LOCAL NEWS

John Eggers has had his meat shop wired for electricity and will install an electric motor to replace his gasoline engine.

There will be a special session of the grand lodge of Odd Fellows in this city on June 12. All the grand officers are expected to be present and participate in the work and there will be a number of candidates. Further particulars will be given in these columns later.

E. G. Taylor has a new Maxwell runabout, which he has got for use in traveling to and from adjoining towns looking after business, his big car being too large and bulky for that kind of work. Earl Taylor and John Blaska brought it home from Omaha, getting in here about 4 o'clock Friday morning.

Mrs. Louise Solms returned last week from her winter's sojourn in Los Angeles and her suburban cities along the coast. She reports having had a most enjoyable time. Mr. Baird, she informs us, purchased a home at Long Beach last week and will remain there with his family permanently.

Mrs. Lulu Lee-Fitzgerald arrived last Friday evening from her home at Dolores, Colorado, for a visit with her brothers and families and former friends and to attend the graduating exercises of the class of '14. Mrs. Fitzgerald has a host of friends who were pleased to greet her.

Among the number of meetings given by the booster of the court house during the campaign, none were so well attended and with such splendid attention and enthusiasm as was given by Ashton at the meeting there. Ashton village is mighty near all for the court house and at the next election we confidently expect the village and township will give a splendid majority for the new court house.

Wanted Useful Article.
A suit having been brought against a defendant, his counsel interposed a demurrer that had the effect to throw it out of court. Soon afterward the same lawyer was elected to congress, and while at his post of duty he was surprised one day to receive a letter from his former client, saying: "I am sued again. Please send me another one of them things they call demurrers."

Prepared.
"I knew you were coming tonight to call on my sister," said Willie. "How did you know?" inquired Mr. Staylate. "Because sis has been asleep all the afternoon."

Knew His Master's Politics.
During a general election in England a canvasser called at the house of the late Prof. Froude, the historian. Mr. Froude was out, so the canvasser interrogated the butler as to how Mr. Froude would vote. The butler—an old servant who understood his master well—replied: "When the liberals are sued again. Please send me another one of them things they call demurrers."

Feminine Crews.
Wellesley college teaches oarsmanship, and the eight crews take to the water in the early spring and from then on are put through severe tests in starts, blade work and finishes.

Careful Attention

To all our callers plays a wonderful part in our business. We'd rather have a man leave our store with a smile on his face without making a purchase than have a man leave with a frown after spending his money. For that reason we give every man our careful attention and we make it our aim to find out exactly what he wants and see that he gets it.

We have nothing "just as good" to offer here, no substitutes to pawn off on anyone.
