9 men, to weight 1800 pounds or over, you to take 9 men not to weigh over 1350. Weights to be made one hour before game is called. The corpulent ones to be represented on the field of battle by an umpire of their own choosing. The runts to have the same privilege. In case of disagreement the tribunal is to be put the Hague Tribunal for their decision, which will be final. Marquis of Queensburg rules to govern, with strange hold barred. Now if you are not scared come and show us. Committee.
