

2720 ACRES

ALL IN ONE BODY AND ALL IN GRASS
3 TO 5 MILES FROM LOUP CITY

fenced and cross fenced, good wells, windmills, reservoirs and tanks, abundance of water and all good soil. A considerable portion of this land can be broken out and will make good farm land. We will divide this into any sized tracts to suit purchasers and sell on very easy terms or accept clear farms in exchange as partial payment.

If You Want a Good Stock Farm, Come and See This at Once

THE FIRST TRUST COMPANY
LOUP CITY, NEBRASKA

CLEAR CREEK SAND

Clyde Anderson will work for William Beck.

Tresa Weller left for Bellwood, Sunday morning.

O. A. Clark returned home from his visit Monday morning.

Martin Burtner hauled corn from Litchfield Saturday.

Ralph Peters is visiting a few days with John Rainforth.

Dorr Spencer helped John Rainforth butcher a beef Saturday.

L. B. Hickman hauled hogs to the Litchfield market Monday.

Glen Smith and George John were at Litchfield trading Monday.

G. A. Richmond hauled hogs to the Litchfield market Wednesday.

Mrs. Anna and Lizzie Hill visited with the Stouffer women Friday.

Ed. Coley is going to move back to the Clear Creek country to live.

John Elliott will farm the Gowin farm and will move the first of March.

A. D. Jones shipped several crates of chickens to Grand Island Friday.

Eric Nystrom will move the first of March on the farm vacated by George Gray.

Ralph Peters returned on No. 39 on Tuesday and is visiting at the Spencer home.

Miss Emma Lowery, who teaches in District No. 38, is somewhat under the weather.

There was an oyster supper and party at the home of Ed. Shipley Friday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Stouffer came up from Lincoln to visit with the former's parents.

S. C. Eastabrook, and family, and Miss Retta Gasteyer visited at A. D. Jones's home Sunday.

William and Emma Weber left Wednesday for Early, Iowa, to visit their sister, Mrs. Gus Weitzel.

Mrs. Goethe's father, Mr. Lymaster, accompanied her home from Aurora and will visit a few days.

J. H. Burtner, and family, and Mrs. Price, took dinner with F. T. Richmond, and family, Sunday.

Mrs. Frank Boroff arrived home Saturday. Frank looks pleased that the bachelor stunt is over.

M. M. Stouffer will hold a public sale at his place on Saturday, February 19. The family will move to Litchfield on March 1.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Kurn attended the funeral of Ethel Dickerson on last Thursday.

G. W. Hager is having a very bad spell of the grippe. Dr. Rydberg was called, Sunday.

Mr. Rainforth, and family, and C. D. Brookshier, and family, visited with Mr. and Mrs. Frank Boroff Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Curry wishes to thank the Clear Creek Aid society for the beautiful bouquet of flowers sent to them during Mr. Curry's sickness.

Peter Kirschmer returned home from South Dakota where he has been working at the state sanitarium since November. He will take charge of the Thomas farm.

The stork left a little child at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Peter Kusick Saturday evening. We haven't heard whether a boy or girl, but welcome just the same.

Tom Parsley received a message from his brother Ed. of Bellwood, Neb. stating his mother had passed away Mr. and Mrs. Parsley left Saturday morning for Bellwood.

ROUTE ONE.

Milo Gilbert is building a new barn. James H. Lee was sick on Wednesday of this week.

Mrs. Johanna Franzen spent Wednesday visiting Edna Appel.

Ernest Garnett was hauling corn for George Hager Tuesday from Litchfield.

Carrier saw twelve or thirteen ducks going north on the river Wednesday morning.

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Miller went to Bellwood, to attend the funeral of Mrs. Miller's grandmother.

Dwight Chamberlain bought some alfalfa from Andrew Franzen and is busy hauling same home.

Charles May autored out to George Curry's Monday. Charles has a reputation of being some driver.

Mr. and Mrs. George Curry returned home Monday of this week. Mr. Curry is greatly improved in health.

Farmers from all over the county were in town Wednesday getting oats that the farmers union shipped in.

ASHTON NEWS

Ed. Wardyn visited in Farwell on Friday.

Dad Williams was here between trains Friday.

A. B. Outhouse was here Friday on business.

Cud Williams of Schaupps spent Monday here.

Cash Tapolski of Schaupps visited here last Saturday.

E. G. Taylor of Loup City was here on business Tuesday.

Matt Ignowski was a passenger to Loup City Saturday.

Mr. E. Cook of Loup City was here Saturday on business.

George Adamski was a passenger for St. Paul on Monday.

Peter Hansen and son of near Farwell, spent Sunday here.

Anton Bandur, of Schaupps, was here on business Tuesday.

William Odendahl went to Sargent Thursday evening on business.

Anton Gzehoviak from Loup City, was here Saturday between trains.

Mrs. Nagorski went to Farwell Tuesday to visit her children there.

Reports from the bedside of Mrs. Andrew Bogus is that she is very low.

Born, to Mr. and Mrs. Peter Kwiatkowski, on Tuesday, Feb. 8, a son.

Mrs. J. L. Davey, and children, of Schaupps, were visiting here Saturday.

Joseph Zaucha came in Wednesday from the east to spend several weeks here.

Adam Kosmicki came up from St. Paul Monday to spend a few days here.

P. G. Held returned from Omaha Thursday evening where he had been attending the retail dealers convention.

Miss Annie Maieski went to Farwell Saturday to visit relatives and friends.

Mr. Piersol, of Sargent, former barber here, was here Thursday on business.

A. Gruber, of St. Paul, was here on business Friday returning home Saturday.

Bob Mills came up from Farwell Saturday and spent Sunday here with home folks.

Frank Kaslon sr. and daughter, were eastbound passengers for Grand Island Friday.

Mrs. Tockey, who is staying with her mother, Mrs. Walter Blumer, is very ill at present.

Born, to Mr. and Mrs. Steve Ignowski on Friday, Feb. 8, a son. All concerned doing nicely.

F. X. Badura returned from Omaha Friday where he had been attending the retail dealers convention.

Mr. Sutton, father of R. D. Sutton, returned to his home at Ord after visiting here for several days.

A car of spring implements arrived and was unloaded here Monday for Thomas Jamrog & Sons.

Miss Swontek, of Farwell, was here Saturday attending the funeral of her sister-in-law, Mrs. Frank Swontek.

Ed Zochol of Sioux county is here at present being called here by the death of his sister, Mrs. Frank Swontek.

A deal was closed last Thursday in which the Ashton Lumber company bought the entire stock of the Keystone company. The Keystone was about one of the first business houses in Ashton, being established about 1887.

The funeral of Mrs. Anna Swontek, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Zochol, was held at the St. Francis church here Saturday, conducted by Rev. Father Radka. Mrs. Swontek was a native of Sherman county and spent most of her life here, but for the past few years resided near Vice, Okla. Her family being one boy and one girl aged 6 and 7 years, who with the husband survive her. About ten days prior to her death, Mrs. Swontek was taken to Omaha to a hospital in hopes of getting relief from the dreaded Brights disease with which she was stricken while visiting here, but her case be-

Miss Percy Zochol arrived here Friday from Mitchell, Neb., to be present at the funeral of her sister, Mrs. Frank Swontek.

The balance of the parts for the furnace at the St. Francis school, arrived Monday and in a day or two everything will be in shape again.

John Zaworski of Loup City was here Tuesday on business. It is reported that Mr. Zaworski and family will return to Ashton to make their future home.

James Hurt, of Farwell, was here Thursday and went to Schaupps on the passenger to look over his fine farm near that place.

Frank Lukaszewski went to St. Paul Monday and accompanied his sister, Mrs. Frank Smith home on the passenger in the evening.

William Ojendyk, who has spent several years in the west dropped in Monday for a visit with his brothers and many friends here.

Mr. and Mrs. Anton Tapolski, Nick Sobieski and Mrs. John Peters, of Schaupps, attended the funeral of Mrs. Frank Swontek here Saturday.

The announcement for the approaching wedding of Vincent Wroblewski and Miss Susie Wardyn were announced at the St. Francis church Sunday.

Those who attended the funeral of Mrs. Frank Swontek here Saturday from Loup City were, Mrs. Frank Tapolski, Mrs. Kate Stellmack, Mr. John Bukowski.

Leo Kantor is at present visiting relatives and friends here. Mr. Kantor is located in Idaho Falls, Idaho, and speaks very highly of that part of the country.

Mrs. Frank Smith returned from St. Paul to her home Monday. Mrs. Smith was under the care of Dr. Grothan of that place and was quite ill but at present is improving.

Emil and Henry Ojendyk, Sam Blumer, and Isaac Sandberg, returned from Lincoln Thursday where they had been to attend the funeral of Mrs. Theodore Ojendyk, mother of Emil and Henry.

A deal was closed last Thursday in which the Ashton Lumber company bought the entire stock of the Keystone company. The Keystone was about one of the first business houses in Ashton, being established about 1887.

The funeral of Mrs. Anna Swontek, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Zochol, was held at the St. Francis church here Saturday, conducted by Rev. Father Radka. Mrs. Swontek was a native of Sherman county and spent most of her life here, but for the past few years resided near Vice, Okla. Her family being one boy and one girl aged 6 and 7 years, who with the husband survive her. About ten days prior to her death, Mrs. Swontek was taken to Omaha to a hospital in hopes of getting relief from the dreaded Brights disease with which she was stricken while visiting here, but her case being hopeless. We extend our sympathy to the bereaved ones.

DAVIS CREEK NEWS

John Pelanowski was in Loup City the middle of last week.

Mr. Thomsen and Tony Zaruba, shelled corn this week.

Don't forget the box social at District No. 24, Saturday night.

Mike Palu and son were in Loup City the first of last week.

Tony Zaruba helped Frank Manchester butcher a hog Monday.

Sale bills are out announcing the sale of Peter Lewandowski, the 23.

A large crowd attended the Jack Davey sale at Schaupps Thursday.

There was a dance given at the home of Frank Trump Saturday evening.

Joe Sowokinos has installed a new piano player in his home, now there will be music in the air.

Orin Manchester gave a play party at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jess Manchester Saturday evening.

Mrs. Ed. Manchester visited with Mrs. Jess Manchester Thursday while the two brothers took in Jack Davey's sale.

Clare Kettle, the veterinary of Ashton, was out to Charles Brown's place Friday.

There was a dance given at Mike Kaminski's Sunday night and every body enjoyed themselves.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Manchester, and children visited with Mr. and Mrs. John Pelanowski Sunday.

One of Frank Manchester's hogs got away Thursday and Frank had lots of difficulty in locating him.

Loody McCord, Gerald Manchester and Paul Stillman, were in North Loup Friday evening to an entertainment of some kind.

Warty Green autored from North Loup and was a visitor at Ed Stillman's Tuesday afternoon, going back to town the same evening.

Clarence Manchester, while skating, fell and cut his right hand, and that member is laid up for a while now. Little folks should be careful while on the ice.

Vote Nebraska dry. Vote this liquor business clear to the coasts and when we get it there we will vote to have it dumped into the ocean and washed down stream.

John Schroeder visited with Hans Pederson last Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Jewell visited at Malm's on Sunday.

E. F. Milburn and wife visited at C. C. Darrow's Sunday.

Fred Milburn helped C. C. Darrow fill his hay mow Monday.

C. G. Johnson moved onto his place vacated by Robert Letninger.

Mrs. Nellie Dick visited at G. W. Anderson's place last week.

Ed. Welty visited at Wesley Hurburt's place Monday evening.

Wesley Hurburt is husking corn for G. W. Anderson this week.

Miss Edith Halm visited at Wesley Hurburt's place on Monday.

Andrew Lind left for Polk county Monday after a short visit here with home folks.

Mrs. Sam Hurburt and Mrs. Wesley Hurburt visited at Charles Jamison's place last Thursday.

Mrs. Callen and Vern Oliver held a sale last Thursday. Everything sold at a good price. Mr. Lind bought one cow for $85.00.

Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Nyquist and Miss Maughill Nyquist, of Stromsburg, visited at G. W. Anderson's place a couple of days this week.

AUSTIN SIDELIGHTS

A. R. Jack went to Loup City Saturday.

Mr. Mickow is building an addition to his house.

Mrs. John Heil was trading in Rockville Saturday.

Mr. Jack and neighbors were filling his ice house Tuesday.

Albert Fletcher has been on the sick list the past week.

Dan Carpenter and family spent Sunday at Dan McDonald's.

Harry Billings, of Fort Logan, Ia., is visiting friends at Austin.

Clarice McCall injured her wrist while playing at school Friday.

Arthur Couton spent Sunday with his cousin George and Lea Heil.

Mrs. Goldie McCall spent Monday with her friend, Mrs. Ida Ogle.

N. T. Daddow and son were over to their farm on Wiggle Cree Tuesday.

W. H. Couton went to Danneberg Monday to have some dental work done.

Harry Billings is taking care of Mrs. Ogle's stock while she is away visiting.

Mrs. Sam Carpenter spent a few days of this week with her friend, Mrs. H. Hartwell.

The Aid society met at Mrs. William Couton's Tuesday and settled the business of the society.

Mrs. Ida Ogle and daughter Helen, left Tuesday morning to visit her sister, Mrs. Griffin, at Havelock, Neb.

The Austin school enjoyed a valentine box Monday. The teacher treating the pupils with popcorn and candy.

Mrs. Lula Burke, Mrs. Ella Talbot, Mrs. M. Rentfrow, and daughter, Rhea, were passengers to Loup City Saturday.

District No. 28 had a valentine box last Friday. Mrs. Daddow and Mrs. Paige surprised the pupils with a large valentine cake.

Mrs. H. Hartwell entertained her Sunday school class of young people Saturday night and all that attended reported a very enjoyable time.

Frank Eastman's mother and sister are visiting at the Woten home.

Leon R. Bera attended the dance over at Ashton Monday evening.

R. M. Hiddleston of Loup City was a Rockville visitor last Saturday.

Lyle Jacobs is quite ill with the typhoid fever at the present writing.

Trust a woman for being blind as a bat when she won't see. The T. of K. Miss Ruth Von Krosigk, from Boelus spent last Saturday visiting the Woten family.

Provin and William Rasmussen went to Danneberg Monday, returning again the next day.

Miss Lena Lemburg and her sister came home on the motor a week ago last Thursday evening.

Gray and Ohlsen shipped a car of hogs to the South Omaha live stock market last Wednesday.

Gil Emery and John Dambowski held a joint sale at the stock yards last Saturday afternoon.

A few of the Rockville people went to Boelus Wednesday evening to attend a wedding dance at that place.

Tony Wroblewski, of Gehring, Neb., was here visiting friends and relatives. He returned Monday morning.

The Kensington club met at the Bushhousen home last Friday evening in honor of Miss Barton.

Mrs. Samuel Carpenter, who lives in the western part of the state, is visiting at the Tangerman home.

Chris Appel of Danneberg was in town on business a week ago last Wednesday on business a week ago last Wednesday.

R. Rasmuson, Steve Slobzeski and Ben Krakowski were eastbound passengers on the motor a week ago last Thursday morning.

The Hewetts played at the opera house a week ago last Thursday. If you were not there you missed a treat, for they were sure good.

You wonder who writes all this junk in the Loup City Northwestern under the "Rockville Happenings." Well, being you're so inquisitive, I'll just tell you who reels it off: "I do." Now are you any the wiser?

The members of the "Hickville 4 Peese Orkestry" journeyed to Raven-last Monday evening to attend the masquerade at that place. Did they make a hit? Well I guess yes. They won the group prize again.

The masquerade which was held in the opera house last Saturday evening was a success in all ways. Following is a list of the prize winners Mrs. Alfred Jensen, first ladies' Beata Hansch, second ladies' Olga Schurzburg and Myrtle Dwehles ladies group prize, Roy Strom, first gents', Rasmussen, second gents', "Das Hickvilles 4 Peese Orkestry" mens group, and booby prize, "That poor old Maid, Mrs. Emil Cords.

J. S. Pedler and Miss Ruby Johnson of Loup City, Mr. Grovener from Aurora, Frank Parker from Colorado, and S. C. Winteer, of Mullen, were in town all day Thursday of last week. They were here to take the depositions of a few Rockville people in connection with the Winteer will case, which is to be tried later on in California. Depositions of the following were taken:—Mrs. O. Sherman, Mrs. W. F. McDonald, Thomas Thomsen, J. L. Gray, Sam Reasland, H. F. Reasland and W. F. McDonald.

ROCKVILLE HAPPENINGS

Frank Eastman's mother and sister are visiting at the Woten home.

Leon R. Bera attended the dance over at Ashton Monday evening.

R. M. Hiddleston of Loup City was