

Timely Topics

Try Chase's first—it pays.
 W. T. Gibson was a Grand Island visitor Monday.
 Harry Conger was a Rockville passenger Tuesday.
 Jack Amick was a Grand Island passenger Saturday.
 Farm for rent. See W. F. Mason at First National Bank.
 Harry Hinman made a business trip to Rockville Tuesday.
 L. A. Williams was a passenger for Rockville on Tuesday.
 Mrs. A. H. Hansel was a business visitor at Boelus last Friday.
 A. B. Outhouse was a business passenger at Rockville Tuesday.
 Billy Jacobs came up from Rockville Saturday and visited between trains.
 Carl Bauman was visiting at Rockville Saturday, returning home in the evening.
 Mrs. J. A. Arnett left Monday morning for Phillips, Neb., to visit with her daughter.
 William Rowe and son Arthur, are doing some carpenter work at Austin these days.
 N. A. Steen was in Grand Island last Thursday on business, returning in the evening.
 Lost—A bunch of keys about Jan. 1st. Finder will please leave at this office and be rewarded.
 O. F. Peterson was a business passenger at Austin last Thursday, returning home the same evening.
 Sheriff Sutton, of Ord spent Sunday visiting at the A. E. Chase home. He returned home Monday noon.
 Miss Wanda Tockey, of Arcadia, visited here Saturday with relatives, returning to her home the same evening.
 R. P. Starr returned home from Omaha and Fullerton Saturday where he had been on legal business the past week.
 Mrs. Nelson Fisher and children returned home from St. Paul Saturday where she had been visiting with her parents.
 Mrs. H. M. Mathew returned home Tuesday from St. Louis where she had been to purchase her spring and summer millinery.
 C. S. Reynolds and Cecil Milburn were passengers to Omaha Monday. Cecil has never been to a large city and Clark went along to show him the sights.
 Mrs. D. E. Maranville returned to her home at Aurora last Thursday morning after spending several days here visiting with her daughter, Mrs. C. P. McLaughlin, and family.

Daily sells for less.
 Try Chase's first—it pays.
 Louis Bly was a Grand Island passenger Tuesday morning.
 Mrs. A. H. Hansel was a business passenger to Greeley Tuesday morning.
 Lamont L. Stephens made a business trip to Rockville Tuesday morning.
 A. O. Lee was a business passenger to Rockville Monday, returning in the evening.
 Thomas Dinsdale came up from Palmer Friday evening, returning the next morning.
 R. E. Dale returned to Lincoln Friday morning after spending Sunday with his family.
 Fritz Bichel returned home from Grand Island Saturday where he had been on business.
 Corn Flakes, 6c per package, at The Loup City Cash Store, Wm. Lewandowski, proprietor.
 The Misses Alta and Hazel Sutton of Ashton, visited over Sunday here at the A. E. Chase home.
 E. G. Taylor returned home from Omaha last Saturday where he had been on a business trip.
 Albert Anderstrom came up from Ashton Monday evening on business, returning the next morning.
 Miss Carrie Cole went to Palmer Saturday to visit with home folks, her mother being quite poorly.
 Mrs. Susan Tockey returned home from Ashton Friday evening where she had been visiting with friends.
 Mrs. James Grow and baby of Arcadia, are spending several days here visiting with relatives and friends.
 J. E. Dalrymple arrived here Saturday evening from Omaha to spend a few days at the J. W. Johnson home.
 Nelson Smith returned home from St. Paul Monday where he had been visiting with relatives over Sunday.
 A. B. Conger was a business passenger to Comstock last Friday evening, returning home Saturday morning.
 Mr. and Mrs. J. Zawicki returned to their home at Farwell last Friday after visiting here at the John Stanczyk home.
 Miss Elva Boller, who has been here visiting with her friend, Miss Mable Hansen, returned to her home at Hastings last Thursday.
 Mr. and Mrs. M. S. Adams, who have been here visiting with many friends the past few days, left last Friday morning for Iowa and Illinois where they will spend some time visiting.

Try Chase's first—it pays.
 Murray Alexander came up from Grand Island Tuesday on business.
 Jacob Ritz, August Jung and St. Richey, of Rockville, were transacting business in Loup City Monday.
 Harness repairing time is here. Bring your harness in to James Bartunek.
 Mrs. L. W. Schlote left Tuesday morning for Dunning where they intend to make their future home.
 G. H. Bacon, who has been here visiting at the Norton Lambert home, was a business passenger for Arcadia Friday evening.
 Mrs. Jess Marvel and baby of Arcadia, are here visiting with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Ohlson, her mother being quite ill.
 For Rent—Ten acre lot with buildings, just outside of city limits. Inquire of Tony Gzehovak at Lewandowski's store or W. F. Mason. 9-2
 Mrs. A. E. Johnson returned to her home at Aurora Monday morning after visiting here over Sunday at the homes of Arnold and Oliver Johnson.
 The closing out sale being conducted at the Hub Clothing store has been well patronized and is still drawing crowds. Mr. Viener has not yet decided upon his new location.
 William Graefe enjoyed a visit from his brother who lives in Wyoming Saturday. Mr. Graefe had been to Omaha with a car of cattle and ran up here for a day on his way home.
 Mr. and Mrs. Tony Johns returned home Tuesday evening from David City where they had spent Sunday visiting with Mrs. John's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Peter Michalek, and family.
 Work on the new school house has been progressing nicely during the fine weather of this week. The building will be an imposing structure. Work will be pushed to completion from now on.
 Mrs. Mathew has a consignment of beautiful new suits. They were made in New York City and are of the best quality and newest styles. Call this week and see them. Notice of millinery opening a little later.
 The weather has been so nice this week that the base ball fans have been getting busy. Though early in the season, it is not too early to be getting a ball team organized. Loup City should have a ball team next season and the time to stir things up is now.

Daily sells for less.
 Chase's for fresh groceries.
 Alfalfa hay for sale. Inquire of Burr Robbins.
Henry Elsner will fit you with glasses. Satisfaction is guaranteed.
 Miss Wainetta Conger came down from Arcadia Wednesday noon and visited at the home of Miss Fay Galaway.
 E. P. Daily sold two acres of land in the northwest part of town for $800 Monday. Alfred Anderson being the purchaser.
 Mr. and Mrs. John Bukowski returned home Tuesday evening from Ashton where they had been to attend the funeral of a relative.
 Mrs. William Schuman and little daughter, Goldie, returned home Tuesday evening from Schaupp's where they had been visiting with relatives.
 Miss Elida Lund came up from Rockville Monday evening and visited at the home of Miss Pearl Needham. She returned home Tuesday morning.
 The movie fans were disappointed Saturday night when the films of "Neptune's Daughter" failed to arrive. The management of the opera house will endeavor to show this picture at some later date.
 Farmers, bring in your discs, plows and farm machinery as this is the time of the year we would like to have you bring in your work, as the busy season will commence in about a month. I have one of the best plow men in the state. A. C. Ogle.
AT VIC SWANSON'S
 I am going to close out my entire line of men, women, and children's shoes. Every pair must sell regardless of cost. Take the whole family along and I will sell you good shoes at very low prices. Absolutely going to close out every pair. I am going to cater more to the dry goods line. My spring line of dress goods is now arriving. Some beautiful merchandise.
VIC SWANSON
 The house of Quality and Low Prices.

Daily sells for less.
 Now is the time to get your harness oiled and repaired. Bring them in to James Bartunek.
 William and John George returned home from Grand Island Saturday where they had been attending a thoroughbred stock sale.
 Mr. Wiezorak, who has been here visiting with his daughter, Mrs. Frank Sobiesczyk, and family, returned to his home at Boelus last Friday.
 Mrs. W. H. Hughes left Friday noon for Glenville, Nebr. where she will visit a few days with her daughter, Mrs. Frank Pielstick.
 Mr. and Mrs. C. Sheridan and children returned to their home at Columbus Saturday after visiting here with many friends, and at Sargent.
 Miss Barbara Ignowski returned home Friday evening from Ashton where she has been visiting the past ten days with relatives and friends.
 Lost—A gold jet brooch pin somewhere between the D. C. Grow and J. E. O'Bryan residences. Finder will please leave same at this office and receive reward.
 Born, to Mr. and Mrs. Ray Lamoreaux, last Friday morning, at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Amick, a 12 pound boy. All concerned doing nicely.
 Charles Irwin came up from Murphy, Nebr., and spent several days here with many friends. He returned to Hubble, Nebr., Monday morning to visit with his parents.
 For Rent, or Sale:—A five room house and six lots, in Loup City, one block from Catholic church. Inquire at Loup City State bank, or of owner, E. E. McCray, Comstock, Nebr.
 Mrs. William Dolling and daughter, Miss Barbara Ignowski, Frank Janulewicz, Mrs. John Cynova and Miss Celia Krokowski, were passengers for Ashton Tuesday morning to attend the wedding of Miss Stella Krsion.
 The largest coon we ever saw was bagged by Ashley Conger and W. P. Taylor while out hunting Tuesday. The pelt is four feet and two inches from tip to tip and is beautifully marked. The boys run onto the coon while he was asleep in the sun and ended his existence with a rifle. Ashley and Bill are some hunters when it comes to big game.
 Mrs. Myron Gilbert has been very ill at her home of Miss Marcia Gilbert, taking down about three weeks ago with a bad case of pneumonia. Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert came down from Blake, Nebraska, several weeks ago for a short visit with relatives and upon their return home she was taken sick at Elyria and was brought back for medical treatment. Mrs. Gilbert is slowly improving. They expect to return home in about a week.

Daily sells for less.
 Try Chase's first—it pays.
 Mrs. Ed. Oltman came up from her home at Schaupp's Tuesday evening for a short visit here with relatives.
 O. S. Mason is in Omaha this week purchasing new goods for his store and attending the automobile show.
 Mrs. R. N. Pritchard and Miss Regina Beschler returned home from Omaha Saturday evening where they had been for the past week visiting.
 Mrs. L. Bechthold was a Grand Island passenger Friday to spend a few days with her daughters, Mrs. Herman Rickert and Mrs. Minnie Schierkofska.
 Miss Nora Augustyn, who has been working in Tarnov, Nebr., came home Saturday evening to spend Sunday with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Augustyn.
 Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Chropkowski, returned to their home at Rockville Friday after visiting here several days with the latter's sister Mrs. Frank Sobiesczyk.
 Miss Atlin, and Henry Dunker returned to their home at Rockville Saturday noon after spending a few days here with their cousins, Alma and Alfred Hapka.
 Mrs. Harvey O'Bryan and little daughter came up from St. Paul last Saturday evening and spent Sunday with her father, O. Benschoter, returning home Monday morning.
 Mr. and Mrs. Len Hawkins and little son, of Arcadia, were visiting in our city last Saturday with many friends. They went from here to Boelus to spend several days' visiting.
 E. E. Tracy returned home last Thursday from Ghent New York, where he has been the past month visiting with his father. He reports finding him well, and a most splendid trip.
 Notice to Farmers:—Now is the time to look over your plows and discs and have all needed repairing and disc sharpening done before the spring rush commences. I am well equipped to do your work and will appreciate the business.—James Kay, 9-4
 Mary Pickford will appear in the movies at the Daddow opera house Saturday evening in "Caprice," a delightful comedy-drama of society, love and the great outdoors. Saturday, February 29. Admission 10 and 15 cents.
 Why pay big money for a poor, new set of harness when you can get a good harness at my place for almost the same money. Please come to me and buy my make harness, and you can rest assured that you will get your money's worth.—James Bartunek.

Daily sells for less.
 Try Chase's first—it pays.
 Mrs. Ed. Oltman came up from her home at Schaupp's Tuesday evening for a short visit here with relatives.
 O. S. Mason is in Omaha this week purchasing new goods for his store and attending the automobile show.
 Mrs. R. N. Pritchard and Miss Regina Beschler returned home from Omaha Saturday evening where they had been for the past week visiting.
 Mrs. L. Bechthold was a Grand Island passenger Friday to spend a few days with her daughters, Mrs. Herman Rickert and Mrs. Minnie Schierkofska.
 Miss Nora Augustyn, who has been working in Tarnov, Nebr., came home Saturday evening to spend Sunday with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Augustyn.
 Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Chropkowski, returned to their home at Rockville Friday after visiting here several days with the latter's sister Mrs. Frank Sobiesczyk.
 Miss Atlin, and Henry Dunker returned to their home at Rockville Saturday noon after spending a few days here with their cousins, Alma and Alfred Hapka.
 Mrs. Harvey O'Bryan and little daughter came up from St. Paul last Saturday evening and spent Sunday with her father, O. Benschoter, returning home Monday morning.
 Mr. and Mrs. Len Hawkins and little son, of Arcadia, were visiting in our city last Saturday with many friends. They went from here to Boelus to spend several days' visiting.
 E. E. Tracy returned home last Thursday from Ghent New York, where he has been the past month visiting with his father. He reports finding him well, and a most splendid trip.
 Notice to Farmers:—Now is the time to look over your plows and discs and have all needed repairing and disc sharpening done before the spring rush commences. I am well equipped to do your work and will appreciate the business.—James Kay, 9-4
 Mary Pickford will appear in the movies at the Daddow opera house Saturday evening in "Caprice," a delightful comedy-drama of society, love and the great outdoors. Saturday, February 29. Admission 10 and 15 cents.
 Why pay big money for a poor, new set of harness when you can get a good harness at my place for almost the same money. Please come to me and buy my make harness, and you can rest assured that you will get your money's worth.—James Bartunek.

2720 ACRES

ALL IN ONE BODY AND ALL IN GRASS
 3 TO 5 MILES FROM LOUP CITY

fenced and cross fenced, good wells, windmills, reservoirs and tanks, abundance of water and all good soil. A considerable portion of this land can be broken out and will make good farm land. We will divide this into any sized tracts to suit purchasers and sell on very easy terms or accept clear farms in exchange as partial payment.

If You Want a Good Stock Farm, Come and See This at Once

THE FIRST TRUST COMPANY
 LOUP CITY, NEBRASKA