

ROUTE 2, LOUP CITY

Dr. Longacre was out on the route Tuesday.

W. G. Tucker was breaking a colt Tuesday.

E. B. Corning surveyed near Hazard this week.

Simon Iossi is building himself a self stacker.

Mr. Duma put up a mail box last Wednesday.

Roy Conger hauled home a load of oats Tuesday.

W. O. Brown was trimming his trees Monday.

Joe Daddow has been out to his farm this week.

Carrier got a load of alfalfa from John Kociemba.

Mr. Thornton unloaded a car of shingles Tuesday.

Alfred Jorgenson did some fence repairing Monday.

W. H. McLaughlin marketed hogs at Loup City, Tuesday.

Harry Gardner worked at the ice house of the carrier.

Ernest Rowe is working on Frank Psota's new buildings.

Johnny Paulson has rented the farm land of W. T. Draper's.

Mrs. H. S. Conger visited at John Galloway's home Monday.

Gross Bros. drove a bunch of cattle to Will Peterson's Tuesday.

Mrs. Sam Daddow had her farm house painted the past week.

Jake Synak's new house will be ready for the plasterers soon.

Floyd Howard had porkers on the Loup City market last Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Howard visited several days at Albion this week.

Lou Sphar put lightning rods on Ernest Daddow's house, Tuesday.

Chris Domgard was out on route two last Saturday with a load of oil.

Mrs. H. S. Conger visited at her son's, Roy Conger the past week.

Rev. Slocumb preached in the Wiggle Creek church last Sunday.

Jess Fletcher has been hauling corn from A. P. Paulson's the past week.

Joe Daddow sold James Roush several loads of shelled corn Monday.

Anton Spotanski from Schaupps was in town after a load Saturday.

Dick Piper's new buildings on route one loom up big in the distance.

Peter Haremza helped Lorchick with his new buildings the past week.

The ice and snow is all gone. How different from last year at this time.

Mrs. Roy Conger visited at the home of William Davenport a few days last week.

The Big Four has been very busy unloading brick for the new school-house.

John Kociemba was grading the road along W. O. Brown's east line Monday.

The Parcel Post sale that the ladies intended having Friday is postponed for some time.

Peter Rowe was laying cement blocks in Barney Rojewski's cellar the past week.

Miss Maggie Paulson will commence clerking in a store at Ravenna in a few weeks.

All the schools on Route 2 reopened Monday, except the Prairie Gem and the Hawk districts.

Simeon Iosse helped John Heasler get some big cottonwood trees from Jim Johansen's land, Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Nick Daddow, Mr. and Mrs. A. R. Jack, all attended church at Loup City Sunday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Thompson moved on the Mickow farm or what was known as the O'Bryan place.

Mrs. Jessie McFadden and Miss Lulu Brodcock visited with Mrs. C. O. Wagner last Thursday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Elsner, Art Elsner and The Northwestern man autoed toward Litchfield, Tuesday.

The carrier received a letter from Luther Goodwin, in Iowa, and he states that he is about as when he left here.

Mrs. Edgar Foster's school closed last week. She accompanied Edgar around on his route several times during her vacation.

C. J. Norstedt brought his son Carl home from Lincoln last week. Carl is getting along fine after a severe case of the measles.

Mrs. John Czarnek has been very ill for over a month and several times her life has been despaired of. At this writing she is a little better.

Hurrah for Washington township. They have bought a heavy grader, one heavy enough for an engine. I hope they show other townships how it works roads.

Henry Kuhl bought a thoroughbred bull at Grand Island last week. Mr. Kuhl paid over $300 for it. The people are not satisfied with cheap bulls any more. Most everyone are getting registered ones.

Frank Papernick got quite badly hurt in an automobile accident on his way to his sister's wedding last week. In some way one of the wheels ran off and all were thrown from the car, but Frank was the only one hurt.

While Mr. Fulton was burning some weeds, Tuesday, the fire got away from him, catching a straw stack within a few feet of the barn. The barn and chicken coop was burned to the ground. This is a hard blow for this family.

Frank Lorchick built a new barn and chicken coop on his farm the past week. He also has the foundation laid for a new house. Frank is putting his buildings on the higher hill on his place. The day is past when people built houses deep down in the draws.

Mass meeting Friday night in the Wiggle Creek school house for the purpose of talking over consolidated schools for the different districts. One of the head men of the state will be there that night. Everybody ought to turn out as this is a very important matter for all.

Tom McFadden and Homer Hughes each hauled out a big load of tiles for W. H. Hughes last week. Mr. Hughes is tiling some low rich land on his farm. It is only a question of a little while when all the low ground along the river will be drained and raising a big crop.

Ernest Daddow dragged the roads from his place to the Wiggle Creek church last Thursday. This is the same piece of road that Floyd Howard dragged some time ago. Either one of these patrons did not charge for what they did. Floyd does not own an automobile either. Ernest owns one. Both believe in road dragging.

Mr. and Mrs. A. P. Paulson and youngest son leave Monday, March 27, for California. Mr. and Mrs. Paulson and family have lived in the vicinity of Loup City for a number of years and their many friends will regret very much to see them leave. The carrier wishes them health and prosperity in their new home.

Did you ever notice how beautiful Loup City looked from the divide on route two. It looks like a city of ten thousand. As soon as the leaves come out on the trees it will be almost completely hidden from view, so take a look now and see how pretty it nestles against the hillside. Loup City is as pretty a city as you will find in the state. Loup City and surrounding country are having a big building boom this spring. When the carrier came to Loup City thirty-three years ago there was not much of a city here.

Did you all notice the large ring around the moon last Thursday evening? Wonder if it meant a drought this year, or more war, as the Mexicans are already making trouble with the United States, but we hope that all this trouble will fade away.

One of Ed Stillman's work horses slipped and fell, breaking one of its legs below the knee. The veterinary said nothing could be done for the broken leg to save the horse, so Mr. Stillman had to have the poor beast shot, which sure was too bad.

Mrs. Della Manchester is having lumber hauled out to her farm in Valley county. She intends to build on the place. Mr. Vanhorn has rented her place for 5 years, and it is nice to have a house and barn there, as it means more money for Mrs. Manchester and her children. Her father, Mr. Jimmie Wheatcraft, is looking after the business for her.

Now is the time to get your harness oiled and repaired. Bring them in to James Bartunek.

GOODBYE

THE last week of our Closing Out Sale. We want to say goodbye to all our customers and thank you for your valuable patronage for all the years we were in business in Loup City. We want to make this last week an event to be remembered for a long time to come.
