A newspaper, to avoid criticism, should be nothing, say nothing, do nothing. The live, up-to-date newspaper, is sure of plenty of fault-finding, as it tries to print all the legitimate news when it is news. Of course, the editor makes mistakes, but to our knowledge we do not know of one who deliberately invites criticism by printing the wrong thing at the wrong time or goes out of the way to print that which should not be made public. The Northwestern is the product of a mere human, full of faults, and invites its friends and patrons to advise with its editor and not wait till after the horse is stolen before attempting to lock the stable door. If you know of any matter which it were best not to publish for good sufficient reasons, talk with the editor, give cogent reasons for silence on the subject and if such reasoning is sound and good, the editor will always be found alive to the situation and you will be treated most courteously.

Wanted, the address of some one who does not know of a remedy for a punk stomach. Up to date, in the two months since the editor acquired a bad affair of the kind, possibly from living on unpaid subscription promises to this great family journal, he has accumulated 'steen hundred recipes from admiring friends and fiendish enemies, has tried one of them about every fifteen minutes or longer between trials, and at present is so muddled that his dreams are frequently of armies of people approaching him, each one with some sure cure for the dod-gasted affair. He has now concluded the only sure remedy will be a new up-to-date court house for Sherman county. Vote for it and cure a stomach trouble undoubtedly accumulated from viewing the old ram-shackle affair in the public square.

Hon. T. M. Scott, wife and two children, drove to Loup City last Friday for an over-Sunday visit with his sisters, Mrs. Kettle and Mrs. Sharp and families and renew old acquaintances, returning home in their auto Monday. Mr. Scott represented Hamilton county in the last session of the legislature in the lower house and represented it well. Although he is a democrat, he is not one of the hide-bound kind, and Republican-Hamilton showed their faith and belief in him by securing his election. He is again candidate for a seat in the lower house, and so far the republicans have put up no one against him, nor will, probably, which speaks volumes in his praise. Tad Scott seems to have the confidence of Hamilton county people of all political opinion, as was the case when he lived here.

No one ever thought there were so many democrats in the state as has been shown the past year in the rackets over postoffices and the breaking into the candidatorial field so far this spring. It is surmised, though, that those who are not up for office, or pie of some kind, or will get action along those lines soon, are mighty scarce.

There are up to the present about a dozen democratic candidates for governor, and the woods seem to be full of 'em. The situation is so acute that a big petition is out to re-nominate Gov. Morehead as his own successor, and it looks as though he would accept the situation and that his proposed candidacy for congress was a bluff.

What if Edgar Howard and Cecil Mathews should get into this fight over the Woodman insurgency and eat each other up.—The Nebraskan.

'Twould be a material blessing to all Nebraska.

Cheer up, you bald-head, fellows. Austria reports a sure method of sewing hair on shiny scalps. It is moved, second and carried unanimously that Jim Burnett be the first here to have the method tried on

Up to this writing, Little Giant Thompson has not come forward as an avowed candidate for governor, and his 'steenth defeat for some office or other.
