Berlin. - The German war loan raised September 21 is the largest financial operation in the world's history, said Dr. Karl Helfferich, secretary of the imperial treasury, to the Associated Press. With a total of twelve billion marks ($3,000,000,000) and some small sums not yet reported, the secretary said it exceeds Great age. Britain's last loan, which attracted much attention all over the world as an unprecedented piece of financiering. "The present loan," Dr. Helfferich continued, "enables the government to liquidate treasury bills taken over by the Reichsbank and other banks, provides Germany with money for the winter campaign and renders unnecessary the raising of another loan before March. England hitherto has raised $4,062,500,000 and Germany $6,250,000,000 in long term loans, whereas England's war expenditures up to the present time are hardly less than Germany's and soon will exceed Germany's for England is now spending nearly £5,000,000 ($25,000,000) daily against Germany's not much above £3,000,000 ($15,is spending 25 cents per capita daily and England 55 cents.
