After a Strenuous Christmas Day

Greetings

To Our Patrons and Friends:

In plain and simple language and with In plain and simple language each word pregnant with truth and sincerity, we offer you the compliments of the season and tender you our thanks for your goodness to us during the past nine months.

Your support has been generous to a degree, even beyond our fondest expectations and your many kind words conveyed to us have been an inspiration and have served as an impetus in many weary hours of toil.

Again we greet you, and express the wish that the new year about to be born may be one of great prosperity, contentment and happiness to you and to those who are dear to you.

> Sincerely yours, CHIPMAN & HARTMAN.

LOUP CITY EVENTS

Daily sells for less.

Try Chase's first-it pays.

Mrs. D. B. Carpenter visited over Sunday with friends at Austin.

Ira Hiddleson was a business pas enger to Rockville Thursday.

Roy V. Kelly is spending he holidays with his parents at Cozad.

R. P. Starr was a business passenger to Comstock Monday evening.

Miss Caroline Amick visited with friends at St. Paul last Saturday.

Fresh lettuce and radishes and other vegetables at Pritschau's.

Miss Mary Reiman spent the day visiting with friends at Boelus Mon-

Miss Grace Fawthrop is spending he holidays with her parents at Hast-

Judge Aaron Wall was transacting business at Grand Island last

Mable McFadden ca from Austin. Friday, for a short visit with friends. Mrs Lula Burke and Miss Margaret

McFadden returned to their homes at Austin Saturday. Miss Anna Maciejewski came up from Ashton last Friday to visit with her sister, Miss Helen Maciejewski.

Miss Elnora Remy returned o her home at Grand Island Monday to spend the holidays with home folks.

Miss Segrid Rasmussen was a passenger to Rockville Saturday to spend the holidays with her parents.

Miss Nellie Grierson returned to her home at Ansley, Nebr., Saturday to spend Chrismas with her parents.

Miss Meroe Outhouse came home from Spencer, Nebr., Saturday, to visit over the holidays with her par-

Mrs. Edward Oltman came up from Schaupps Friday evening and visited till Saturday with relatives and many

Mrs. J. E. Scott went to Moberly, Mo., Monday where she will spend the holidays visiting with relatives

Miss Katie Michalski was a passenger to Austin Saturday and spent unday with her sister, Mrs. John bmbowski.

Daily sells for less.

Try Chase's first-it pays.

E. B. Corning returned home from Lincoln Monday evening where he has been in attendance at the surveyor's convention.

The Misses Grace and Mable Lang were passengers to Lincoln Saurday morning to visit over the holidays with their parents.

Miss Laura Weiss, who has been here visiting at the home of Miss Emma Rowe, returned to her home at Shelton last Thursday. Forest Larson came home from the university Friday evening to visit over the holidays with his parents Mr. and Mrs. William Larson.

William Larson, and son, William Jr., reutrned home from Aurora Monday evening, where they had been on business and pleasure combined.

R. H. Mathew transacted business at Grand Island last Friday, returning in the evening, going from Fritz Leschinsky came home last Friday evening from Lincoln where he is attending the University, to spend the holidays with home folks morning for Danville, Kentucky, to spend Christmas with relatives.

J. W. Long and two children, John and Margaret, left - last Saturday

Mrs. Jack Rightnour and daughter, Ada, returned to their home at Litchfield Saturday morning after attend ing the funeral here of W. J. Fisher.

Neoma and Paul Tockey, who have been here visiting with their grandma, Mrs. Susan Tockey, returned to their home at Arcadia Monday even-

Miss Edyth Olson returned home Monday evening from Omaha where she is attending college, to spend the holidays with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Olson.

Mrs. Sadie Bailey, who has been here visiting at the George Benschoter and W. J. Fisher homes, returned to her home at Westerville, Nebr., Saturday morning.

Mrs. E. G. Taylor and George Leschinsky autoed to Ravenna last Saturday evening to meet her son, Earl, and two nephews, Mac and Archie Brown, who are attending school at Hastings, to spend the holiday season with home folks.

For general repair work, call on (Daily sells for less.

Cash Prichard was a passenger to St. Paul Monday.

F. E. Brewer was transacting busi-

Ward Ver Valin was a business visitor to Rockville Saturday.

C. A. Clark was a business pas-

A large delegation of the Austin people attended church here Sunday

L. H. Spahr completed a job of spouting on Jaes McBeth's new house

John Lewandowski came up from Ashton Tuesday to attend the funeral of Mrs. Lewandowski.

Miss Celia Krakowski went to Rockville Wednesday to visit with her parents over Christmas.

Mrs. C. R. Curtis was a passenger to Austin Monday to visit with her daughter, Mrs. Hartwell.

L. H. Spahr cleans and repairs all kinds of sewing machines. At Jas. Bartunek's Hardware store. Carl Amick came home from his school duties at Hastings, to spend Christmas with home folks. Miss Nancy Herrod came up from the holidays with friends. Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Wilson, and family, were passengers to Rockville Wednesday to visit a few days. January 7, a big dance at the opera sic by the Peerless orches tra of Ord. Don't forget the date. Clarence Peterson came up from his school duties at Hastings to visit over the holidays with home folks. Mrs. Joe O'Bryan was a passenger to St. Paul Wednesday to visit with her son, Harvey O'Bryan, and family. ONE DELIVERY ONLY.

Arthur's store will make but one delivery on Christmas day, at 9:30 a. m.

Miss Leona Sorensen came down from Arcadia Monday to spend a few days' with her aunt, Mrs. Lew Han-

Miss Bertha Landaeur, who has been working here for some time, returned to her home at Arcadia Monday evening.

Miss Evangeline Waite returned home from Ashton Wednesday where she has been visiting with the R. D. Sutton family.

ball at the opera house Friday even- prizes will be given. Come. ing, December 31, given by the Germania Verein.

turned to her home at Ashton Wed- Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Outhouse. nesday morning.

Miss Grace Conger went to Greeley Reed, and family.

Arthur Cox, who is attending the deaf and dumb school at Omaha, came home Wednesday to spend the holidays with relatives.

to Ashton Tuesday morning tovisit over Christmas with his brother, Ed Janulewicz, and family. Albion and Flora Ohlson came home from David City Monday, where they are working, to spend over the holidays with home folks.

Miss Marcia Ver Valin came home from Hastings Saturday evening to visit over the holidays with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ward Ver Valin.

where she will spend Christmas with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Gib-George Benschoter returned home last Thursday from Hay Springs, Nebr., where he has been, looking after his large ranch and visiting with

The Misses Orpha Outhouse, Orena and Marie Ohlson, arrived home from Hastings Monday evening to spend Lincoln, where they are attending school, to visit over the holidays with

> Monday evening from Atlantic, Ia., where she has been visiting with her mother, Mrs. Ellen Seymore, a many frineds.

Saturday evening from Columbus, many friends.

Mrs. Harriet Ver Valin and son, Ralph, arrived here from Dertoit, Valin, and family.

North Loup to spend Christmas with Mrs. Hendrickson's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Peterson. Mr. and Mrs. John Oltjenbruns returned to their home in Lincoln Tuesday morning after visiting here with Mr. Oltjenbrun's broher, Chris Oltjenbruns, and family.

opera house Friday evening, Decem-For a good time come to the mask Everybody cordially invited. Six from Ravenna, Tuesday evening, Mrs. William Odendahl, who has where she is teaching school, to been here visiting with relatives, re- spend the holidays with her parens,

FOR SALE.

Tuesday morning to spend the holi- and 180 fee deep. Cheap and erms days with her sister, Mrs. A. E. reasonable. Must sell at once. Inouire of Jas. W. Conger.

Daily sells for less.

Try Chase's first-it pays.

Alfalfa hay for sale. Inquire of

FOR SALE:-Team, wagon and harness and hay rack. Inquire of C.

Henry Elsner will fit you with glasses. Satisfaction is guaranteed.

vegetables. Agent for cut flowers.-Werner Pritschau. Phone 58. For Sale: A nice lot of Indian each-Mrs. John Warrick. Phone 7014. Mrs. L. L. Stphens returned home ast Thursday evening from Lincoln where she has been visiting with Miss Sophia Rockwich returned to er home at Rockville Monday after visiting here with the John Wiezorak family. left Monday noon for Blumfield, Neb. Don't forget the dance at the opera nouse, January 7. Special music by the Peerless orchestra of Ord. You are invited Come

> M. Levy and daughter, Ruth, came up Friday evening from Nebraska City where they had been called on account of the serious illness of a

Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Thompson returned home last Thursday from Hot Springs, South Dakota where Mr. Thompson has been in the saniarium for medical treatment.

The Misses Lila Goodwin and Mable Daddow returned home Wednesevening from Kearney, where they are attending school, to visit with home folks over the holidays.

J. E. Keyser, of Litchfield, who has been here visiting with his brother, L. G. Keyser, and family, went to Grand Island Tuesday morning to see his wife who is in the hospital

Miss Anna Clopper, who is teachng school here, went to her home at Liberty, Nebr., Saturday morning to visit over the holidays with home folks. She was accompanied by Miss Gladys Dunn who will visit there over the holidays.

Miss Anna Van, who has been visiting with her sister, Mrs. S. H. Richmond returned to her home at Falls City, Nebr., Wednesday morning. She was accompanied by Mrs. Richmond, who will visit over the holidays.

While skating last Sunday afternoon, Clayton Conger had the misfortune to catch his skate in some way, throwing him on his face and bruising him up quite a bit. Dr. Longacre was called and dressed the wounds. and he is getting along nicely.

E. J. Ohlsen is making a survey and plat of the city of Loup City, showing ail property owners, sidewalks, location of hydrants, water about two months to complete the plat. This plat will no doubt be of officials.

ROUTE TWO. W. H. McLaughlin butchered last

Otto Obermiller is husking corn for

A. H. Newhouser helped J. Plam-eck butcher, Monday.

The Union met at the home ert Snyder this week.

Charles Larson hauled the carrier load of corn Saturday. Arthur Obermiller is helping Geo Vagner get out his corn.

Claude Burt has been quite sick t Lincoln the past week. Mrs. Henry Neisner has been on he sick list the past week.

John Galiaway's young folks spent Sunday at the Spencer home.

Henry Goodwin hauled a load to Loup City market Saturday. Halsey Hansel drove a bunch of cattle along Route 2 Monday. The Austin bridge will be ready for travel in about two weeks.

Austin Neisner helped Jake Roy finish husking corn last week. Born, to Mr. and Mrs. Ira Daddow on December 13th, a dandy girl.

nome of Mrs. Andy Gray Sunday. J. E. Roush had a load of hogs on the Loup City market last Monday. Mr. and Mrs. Tom McFadden visited at the Ira Daddow home Sun-

The Advents held church at the

S. F. Reynolds took corn to R. D. Hendrickson and had it ground, Mon-

.Miss Lila Goodwin came home this week from Kearney to spend the holii

Mr. and Mrs. Rev. Wagner spent Sunday night at the homes of J. E.

S. M. Watson helped Brodock Brothers finish husking their corn last week E. W. Johnson put up a new mail box Monday. He is also a new patron on the Route. The Ladies' Aaid society of Wiggle Creek will not hold any meeting un-Runner ducks for a short time at 75c til after Christmas. Born, to Mr. and Mrs. John Kocimba, last Friday, a bouncing girl, of 91/2 pounds weight.

One of the school teachers on Route two will be married soon, guess what one it is.

The school children are having a big time these days skating on the overflow west of the lake.

William Behrens has completed a sod chicken coop on the Gene Philbrick place the past week.

Austin and Margaret, Neisner and Martin Vance and Daisy Fletcher, attended church at Austin Sunday. William Rettenmayer and son,

Clyde, are building some cattle sheds on the W. H. Gunn ranch this week. Charles Snyder has improved on this route last Monday. We were some the past week. Last week it was doubtful just what the out come

Most of the farmers on Route two are through husking corn, a few of them still having a small amount in Mrs. Harry Rutherford is home where she was to recuperate from their Christmas shopping. her illness. Mr. and Mrs. George Wagner spent Obermiller. Miss Grace Adams's school gave Each scholar was treated to a big sack | thought that winter was not coming.

of candy and nuts.

Mr. and Mrs. Winifred Hughes, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Daddow and Harold Burt, autoed to Boelus to look at the big power project, Sunday. Next Monday I have to weigh and count all in coming and out going mail on Route two, so please mail and buy all your supplies from me. Taylor Gibson has been putting the finishing toucehs on James Mc-Beth's new house the past week. In about two weeks it will be ready for The Wiggle Creek neighborhood are having a Christmas tree and program at Wiggle Creek church Friday evening. Everybody is invited. Come and bring the little ones and enjoy the evening.

way the toe of his skate caught in the ice throwing him forward on his face. rendering him unconscious for a few minutes. Dr. Longacre was mains and street lights. It will take called and dressed his wounds, and the funeral of Mr. and Mrs. Mudloff, outside of a badly bruised face and a who passed away at Farwell. Mr. couple of cuts, he was all O. K. again | Mudloff passed away Thursday Devaluable service to the city and county | Monday morning, but still had the swelled head.

Clayton Conger was quite badly hurt while skating last Sunday. In some

WASHINGTON TOWNSHIP.

Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Darrow visited at J. W. Darrow's place Sunday. * Wilford Anderson left Tuesday morning for Osceola on business.

J. H. Welty went to Junction City, Mo., on business one day last week. Henning Thelander of Lee Park, visited with Charles Lindell's Sun-

Bert Sears, of Phillipps, Nebr., visited this week at the R. P. Mc-Clarev home

Mr. and Mrs. Wilford Anderson took dinner with August Anderson at Arcadia Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. Henry DeWitt, and family, visited at the Willian Leininger home Sunday. Richard Nordstrom left Monday for Pine Bluff, Wyo., to visit with his brother, Oscar Nordstrom. The dance at Al Fagan's place last Saturday night was well attended and a good time was had by

The first snow of the season fell last Wednesday night but not enough to cause much inconvenience. A good thing it did not fall much longer as there is much corn vet to be husked in the vicinity. John Lind and son Leonard, returned from Lincoln last Saturday where Leonard underwent an operation for appendicitis. A speedy recovery and a permanent cure is hoped for by the entire community.

DEER CREEK NUGGETS.

Harry Lemburg is busy hauling corn to his father's near Boelus.

Maciejewski Brothers, the corn shelling proprietors, shelled corn for Jos. Lubash Saturda. Our telephone manager, L. S. Gal-czinski, was busy repairing the lines on Deer Creek last Friday. Andrew Boncyzinski, one of Deer Creek's shelling proprietors, started shelling corn for this season this Ed Plambeck and William Siefert of Deer Creek, helped others repair the St. Mathew's church in Ashton last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Wroblewski were guests at their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Simon Wroblewski, of Ashton, last Sunday.

Frank Bydalek has been busy hauling hay the past week from Andrew Bonczynski's where he bought one stack, recently. Quite a few of Deer Creek youngsters took in he show at Ashton last Sunday which was given by an unknown company. Adam and Rudolph Peters are reported sick with the lagrippe. They are on the sick list at present, but are Carstens Brothers were finishing their corn the last on Deer Creek and they had good weather to gather their last fall crop safe. Our mail carrier used his Ford car improving slowly.

glad to see that his old Ford can make his usual work for him. Paul Kutski and sons Philip and Charles, took in the sights at Boelus Sunday at the construction work for the electric power plant. Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Nowicki and baby, and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Platek, again, after her visit with her parents autoed to Loup City last week to do

Farmers are busy hauling their porkers to market. There must be some Sunday at the home of Mrs. Wag- thing wrong with them. It surely ner's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Hans is that corn is short in their cribs. The farmers have had fine weather to shuck corn this fall and those that a Chrismas program las Friday, are still in their fields must have Remember that Bob Wiezorek is in the Rural Weekly Ford contest, and if anyone is wishing to have a cheap weekly, please leave your orders with

The public sale that was held at Bennet Maschka's December 14, was a success, as everything sold very high. Col. J. G. Pageler, from Loup City, cried the sale

A chivari was given to Dan Stobbe last Thursday night and all received a hearty welcome as Danny became a bachelor and reports that the best eats are by his own cook.

the program, baskets were sold and the proceeds that was raised turned over for the benefit of the school A light snow covered the ground on Deer Creek last Wednesday. You can notice that this is winter doings and it is yet not so bad when the first

A box social and program was given at school district No. 54, and after part of the hardest work is over. A few from Deer Creek attended cember, 16, and Mrs. Mudloff the next day, December,, 17.

THOMPSON'S BILLIARD PARLORS

Your are cordially invited to make my place your headquarters when in town. A full line of the best cigars, candies and all kinds of soft drinks. Lunch room in connection.

J. W. THOMPSON, Proprietor

FLANDERS & CONGER

TONSORIAL AND BILLIARD PARLORS Tobacco and Soft Drinks

LOUP CITY

NEBRASKA

ANNAPOLIS NAVAL ACADEMY.

young officers for the new ships that Congress is expected to authorize this session. Senator John W. Weeks, of Massachusetts, who is taking an active part in the discussion of preparedness in the Senate, is the only member of Congress who is a graduate of Annapolis, and for this reason his speeches concerning the needs of the Navy are

NORTH PLATTE VALLEY THE NORTH PLATT EVALLEY, frequently called the "Scottsbluff country," is making a more wonderful showing every year in its production of irrigated crops—sugar beets, alfalfa, potatoes, wheat and oats; it is becoming one of the richest localities fro breeding and fattening of live stock. Many Government irrigated holdings of 160 acres are being reduced to 80 acres, making it possible for land seekers to secure 80acre tracks irrigated under the reliable system of the Government on terms that will never again be duplicated. All we can ask is that you visit the Valley and let our agents put you in touch with reliable firms. Ask about the crop tonnage, the increased population, and note the general prosperity; this will tell you what advance in land values you may expect there in tion, "North Platte Valley." Let me help you go there and see for yourself this locality which is the

SECURE A FARM IN THE

the next five years.

and see this locality which is the talk of the West. S. B. HOWARD, IMMIGRATION AGENT, 1004 Farnam Street, Omaha, Nebraska.

Or, write me for the Burlington's new publica-ness at Rockville Tuesday. Miss Regina Wojtaszski came up from Ashton Wednesday to attend the funeral of her grandmother, Mrs. Katie Lewandowski. George McFadden and wife were Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Hartzel arrived Grand Island visitors Monday. here Wednesday from Nemaha, Neb. to visit with Mr. Hartzel's brother. senger to Sargent Monday evening. R. E. Hartzel, and wife. Fresh lettuce, radishes and other Martin Janulewicz was a passenger

Mrs. Ross Warrick and children

Mrs. T. R. Grierson returned home

Mrs. Ida Ogle returned home last Ohio, where she has been for some time visiting with relatives and Michigan, Monday evening for a visit with their son and brother, Ward Ver Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Hendrickson, and family, left Monday noon for ber 31, given by the Germania Verein. Miss Winnie Outhouse came home

Don't forget the mask ball at the

My home with lots of 140 feet front

Now that Uncle Sam is to have an adequate Navy, the academy at Annapolis will be kept busy preparing