LITCHFIELD EVENTS

(The following correspondence from Litchfield was omitted last week on account of an error in the Loup City postoffice, the envelope being put in a wrong box by mistake. We very much regret this error and trust that it will not occur again.)

Paul Nemott of Ravenna loaded out a car of horses last Friday.

Ed Achenbach shipped a load of hogs to Omaha last Sunday.

A. L. Farnsworth is putting an addition on the A. D. Jones home north of town.

R. L. Farnsworth has the house that he is building for Frank Wyman ready for the plasterers, Lew Sadler is doing that work.

After being married thirty-six years, the stork left a fine baby boy at the home of Anson Fletcher on Monday night.

Mr. and Mrs. George McKenzie left Sunday morning for the east where George goes to undergo an operation for rupture.

Rev. Troy went to Hazard to fill his appointment there on Sunday. He had not kept it for several weeks on account of an epidemic of the measles there.

Lee Engleman shipped his emigrant car of stock, and goods, on Sunday evening for Brush, Colorado, where he has taken a 320 acre homestead. Good luck to you Lee.

Mat Robinson bought the Registered Belgian horse of John Mead last Saturday at George Lang's sale. It sold for $237.50. Mat shipped it to Ravenna the same evening.

Thomas Haller shipped a mixed load of cattle and hogs from Litchfield, and George Haller shipped a load of cattle and one of hogs from Hazard on Tuesday morning.

John Mead sold five head of young horses to Paul Nemott last week, and H. J. Burtman sold him four head of dapple garys that were good ones, and in fine condition. They brought him around $700, and they were well worth the price.

Frank Wyman and Wheeler Fox decided to settle the difference between them in regard to the acceptance of the farm after the house was burned down, by arbitration. Alfred Flint and George McKenzie were chosen as arbitrators, they selecting John Minshall as third man, and managed to settle the matter to the satisfaction of the parties concerned.

Ben Robinson, one of the very old timers of the Clear Creek valley, came in on No. 39 Saturday. He homesteaded 160 acres of the Hotchkiss farm and afterwards lived on the school land now owned by Mrs. Albersen. He is a brother of Mrs. Green and uncle to Mrs. A. L. Fletcher. He like many other settlers of that time, thought that this country would never amount to anything. Now he has the surprise of his life.

The wolf hunt held on Monday, and covering Scott township, was not altogether a blank. General George Slotte held the north line well protected and the advance from the northeast and west was well protected, but it was too rapid, and the ground not thoroughly worked. I saw one step through the north line. One wolf was killed but more rounded up before the close.

Mrs. A. L. Fletcher has just received a telegram from her nephews in Canada announcing the sudden death of her brother, William Green, from heart failure. He died this morning, the 14th, about one o'clock. Mr. Green will be well remembered by all the old settlers. He was a prominent and well informed man. He visited with Mr. and Mrs. Fletcher for a week two years ago last Christmas. He was one of those genial, good natured fellows that we are glad to meet, well informed, and good company. He has been a very successful man in Canada, and has sent two sons to the European war. We certainly condole with the bereaved relatives.

The Roof of the World

Copyright 1916 General Roofing Manufacturing Co.

"From Greenland's icy mountains,
From India's coral strand,
Where Afric's sunny fountains
Roll down their golden sand,
From many a distant river,
From many a palmy plain,
They call us to deliver
Their heads from sun and rain."

You will find CERTAIN-TEED affording equal protection from the snow and ice of the Arctic, and the sun and rain of the Tropics. It is literally "the roof of the world"

Making roofing is the General's chief business. He makes one-third of all the roll roofing made in America—thirty-nine other manufacturers make the balance. Such predominance is due to the General's ability to make the highest quality roofing at the lowest cost.

Every advantage that men, money, mills and machinery can offer is used to increase production, maintain quality and lower the cost. The result is that today CERTAIN-TEED, the world's best quality, costs less than inferior roofing cost ten years ago.

CERTAIN-TEED is made of the best quality roofing felt, thoroughly saturated with a scientific blend of soft asphalts, the formula of the General's board of expert chemists. It is then coated with a blend of harder asphalts, which keeps the inner saturation soft and prevents the drying-out process so destructive to ordinary roofing.

CERTAIN-TEED is guaranteed for 5, 10 or 15 years, according to ply (1, 2 or 3). Experience proves that it lasts longer.

CERTAIN-TEED is made in rolls; also in slate-surfaced shingles. There is a type of CERTAIN-TEED for every kind of building, with flat or pitched roofs, from the largest sky-scraper to the smallest residence or out-building.

Certain-teed Roofing

CERTAIN-TEED is sold by responsible dealers all over the world at reasonable prices. Investigate it before you decide on any type of roof.
