Lou Schwaner was in town over Sunday, returning Monday to his home at Loup City. His wife will remain until the close of the revival services at the Methodist church. She has charge of the singing during the meetings.—Ord Quiz.

The price of cattle is steadily declining and hogs are going down with them, just at a time when the prices ought to be soaring. The democrats tell you that it is no fault of the administration, but when you know that hundreds of thousands of men are out of work, as they always are under a democratic national policy, the reason of the slump is plain enough to see, and the reason is not far from the democratic government. It costs the United States untold millions in the value of farm products alone to let the democrats have the offices of the government for a term of four years.—Ord Quiz.

Here's something that may not have occurred to you: If Belgium had played on the square with Germany she would now be enjoying all of her usual comforts and the war would probably be ancient history. Sure thing, we are neutral but, as between the Germans who are, and always have been, satisfied to attend to their own business and let the affairs of the United States alone, and the English who are forever involved in trouble with some other country we are strong for the—pardon us, we nearly forgot that we are neutral.—Clay Center Sun.

Daily the selling price of wheat mounts higher; the price of flour goes up with the wheat, and the price of bread follows flour. This is a natural outcome of conditions incident to the war in Europe, and is part of the penalty the world must pay because of that war. The independence of the world was never better or more forcibly shown than it has been since the armies of Europe began the march of destruction that still proceeds. While the United States is strictly neutral, it has already felt the shock of war in disturbed business, and in increased taxation, and now is asked to pay another installment on the total cost in the form of higher prices for foodstuffs.

Just another exemplification of one of the many arguments that support the sanity of a world-peace movement—Omaha Bee.

Ownership of Sherman County Homes

The United States Census Department at Washington has just issued a bulletin dealing with the ownership of Sherman county homes. The important facts contained in the bulletin relating to this county are as follows: There are 1788 homes in Sherman county. Of this number 1221 are farm homes. Of these homes 369 are owned by their occupants and are free of mortgaged incumbrance. The mortgaged farm homes number 400. Renters occupy 452 farm homes in this county.

Out of a total of 1788 homes in the county 551 are urban homes. There are 320 urban home owners in the county. Of this number 43 are mortgaged, 274 owned homes are free from encumbrance. There 207 rented urban homes in the county.

The census enumerators were unable to secure data pertaining to the ownership of a small percentage of both the rural and urban homes in this county.

Sure to Grow in Unpopularity

The democratic administration is certain to grow in unpopularity. It has decided to try to make postmasters work. This is so remarkable a change from past conditions that we have no doubt but that a revolution will result. The plan to be attempted contemplates dispensing with the assistant postmaster. This will throw upon the chief of the office burdens and responsibilities that have been absent. Here and there of course a postmaster of the presidential class does a lot of work. In most cases, however, the postoffice has been utilized to reward faithful party workers. Instead of being a substitute for the job they were holding at the time of their appointment, it was an added income with little work attached. This is one of the reasons why the postoffice department has not been the glittering success it might have been. We have appointed postmasters to hold the title and wear the honors and then named assistants to do the work. By following this policy it has cost us mere, but it has enabled us to secure for postmasters men who would not have accepted the position if it interfered with their private business. Still, we are hoping that the department will be successful in inaugurating the new regime. The present system being carefully built up by the politicians, it is a little remarkable that it is now to be torn down by other politicians, but that seems to be about the only way to bring about reform.—Lincoln News.

We Stole This.

"Stationery printed at this office is giving the best satisfaction. Last week we printed 500 statements for a man, and by their aid he collected a small fortune. Two months ago a man bought of us some note paper and envelopes to use when writing to his sweetheart, and now he is married. Another man forged a name on a check printed at this office and is now in jail. Another stole some of our paper with which he made cigarettes—he is dead. A young lady bought some of our paper to curl her hair on, and now she has a beau. (We have only a little of this kind left.) By using our statements a person can collect old accounts, tell fortunes, cause rain, change the color of the hair, have teeth extracted without pain, find out the name of your future wife or husband, be successful in business, and get elected to office. Give us a call."
