We learn that A. N. Conklin of St. Paul, is home from Excelsior Springs much improved by his stay there, and that he has received the appointment as postmaster of St. Paul. Furthermore, we hear that Abe has accepted the challenge issued by Friend Mulick for a footrace to be held at Jenner's Park on next opening day, the purse being for $500 a side. As the Northwestern was never known to go back on a home man, we propose to be in Mike's corner, even if we do think Abe may lay it all over him, unless "Dad" immediately hikes for the springs and goes into training as Uncle Abe has done.

C. C. Cooper goes to Fort Dodge this week Saturday on a few days' business trip.

In the amusement programs of the 1915 State fairs and expositions, peace and prosperity will be emphasized in every possible way if plans outlined by William R. Mellor are carried out. Mr. Mellor, who is secretary of the Nebraska State Fair, was elected president of the American Association of Fairs and Expositions at the meeting held in Chicago last December. Patrons of the State fairs demand the latest in the way of amusements. There must be genuine thrills. Also the amusement features must be clean and wholesome. These demands make the selection of the attractions a difficult and important matter.

Mr. Mellor was one of the first State fair officials to advocate the educational mission of State fairs. He was born in Porter County, Ind., five miles southwest of Michigan City, June 16, 1860. As clerk in a dry-goods store, traveling salesman, merchant and real estate dealer he received a practical business education. In 1885 he homesteaded on a quarter section of land near Loup City, Nebr., where he has since maintained his residence. He studied law and was admitted to the bar in 1894. He was elected a member of the Nebraska State Board of Agriculture in 1898, has served on the board of managers, was president two terms, and has been secretary since 1906.—New York Clipper.

O. P. Gilmore came down from his Austin home Friday, to spend a few days visiting with his parents Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Gilmore, in this city, and his sister, Mrs. J. F. McCracken, residing southwest of this city. He has been farming for himself, but he decided to quit. He was playing the bachelor act last year and that, together with farming, did not appeal to him, so he held a big public sale on Feb. 22d, and disposed of his personal effects and in the future he will not do any farming for himself while he is compelled to do the bachelor's stunt. Here, girls, is a good opportunity of playing the "back to the farm" act.—St. Paul Press.

Stationery, tablets, and school supplies at Joe Vaughn's.

A few remarks against the use of slang, composed by our office "angel." "If there is anything that gets our Goat it is the use of slang. Some guys spill so much of that kind of dope that it is hard to get wise to their spiel. Kids should be put next by their parents that slang is on the Fritz and should ought to be cut out. If I had a kid that couldn't put over straight stuff I would wallop the lining out of the lobster. Skirts are shines, proper, when it comes to slang. They think that mercy, and I should say not are real tough. The Boss is a dish of prunes when it comes to slang. He bawls me out to a fare ye well and I am in Dutch from the time I come on the job till haying time in the evening. This is the first thing I have ever wrote and if it don't show up in the rag I will know it is a flivver proper.

Will Schlote Tuesday, on a wager, with a single team, hauled 4220 pounds of alfalfa to town from Pete Larsen's. To those acquainted with roads and conditions no comment is necessary.

The 1915 class of the local high school have bought their graduating printing from a Lincoln concern. We presume this same firm will gladly furnish them all the free advertising they may desire for any entertainment they may wish brought to the attention of the public and will also spring the usual amount of gush over the splendid manner in which Miss Dolly Dimple handled the profound subject of "Beyond the Alps, Lies Italy," and the scathing denunciation of present day methods delivered by our young silvertongue, Bill Simpkins, in his Ciceroic handling of the subject "Ponderous Piffle."—Clay County Sun.

OVERDRAFTS

The Comptroller of the Currency, at Washington, D. C., has issued instructions to all National Banks to positively discontinue the practice of allowing overdrafts, and has asked the co-operation of all the State Banks to that end.

We will obey this order, same as we have always obeyed all laws and orders of the Federal Banking Department, and know that our customers will not expect us to do otherwise.

In compliance with above order, and for the following reasons, on and after April 1st, next, we will cash no checks on overdrawn accounts.

1st. The elimination of the overdraft practice will in reality work no hardship on any one. It will not mean a dollar less credit to the bank's customers, but only that they will have to keep what credit they need in the form of a note, instead of part overdraft and part note.

2nd. While the overdraft is used in most instances as a matter of mere temporary accommodation, and with the best of intention, it is in some instances used to obtain, or try to obtain, credit that could not be arranged for in the regular way, which is a source of annoyance to both bank and to the customer who presents a check on which the bank refuses payment.

3rd. The check is almost universally used now days, very little actual money is handled any more in settling accounts and the check as one of the greatest conveniences of our day should be made as reliable as the actual money itself.

4th. Both the National and State Departments prohibit the payment of checks on overdrafts.

5th. The officer of a bank that pays a check on an overdraft is personally liable under both the National and State Banking Laws.

6th. It is not considered good or conservative banking to allow overdrafts.

7th. This notice is issued in strict compliance with the law and we ask for your most hearty and pleasant co-operation in assisting us to obey the Banking Laws under which we are doing a Banking Business.

Spring Time Soon Here.

Let us set aside in our minds events like the hubbub in Europe, and the thoughts of the hardships we have endured this winter, they are not good for us. The time has come to fill our hearts with the good things we are going to do this spring. This is a good country we are living in, and we really have nothing to worry about. The Northwestern is like its readers, well satisfied, and in order to further the spring time activities, we are making an extra effort to fill our fashion and farm departments with the timeliest of hints each week. Our inside pages contain much good reading material that should not be overlooked.

Send News Items to The Northwestern.

This paper belongs to you, Mr. and Mrs. Subscriber, just as well as to the publisher. You want it to be a newsy one, of course. You can help make it so. Every reader should be a reporter, at least to the extent of reporting the news he knows concerning his own family and friends. You perhaps have wondered how we gather so much news for every issue. If every reader would give us the items he knows, we would make it twice as newsy as it now is. Merely paying for the paper and taking what we give you is not enough. Other readers would be interested in learning the news you know. You'll enjoy seeing it in print, yourself. If you do not acquaint us with the items you know of, you cannot find fault with the paper for not containing them. If you think for one minute, right now, several items will come to your mind. What if they are but "personals." We want personals. We want anything that is news. Take a livelier interest in your paper. You'll appreciate it more, as will all of your friends.

Our Odd Fellow brothers of the Encampment and Cantons Tuesday night installed the following officers for the ensuing year, closing with a feast of oysters, sandwiches and coffee, with that chief of caterers on such occasions, S. F. Reynolds, in charge of the eats, we have no doubt. Encampment—O. F. Petersen, grand patriarch; A. B. Outhouse, Senior Warden; R. D. Hendrickson, Junior Warden; T. R. Lay, Scribe, and J. A. Reiman, High Priest. Cantons—O. F. Petersen, Commandant; T. R. Lay, Lieutenant; A. B. Outhouse, Clerk; J. H. Lee, Treasurer.

Mrs. Wm. Rettenmayer received the sad news Tuesday of this week, of the death of her father, Mr. Chas. Reidel, at Goldfield, Oregon, the day previous. Deceased had been in feeble health for a long time. He will be well remembered by all our older citizens as formerly of this county. Our people will deeply sympathize with the daughters over their irreparable loss of a loving father.

OBITUARY

Mr. Herman Sperling passed away on the 17th day of March, 1915, at the age of 52 years, 11 months and 17 days. Mr. Herman Sperling was born in East Prussia, Germany, Dorf Gumbinchen, on the 26th day of March, 1863. Came with his parents to America in the year of 1873, landing in New York. From there with his parents they moved to Pittsburg, Penn., living there five years. From there he moved with his parents to Sherman County, Nebr., where they settled on a homestead one half mile east of his present home.

In the year of 1890, on the 26th day of March, he was united in marriage to Miss Mary M. Manchester of Davis Creek. After his marriage he moved right to his farm six miles north of Ashton, Nebr. To this union nine children were born, five girls and four boys, leaving the youngest child six years old. The oldest daughter Dora is married to Mr. Murray Rich of North Loup, Nebr. He leaves to mourn his loss, a wife, nine children, one granddaughter, two sisters and two brothers. One sister and brother of Cestos, Okla., one sister of Ravenna, Nebr., and one brother of Arlington, Nebr. Funeral services were held from the home on Saturday, March 20, 1915, Rev. Christ officiating, assisted by the male quartet of the M. E. Church of North Loup. The body was laid to rest in the North Loup cemetery.

CIRCLE TOURS TO THE PACIFIC COAST

In planning "The Perfect Coast Tour" or the "See America Tour," Scenic Colorado is of first importance. No coast tourist could afford to say that he had not included "Scenic Colorado" either one way or the other in this world's greatest rail journey. Go one way via Seattle, Portland, and during the season visit either Glacier or Yellowstone National Park. Link together these scenic routes with the Ocean Coast voyage between San Francisco and Portland.

Through the season, various publications, special folders and the like will be available, descriptive of the Burlington circuit rates and through service routes.

"No, dearest," answered the duke de Rages et Patchez, "but I don't hold it against you."—Baltimore American.

Friday and Saturday of this week will be the opening days for Mrs. Pritchard's new spring millinery stock. She has the latest and most up-to-date creations along millinery lines. She invites all the ladies to be present.

HERE ARE SNAPS

If you have not made your arrangements for the coming season, we can sell you a good farm improved, with good new house and barn, good well and windmill, plenty of water, fenced and cross-fenced, nice field of alfalfa, good soil, and within 2 1/2 miles of a good town. You can pay $2,500 when you make deal and the balance can be secured on the land for a term of years at 6 per cent interest. This is a good home farm and one that you will be proud to own and it will enable you to pay the balance of the purchase price out of the crops it will grow. If you are interested come in and talk it over, as possession can be had at once.

We also have a seven room house and good barn for rent, plenty of room for garden or chickens.
