District court clerks of Nebraska, in appointing judges and clerks of election, may name either republicans or bull moosers, or both, as minority members of the precinct boards, under an opinion given by Attorney General Martin. The ruling, in effect, leaves it to the district court clerk of each county which party he will recognize as opposition to the democrats.

New line of Parasols detachable handles popular price at Schwaner's.

Some two or three weeks ago, the Northwestern printed an article regarding our water works system. By error of either editor or compositor, the article was made to say that the earnings were $400 yearly, when instead it should have read that the earnings were about $800, while the cost of maintaining was about $400. The error consisted in leaving out the wording between the words about, thus changing the meaning and intent.

Attractions at the Chautauqua

COMMENCING JULY 26, AND CONTINUING FIVE DAYS

DOLLIE McDONALD, READER AND PIANIST.

Dollie McDonald, reader and pianist, heads the Chautauqua Entertainers Company, the fourth day musical company that comes here Chautauqua week. Miss McDonald will be ably supported by Edith Hockerson, violinist and pianist; James Butin, whistler and bird imitator, and Edith Garten, contralto and reader. It is a delightful company you will want to hear.

H. R. M'KEAN, CHAUTAUQUA LECTURER.

The work that H. R. McKean has done in Gottry, Okla., in the building up of a great community church has attracted wide attention. In Gottry he has been preaching the gospel of a religion in everyday things and making religion and the work of the church of real, practical, everyday service to the people of the community. He will tell of this great work in his Chautauqua address on the third day of the Chautauqua.

STEWART I. LONG, CHAUTAUQUA LECTURER.

Stewart I. Long is from Indiana and one of the four big lecturers who come here Chautauqua week. The subject which he has announced is "Reaching the Goal." It is especially adapted for this Chautauqua tour and is especially suited to young people, which means that it will be of interest to every one. Mr. Long is a fine scholar and splendid orator.
