The "SILENT SMITH"

—Model 8 shows what should now be expected of a typewriter.

Ball Bearing; Long Wearing

The success of the L. C. Smith & Bros. Typewriters has been due to the fact that the wants of the user have dictated its construction. The user has decided in favor of certain improvements now incorporated in Model 8.
Among them are:

Silence of Operation—The most silent running efficient typewriter ever placed on the market. Absolute silence has been very nearly attained.

Decimal Tabulator—A help in billing and tabulating.
There is no extra charge for this convenience.

Variable Line Spacing—Enables the operator to start on a given line and space from point of starting; also to write on ruled lines whose spacing varies from typewriter spacing. A great help in card work.

Faster Ribbon Feed—Insures new place of impact for each typeface.

Choice of Carriage Return—Upon special order the new left hand carriage return will be furnished in place of the right hand return.

All the important features of previous models have been retained —ball bearing carriage, typebars and capital shift, back spacer, key-controlled ribbon, removable platen, protected type, flexible paper feed and automatic ribbon reverse.

Write for New Catalog of Model 8. It will explain why the L. C. Smith & Bros. Typewriter is a synonym for superior service.

Forced upon the stage against her will by her family, for the purpose of winning a wealthy, good-for-nothing husband, is the unpleasant experience which befell the hero in our new serial story, entitled, "The Auction Block," by Rex Beach. Her parents, including her father, mother and brother, looked upon her as the one means of obtaining prominence and riches. How she won the shiftless husband, made a man of him and freed herself of her ever grasping relations is told in an exceedingly interesting narrative. The story will run serially in these columns, the first instalment appearing in the immediate future. Keep your eye peeled for the opening.

School teachers are invited to send their classes in literature to witness the performance of George Elliot's classic, "Silas Mariner," as a motion picture, which shows at the opera house Saturday, June 10. "Silas Mariner" has been made into a picture by the Thanhouser (Mutual) company, and is given to the public as one of those photoplays, par excellence. Mutual Masterpieces, De Luxe Edition, Frederick Warde, the famous Shake-pearean actor, is in the leading role, and is supported by an able cast. If your classes have not yet read George Elliot's novel, but have it yet to read, or if they have already passed it in your classes, bring them. It will fix the story on their minds as the book could never do.
