Considerable damage was done by hail in the east part of the county last week, and in a great many cases the losers carried insurance. Another bad wind storm damaged some trees here last Saturday night, and also frightened a number of people, as the storm for a while threatened to assume the proportions of the one the week before. The ground is thoroughly saturated with water, as three rains a week has been the average for about six weeks.

The remonstrators who had entered an exception to the issuance of a saloon license at Schaupps and having ten days in which to file an appeal and bonds for the costs withdrew their motion Saturday, which left Mr. Oltman with the choice of opening up the saloon at once, which he did. We are informed that the village of Schaupps will endeavor to have the postoffice that was discontinued there reinstated, as they don't like the idea of getting their mail on a rural route.

If you care to take a look around you will find that the shrewdest, and smartest, and thriftiest people in this whole community are invariably subscribers to this paper. The information and opportunities gleaned from its advertising and news columns have had no small part in their success, and any one of them would doubtless tell you that the paper has been of such value to them that it has paid for its cost many times over.
