A KENSINGTON POEM.

Say, Mr. News Writer, who offered your aid,
We're wondered and pondered, how you could be repaid.
So we've composed this rhyme;
It took a very long time,
For you must know a subject, was very hard to find.

You boys who know all the secrets of our club,
We have decided to give you a good rub.
'Twas last Friday night, oh! we're sorry to say,
A plot was formed; we learned it that same day.

The den of the plotters was a place well known in town,
Where the young swains of Rockville hang 'round,

But boys: Sneaking 'round windows is sport for babies,
Because it isn't polite to spy on the ladies.

But what the plotters heard—and saw on that look,
We're sure would never fill a very big book.

You boys having dates on each Friday night,
Keep us out till we're late, but then don't be tight.

Hand us a nickle or better a dime,
Be on the good side and get a date next time.

Take if you want, rubbers from the porch,
We don't care, they can be found with a torch.

But L. stands for L—, lonely and lustrous,

And M. stands for M—, one who has left us.

'Tis well to hide your blushes, we know to your memory rushes,
Scenes of windows tempting and inviting,
And now we hope this will stop your piking.

Now gentle News Writer who offered your aid,
We ask you one question, "Are you Repaid?"

—The Kensington Club.

Efficiency built the Panama Canal, after inefficiency failed. The efficiency of the Panama Canal doubled the effectiveness of the U. S. Navy without adding a ship to it. It took over 8,000 miles out of the trip from New York to San Francisco and changed the highway between London and Australia from Suez to Panama.

Efficiency insures against lost motion—it produces the utmost service out of equipment and yields the finest product, at the least cost.

Certain-teed

Roofing is an efficiency product

Every advantage that men, money and machinery can offer is used to increase the production, maintain the quality and lower the cost. Each of the General's enormous mills is advantageously located to serve the ends of efficient manufacture and quick distribution. Each is equipped with the most up-to-date machinery. Raw materials are purchased in enormous quantities and far ahead of the needs of manufacturing, thus guarding against increased cost due to idle machinery. This also insures favorable buying, and the pick of the market.

Expert chemists at each mill are employed to select and blend the asphalts, and every roll of CERTAIN-TEED is made under their watchful care.

CERTAIN-TEED resists the drying-out process so destructive to ordinary roofing, because the felt is thoroughly saturated with a blend of soft asphalts, prepared under the formula of the General's board of expert chemists. It is then coated with a blend of harder asphalts, which keeps the inner saturation soft. This makes a roofing more pliable, and more impervious to the elements than the harder, drier kind.

CERTAIN-TEED is made in rolls; also in slate-surfaced shingles. There is a type of CERTAIN-TEED for every kind of building, with flat or pitched roofs, from the largest sky-scraper to the smallest residence or out-building.

CERTAIN-TEED is guaranteed for 5, 10 or 15 years, according to ply (1, 2 or 3). Experience proves that it lasts longer.
