BELGIAN AMBULANCE CORPS AT THE FRONT

SOLDIER'S STORY OF BRITISH BAYONET CHARGE

London.—This grimly humorous story of a British bayonet charge, in which the Germans were stabbed in the back, was related by a wounded soldier just back from northern France: "They can stand fire, can those Germans. We were picking them off like winking, and still they came on. "It seemed as if there was an unlimited number of those soldiers, for they came, wave after wave.

DOING HER HUSBAND'S WORK

One of the brave women of Havre who has taken her husband's place as conductor of a street car while he is at the front, fighting the Germans.

England Has New War Song.

London.—All England is singing a new war song. It is by Sir Frederic Cowen and Harold Begie and makes a strong appeal for enlistment in the army. One of the verses of the song, which is entitled "Fall In," follows: How will you fare, sonny, how will you fare, In the far-off winter night, When you sit by the fire in an old man's chair, And your neighbors talk of the fight? Will you slink away, as it were from a blow, Your old head shamed and bent? Or say, "I was not with the first to go, But I went, thank God, I went!"

Prussia requires that lightning rods on government buildings shall be inspected by an expert electrician at least once a year.

More Anthrax Found.

Dr. Kigin, state veterinarian, has returned from Douglas county where he investigated a bunch of sixty-five head of cattle north of Omaha. He discovered that some of the cattle were suffering from anthrax, five of them having already died and a sixth at the point of death. About two years ago the disease prevailed in the same place, but by effective work the disease was stamped out. Dr. Kigin believes that he has the upper hand on the cases this time and that there will be no more trouble.

ONE UNI SPORT PAYS

FOOTBALL IS MONEY MAKER FOR ATHLETIC DEPARTMENT.

ANNUAL FINANCIAL REPORT

Good Showing Made by Cornhuskers at the University of Nebraska Last Year.

Lincoln.—Football is the only branch of inter-collegiate sport at the University of Nebraska that pays its own way. All other sports are money-losers and could not be maintained by the athletic department of the Cornhusker institution were it not for the profits gleaned from the game of the gridiron. These are the salient facts which stand out in the annual financial report just filed by Treasurer T. A. Williams of the university athletic board, following an audit by Prof. H. W. Caldwell, chairman of the finance committee. The treasurer's report is for the year ending September 1, 1914. It shows, in spite of the losses sustained in all sports excepting football, that Cornhusker athletics have flourished and that the treasurer had a balance on hand at the end of the year amounting to $2,094.68. The total receipts from all sources were $31,960.93 and the total expenditures were $29,289. Football receipts totalled $29,866.25, the net profit from that branch of sport being $8,355.97. Other sports resulted in the following losses: Track, $1,235.45; basketball, $231.30; wrestling, $62.74; soccer, cross country, tennis and inter-departmental baseball, $170.53.

Corporations Fail to Pay Tax.

Between 500 and 600 corporations, doing business in Nebraska, some organized in this state and others elsewhere have not paid their state occupation tax for 1914, or the added penalty for delinquency. Within another month these corporations will become liable to lose their charters if the secretary of state and the attorney general see fit to bring suits. The secretary of state has sent out notices again to all delinquent corporations. Despite the failure of a large number to pay, the corporation tax law passed by the 1913 legislature has brought in nearly $100,000 to the state.

New Motor Car Schedule.

The Union Pacific railway has filed with the railway commission a schedule on which the motor car ordered placed on the branch line of that road from Columbus to Spalding will run. The car will leave Spalding at 4:30 in the morning, arriving at Columbus at 7:30. Until the company publishes its new train schedule on the main line, local passenger No. 24 to Omaha, which arrives in Columbus at 7:13, will be held for the Spalding motor. Returning to Spalding the motor will leave Columbus at 7:10 in the afternoon and arrive at Spalding at 10 in the evening. Service will begin October 11.

Cattle Moving Lively.

The cattle movement on the Nebraska railroads is now very heavy, it began the middle of August and is expected to reach into November. The last of September and the first part of October shipments are at their highest point. Sheep from Wyoming are now moving. A Burlington official stated that the cattle shipments from the sandhills were about 10 per cent heavier than last year and from other places about the same as in 1913. A heavier shipment of sheep from Wyoming is anticipated this season.

Will Ask Legislature's Aid.

Following the decision of the state supreme court forbidding them from practicing without a regularly granted license from the state board of health members of the chiropractic profession of the state are said to be preparing to submit a bill at the next session of the legislature asking recognition of their method of healing. The matter was the subject of a law introduced at the 1912 session, but the measure did not make rapid progress.

State Treasurer's Report.

The report of State Treasurer George for the month ending September 30, shows a balance on hand in the treasury of $632,357.97, as against $684,905.56 the month previously. Expenditure amounted to $225,186.05 and receipts $202,638.46. Of the amount $9,909.94 is cash on hand, and $622,448.08 on deposit. Trust funds invested amount to $9,859,124.19.

Report on Paroled Men.

Secretary J. W. Shahan of the State Board of Charities and Corrections has sent out letters to all paroled men having paroled convicts on their hands and is beginning to receive reports called for asking for the condition and behavior of the paroled men. In every case so far, with one exception, the men are feeling well satisfied and are doing well. The exception is a young man who seems to be possessed of a roving disposition, and it keeps his employer busy encouraging him to stay until his time is out.

Thrown from his auto when it became unmanageable on a hill, William McGimpsey, who resides near Osceola, was seriously injured. Glaring auto headlights will not be allowed on the streets of Omaha after October 12. The ordinance requiring dimmed headlights on all automobiles becomes effective on that day. Frank J. Polzkill, who on the evening of September 24 shot W. W. Thomas at Stapleton, was exonerated from a felonious charge by a coroner's jury as having committed the deed in self-defense. Citizens of Lincoln are perfecting plans to raise $100,000 for the St. Elizabeth's hospital. Eighty dollars cash was taken from the safe in Schmitz & Deines drug store at Hastings by thieves who worked the safe combination after entering the door with a key. The annual colt show was held at Morefield, when something over forty fine colts were placed on exhibition. The principal premiums were offered by Austin Hill, Professor Hall of the Curtis agricultural college acted as judge. The showing attracted a large crowd and much interest.

Two of a Kind. Senator Works of California never liked the study of mathematics in his school days. Arithmetic used to make his life a burden to him. One afternoon as he was riding home on the car he happened to get a seat next to a little chap who was taking home some school books for study. One was an arithmetic. "Do you like arithmetic?" asked the senator, sympathetically. "Naw, I hate it," replied the boy. "Put her there," suggested Works, offering his hand.

His Insulting Inference. "Why did you quarrel with your husband?" "He said I was positively ugly." "How did he come to use such language?" "He did not use those exact words, but he said that if I was to murder any one I would be found guilty."

TOOK BISHOP AT HIS WORD

Bishop Brindle, the well-known English clergyman, sometimes tells this story against himself. Dining at Sir Evelyn Wood's he narrated the old story of the small boy who, going to a party, was instructed to refuse cake, as he had not been very well. "But suppose they ask me again, mummy?" he said. "Oh, you must still say, 'No, thank you.'" "And if they ask me again?" "Oh, they wouldn't be so rude as to do that. Now, it is time you were off." The small boy returned home in tears. Asked what had happened, he replied: "Well, mummy, they asked me to have cake, and I said, 'No thank you'; and they asked me again, and I said, 'No, thank you'; and then they asked me again, and I said just like daddy says, 'Take the dam thing away!'"

ECZEMA ON CHILD'S BODY

570 High St., Oshkosh, Wis.—"When about two months old my nephew had sores break out on different parts of his body. The trouble first began as a rash which itched so at night some one always held his hands, even while sleeping, as at the least scratching it would run together and form scabs. His night-clothes had to have mittens on them or the sores would be raw and bleeding by morning. His clothing or the least friction irritated the trouble. His face and scalp were covered. They called it eczema. "We tried different treatments but none cured him. At three years old we commenced the use of Cuticura Soap and Ointment. It took nearly a year to effect a complete cure and he never had anything like it since." (Signed) Mrs. F. Scofield, Mar. 21, 1914.
