Henry Scholtz has just received his bull tractor gasoline engine that he won as a prize for securing the largest subscription to the Omaha Bee.

Mrs. Sam Sneeley came in on No. 39 Monday to attend the fiftieth anniversary of her father and mother. They are of the very earliest settlers on Clear Creek.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Brundage were passengers to Lincoln on No. 44 Sunday night. I understand Mrs. Brundage goes to visit her relatives in Kansas before leaving for their Colorado ranch.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Parsley returned home on No. 39 Thursday. They had been down to Columbus attending the funeral of Mr. Parsley's mother who had attained the ripe old age of 83. Very few reach this mark. Mrs. Parsley had traveled a great deal and had spent part of her life in the west Indies, then returned to her native home near Bristol on the west coast of England and again leaving there she came direct to Nebraska where she died.

Ann F. Gowin was born in North Carolina, August 4, 1841, and died in Sheridan, Oregon, on Monday morning February 7, 1916, aged 74 years, 6 months and 3 days. In the early 60's the family moved to Illinois locating near Charleston. On November 17, 1867 she was married to Basil S. Hill of that place, and to this union were born six children, two dying in infancy. The four surviving children are Mrs. Oris Ferguson of Salem, Mrs. Winnie Hamman of Wayton, Oregon, Clifton Hill of Sheridan and James E. Hill of McMinnville. After some years residence in Illinois the family found a new home in Clyde, Missouri, where on April 12, 1885, she lost her companion by death. After the death of her husband she moved to Litchfield, Neb., where she was married to Sylvester Dean, who died in 1894. The family came to Oregon in 1900 and to Sheridan in 1906 where she made her home until her death. Besides her four children she is survived by nine grand children, four sisters and three brothers. The sisters are Mrs. Sallie Parker, Mrs. M. E. Mathews, Miss M. M. Gowin and Mrs. E. V. McBride. The brothers are E. W. and J. M. Gowin and George Gowin. Funeral services were held at the Methodist church in Sheridan, where the deceased was a member, on Wednesday, February 9, after which the body was laid to rest in the cemetery at Amity—Sheridan Sun.

I wish to add to this part of her history omitted in this obituary as published in the Sheridan Sun. Mr. and Mrs. Hill and Mrs. Hill's brother Jess, came to Nebraska in 1875 where they settled on Clear Creek. Basil homesteaded what is now the Burtner farm on the east side of the road and built near the creek now marked by a few trees set out by them. Jess took the farm south of that now owned by William Kohl. They moved from here to Missouri where Basil, her husband died.

HUNTERS TREE BLACK CAT

They Thought They Had a Coon, and Waited All Night Under the Tree.

Saylorsville, Ky.—The other night J. S. Adams and his two sons, Carl and Bundy, went opossum hunting. They started about nine o'clock, and about twelve o'clock his wife began to get uneasy, and still they did not come home. Next morning she went out and got the neighbors to make a search for them, and while she was getting breakfast she looked up the hill and saw them coming.

When his wife asked him what had delayed him he said: "We were on the hill when the dog made a dive into the underbrush and then tread something. We went to the tree and thought it was a coon, and we laid down on the leaves and went to sleep. The next morning we saw that we had tread a big black cat instead of a coon."

BABY PECKED BY ROOSTER

Slight Abrasion of the Skin Behind the Ear Develops Into Lockjaw.

Revilla, S. D.—A serious case of lockjaw which may result fatally, all due to the peck of a rooster, developed here when the little eighteen-months-old child of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Maass was picked behind the ear by a rooster while playing about the yard.

Only a slight abrasion was made at the time and nothing was thought of it until a couple of days later when swelling started. Two days later lockjaw developed, and the child was rushed to the hospital at Madison, Minn., where the little one is being treated now. It is feared, with but slight hopes of success.

Is Father of 28.

Saluda, S. C.—L. A. Rowe of the Emory section probably has the largest family in Saluda county and doubtless as large as any to be found anywhere in the state. To date the number of his children is 28, the last one arriving on July 26 last. Mr. Rowe is 65 years of age, and has been married twice, 16 of the children being by his first wife and the remaining 12 by his last wife.
