BLAME CONDITION OF MIND

John Bunyan a Man Whom Fate Had Singled Out as a Confirmed Hypochondriac.

In the autobiography entitled, "Grace Abounding Unto the Chief of Sinners," is contained the most vivid picture extant of a hypochondriac. It is a record of the feeling of "God's poor servant, John Bunyan," as the author styles himself. The plain tale of his unhappiness, from boyhood up to his imprisonment in Bedford jail, is explanatory of many passages in his pretentious work, the "Pilgrim's Progress," which did not harmonize with the psychological experiences of normally constituted Christians.

In this connection attention is especially directed to the Slough of Despond, the man in the iron cage, the description of Doubting Castle, Mrs. Diligencia, and Giant Despair. Bunyan says in words which naturally break into poetic rhythm: "I be-

Yankee Ingenuity.
An American inventor has contrived an aluminum framework which, on being fastened over a bolt of cloth, shows the effect of a finished suit of clothes. The wire frame carries outlines of arms, lapels, collar, etc., and molds the cloth to the proper shape without injuring it in the least. The frame may readily be detached and tried on another piece of cloth until the customer's fancy is suited.

Timed.
"I found out about Jinks' hurry to get off; there was a woman in the case."
"You don't say so?"
"I saw his wife's picture in his watch."

His Object.
"Do you want to cash the check?" asked the polite bank cashier to the man rushing up.
"No, I don't," cried the man. "I want to get ahead of a swindler and check the cash."

held the condition of dog and lead, and counted the estate of everything that God had made far better than this dreadful state of mind." No normal individual ever felt like that; but to the hypochondriac, alone in creation, no past, no future, can be so bad as the present.—Dr. Howard D. King, in New York Medical Journal.

Feel All Used Up?

Does your back ache constantly? Do you have sharp twinges when stooping or lifting? Do you feel all used up—as if you could just go no further?
Kidney weakness brings great discomfort. What with backache, headache, dizziness and urinary disturbances it is no wonder one feels all used up.
Doan's Kidney Pills have cured thousands of just such cases. It's the best recommended special kidney remedy.

A Nebraska Case

"Every Picture Tells a Story." Mrs. Robert Clark, Chestnut St., North Bend, Neb., says: "I suffered almost constantly from a dull, heavy pain in my shoulders, along with a tired feeling. I had headaches and dizzy spells and was afraid to walk across the floor. I felt restless and nervous and my kidneys were in bad shape. Doan's Kidney Pills gave me the first relief I had received and continued use restored me to good health."

Tap, Tap.
Son was showing the old folk from up country through the financial district.

"The street we just passed is Cedar and this is Pine," said the son guide. "You see, everybody wants to knock wood before he reaches Wall street."

Careful Listener.
"I haven't heard a speech in many a day that impressed me the way yours did," said the studious-looking man.
"I presume that is intended for a compliment," replied the beaming orator.
"Yes, sir. I took down 50 words I didn't know the meaning of and you must have used at least 50 more."

MERELY A SMALL MATTER

Mr. and Mrs. Hy Geer Really Had No Need to Worry—Their Precious Car Was Safe.
About two o'clock last night Mr. and Mrs. Hy Geer were awakened by a mysterious noise.
"Listen!" said Hy, and they sat up in the dark.
"Somebody's breaking into the garage," Mrs. Geer whispered.
"I'll go and see," answered Hy.
In dressing gown and slippers he stole out of the house and across the lawn.
The garage doors were locked. There was no sign of anything wrong. He returned to the house and reported.
"I wonder what it could have been," said Mrs. Geer. "I'm sure I heard something."
"So did I," said Hy; "but the car's all right."
They were almost asleep, when suddenly Mrs. Geer roused with a start. "Perhaps it isn't the car at all," said she. "Perhaps it's baby."
"By George, I never thought of him!" replied Mr. Geer.
They found that their six-month-old son had fallen out of his crib.

Good News for Hungry Man.

They had been settled in their spick and span new home just one week, and on the Saturday Reginald rushed home eagerly from his office.
Ermentrude met him on the door step, her face wreathed in smiles.
"Oh, ducksey," she gurgled, "wifey has made you something awfully nice and special for your dinner today! Guess!"
Reginald, who liked good things to eat, reeled off a list of about fifty of his favorite dishes. Then he paused in dismay. His precious Ernie was weeping.
"W-w-hat's the matter?" he gasped.
"O-o-o-h!" she sobbed, as she threw herself on his neck. "My h-heart is broken. I—I thought you'd guess straight off that I'd m-m-made some b-b-butterscotch?"

How the Fight Started.

A man went into a local hardware store Saturday and said, "I want to buy a saw," relates the Cedarvale County Limer. The merchant showed him one and he said, "How much is it?" The merchant replied, "$1.50." The customer said, "I can buy the same saw from Hoopempucky & Co. for $1.35." Mr. Hardware man said, "I will sell you that saw at Hoopempucky's terms." The customer gave the merchant $1.35. "Now," the hardware man replied, "Give me twenty-five cents for express charges, five cents for money order and two cents for a stamp." The customer forked over the money. Mr. Merchant hung the saw back on the hook and said, "Now wait ten days until you get it."

"Are you not afraid that moths will get in the house, now that your women-folk are away?"
"Oh, I suppose they will, but I'll give 'em a warm reception. I've got four quarts of moth balls piled on the dining room table, and if a moth shows above the trenches I'll start a bombardment and keep it up all the evening, but I'll force the moth to surrender."

Would Be Worth While.

Two Irishmen were walking into Dublin from one of the outlying villages and fell to discussing the war and the consequent increase in the cost of living.
"But have ye heard the latest news?" says Tim.
"No," says Pat. "Phwat is it?"
"There's a penny off the loaf."

WAS MISERABLE COULDN'T STAND

Testifies She Was Restored to Health by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Lackawanna, N. Y.—"After my first child was born I felt very miserable and could not stand on my feet. My sister-in-law wished me to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and my nerves became firm, appetite good, step elastic, and I lost that weak, tired feeling. That was six years ago and I have had three fine healthy children since. For female troubles I always take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and it works like a charm. I do all my own work."—Mrs. A. F. KREAMER, 1574 Electric Avenue, Lackawanna, N. Y.

The success of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, made from roots and herbs, is unparalleled. It may be used with perfect confidence by women who suffer from displacements, inflammation, ulceration, tumors, irregularities, periodic pains, backache, bearing-down feeling, flatulency, indigestion, dizziness, or nervous prostration. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is the standard remedy for female ills.

Women who suffer from those distressing ills peculiar to their sex should be convinced of the ability of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound to restore their health by the many genuine and truthful testimonials we are constantly publishing in the newspapers.

If you want special advice write to Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co. (confidential) Lynn, Mass. Your letter will be opened, read and answered by a woman and held in strict confidence.

NOTHING TO WORRY ABOUT

Little Jimmy's Explanation of the Perspiration No Doubt Satisfied His Fond Mother.

Senator Clarence D. Clark of Wyoming smiled the other day when reference was made to the bright sayings of the kiddie folk. He said he was reminded of a small party named Jimmy.
One afternoon little Jimmy had been playing rather strenuously in the street. When he returned to his happy home he had an overheated look.
"Jimmy," exclaimed his mother on seeing the youngster, "come here a moment."
"Yes, ma'am," obeyed Jimmy, quickly hustling to his mother's side.
"What in the world have you been doing?" demanded the fond parent. "Your head is all perspiration."
"That's all right, mamma," was the indifferent response of Jimmy. "My roof leaks."

Sad Omission.

Dorothy was so homesick at her first party that the hostess' mother suggested that it would be better for her to go home. Dorothy gladly accepted the idea, but a few minutes later, answering a timid knock at the door, the hostess' mother found Dorothy bathed in tears.

"Well, Dorothy, I am glad to see you again. Did you decide to come back?"
"No, m'm. I f-forgot t-to say I had such a nice time!"—Christian Register.

"DEAR MOTHER:— A good thing to send would be a package of Grape-Nuts, or something of that kind that is not expensive or heavy and is of good food value. Your son, WILL."

From a Canadian soldier at the battle front; reprinted from the Renfrew (Ont.) Journal.

Wherever hardships are endured, wherever big deeds are accomplished, there a food is demanded that provides maximum of value in brain- and body-building material with minimum of bulk.

In this respect no other food equals

Grape-Nuts

In building the Panama Canal thousands of brain workers as well as brawn workers kept themselves fit and in trim by eating Grape-Nuts dry from the package.

Not only does Grape-Nuts supply all the brain- and bone-building, nerve- and muscle-making elements of choicest wheat but also the rich nutriment of malted barley.

Grape-Nuts is highly concentrated nourishment in compact form—always ready, crisp and delicious—thoroughly baked and packaged to keep indefinitely, anywhere.

Wherever time is precious and sound nourishment vital you'll find Grape-Nuts.
