The Value of Thrift

ABE LINCOLN, answering an inquiry from an eastern creditor regarding the responsibility and character of a fellow township, when Lincoln was a young attorney in Illinois, replied as follows:

"Dear Sir:

"Yours of the 10th received. I am well acquainted with the gentleman named and know his circumstances. First of all he has a wife and baby; together they ought to be worth $50,000 to any man. Then he has an office, in which there is a table worth about $1.50, and three chairs worth, say, $1. Last of all, there is in one corner a rat hole which will bear looking into.

"Respectfully,
"ABRAHAM LINCOLN."

ARE YOU SATISFIED?

with commonplace wall paper or have you secretly envied the more artistic decorations of your neighbors and friends?

If so you probably would be surprised if we told you that some of the very papers you admired were purchased from us and the price—but that would be telling.

Sometimes bad errors happen when a newspaper is being made up and once in a while the error is not discovered until after the paper is printed. Such an incident occurred last week in The Northwestern when the type in a dance notice and a revival meeting notice were mixed. We regret very much that a mistake of this kind should happen but after the paper was printed and mailed it could not be changed. All the type and ads for last week's paper was set in one day, besides printing, folding and mailing the paper, which is setting the pace too fast and is some excuse for making the above mentioned error.
