

The "SILENT SMITH"

—Model 8 shows what should now be expected of a typewriter.

Ball Bearing Long Wearing

The success of the L. C. Smith & Bros. Typewriters has been due to the fact that the wants of the user have dictated its construction. The user has decided in favor of certain improvements now incorporated in Model 8. Among them are:

Silence of Operation—The most silent running efficient typewriter ever placed on the market. Absolute silence has been very nearly attained.

Decimal Tabulator—A help in billing and tabulating. There is no extra charge for this convenience.

Variable Line Spacer—Enables the operator to start on a given line and space from point of starting; also to write on ruled lines whose spacing varies from typewriter spacing. A great help in card work.

Faster Ribbon Feed—Insures new place of impact for each typeface.

Choice of Carriage Return—Upon special order the new left hand carriage return will be furnished in place of the right hand return.

All the important features of previous models have been retained—ball bearing carriage, typebars and capital shift, back spacer, key-controlled ribbon, removable platen, protected type, flexible paper feed and automatic ribbon reverse.

Write for New Catalog of Model 8. It will explain why the L. C. Smith & Bros. Typewriter is a synonym for superior service.

HOUNDED BY BLUE FISH.

Wilkesbarre, Pa.—Hounded by a school of blue fish that had followed her 2,500 miles from New York, the U. S. S. "Tennessee" put into Port-au-Prince, Haiti, and unloaded a company of United States marine corps recruits last week, according to a letter received by Sergeant Frank Stubbe of the local recruiting station of the marine corps.

"The waves rolled high," one of the recruits wrote Stubbe, "and, for the first time in my life I realized the bigness of the ocean, the smallness of me, and the minor part I could play in the great scheme of things. Is there a life beyond death, I asked myself? If not, what is the purpose of my being? Why was I ever born? Pondering over this stupendous question I staggered to the rail, and, after a while, was forced to give the whole thing up—together with some trifles I had eaten for breakfast. As I let go of my feelings, a big blue fish jumped out of the water and gazed hungrily into my beautiful blue eyes. He was a handsome fellow and I knew that I'd remember him if I ever saw him again. And sure enough, five days later, as we were entering the harbor of Port-au-Prince, and while I was again meditating on the philosophy of life, that same blue fish jumped out of the water as if to devour my inmost thoughts. It seems that a school of them followed us all the way down to Haiti because of the recruits aboard who had never before been to sea."

"Some piscatorial embroidery," was Stubbe's comment on the letter.
